

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

MONDAY
February 28, 1916

PICTURES FROM HOME AND ABROAD THROW TIMELY SIDELIGHTS ON THE DAY'S ASSORTED NEWS

Photo by Harris & Hastings
HOUSE LEADERS WHO ARE OPPOSING PRESIDENT'S SUBMARINE POLICY
Left to right: Chairman Flood, of the Foreign Affairs Committee; Speaker Clark and Majority Leader Kitchin, just after their call on President Wilson to tell him of the House's objections to his position on the international situation.

INTERPRETER OF GREEK DANCES
Miss Helen Moeller will appear tomorrow evening at the Leap Year dance of the Mercantile Club. At the left is an impersonation of "Pan." Above is a pose in the "Valse."

Photo by Kelly & Sawyer
IN THE KENNEL CLUB SHOW
Champion Omija, a bright Japanese spaniel from the Greenacre Kennels, who will be on view at the show which lasts through tomorrow.

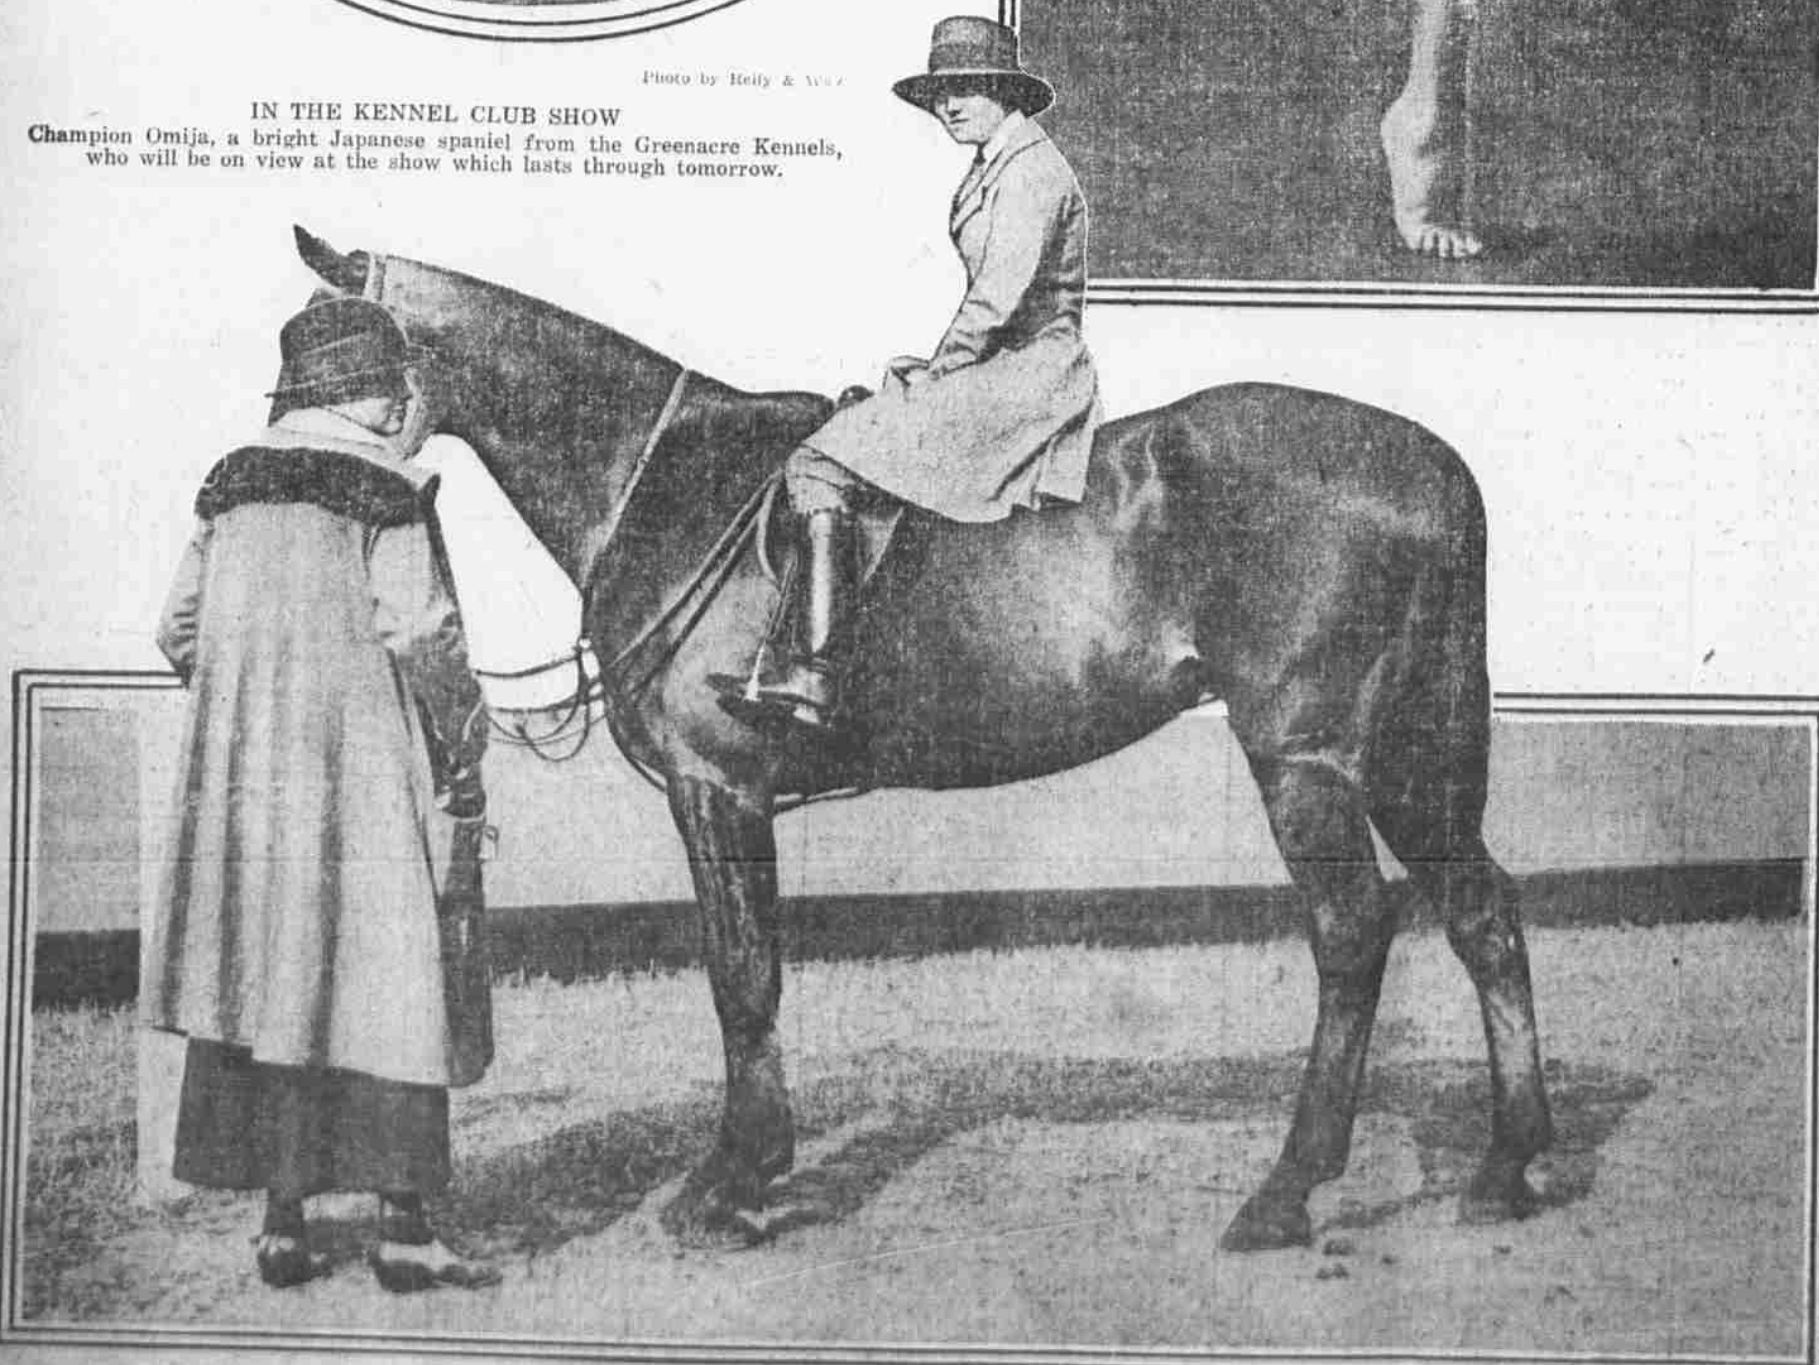

Photo by Underwood & Underwood
AMONG THE WINTER COLONISTS AT AIKEN
Seated on the horse is Miss Rose Dolan, of Philadelphia, who is viewing the polo matches at the South Carolina resort with Mrs. F. Eridy von Stade, of New York.

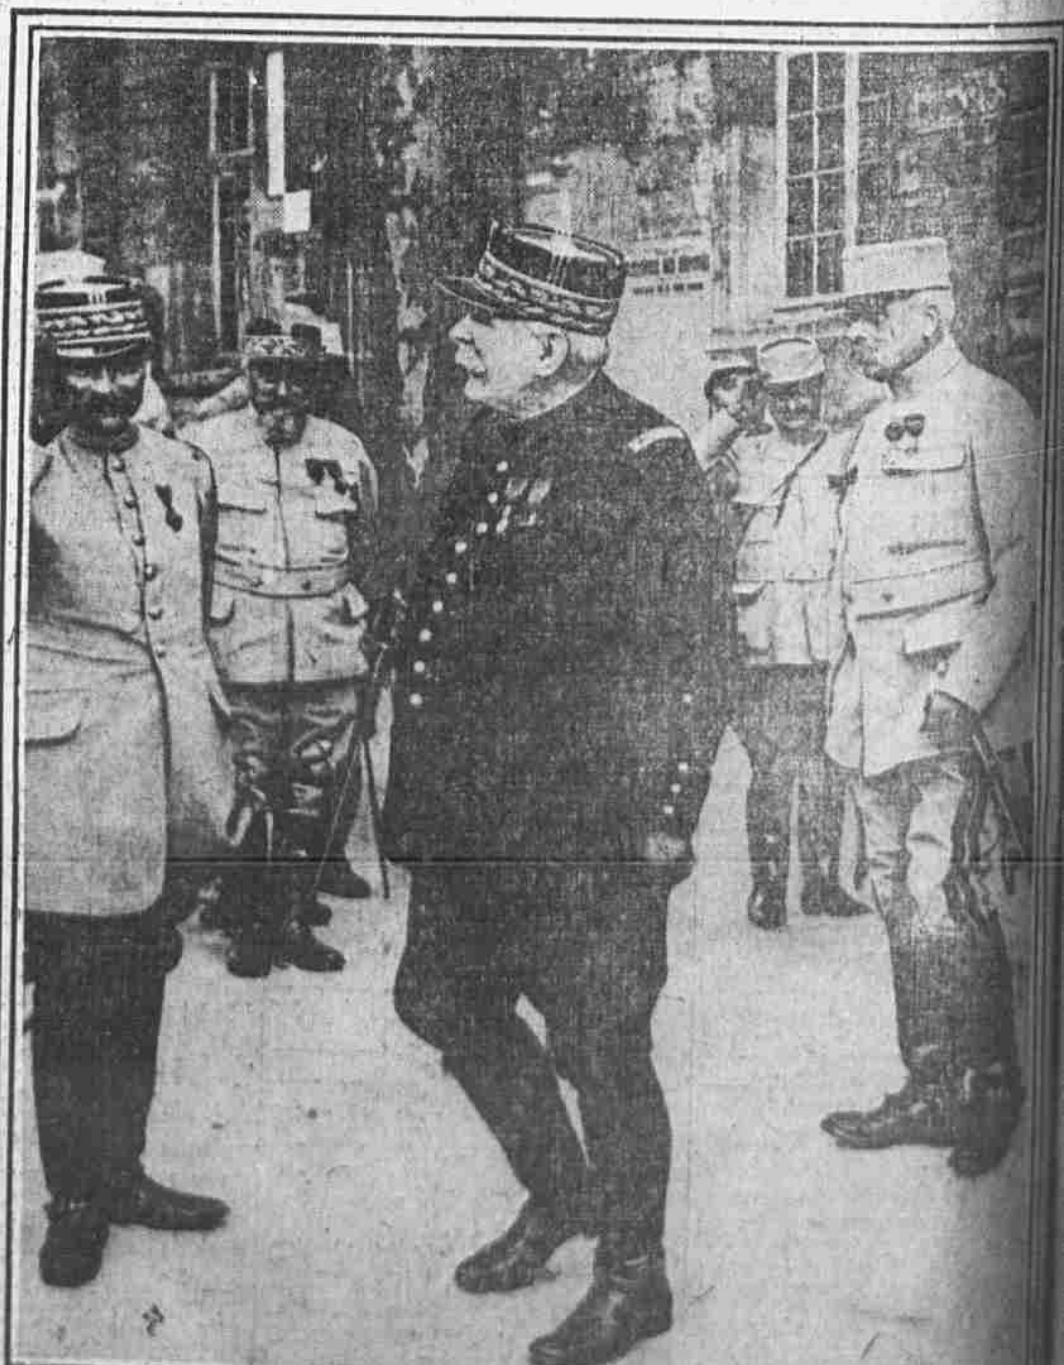

Photo by Underwood & Underwood
FRENCH GENERALS CONFER AT VERDUN
At the left is General Humbert, commander of the infantry forces defending the big fortress, as he appeared following a conference with General Joffre, the dark figure in the centre.