NANCY WYNNE ANTICIPATES DELIGHTFUL BALL TONIGHT

The Second Assembly Will Be Held This Evening in the Ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford-Many Dinners Will Precede the Affair enormous S will turn out in its very bestest to attend the second Assembly, which will be held in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford. The first ball was held on the night of January 7, as the time-honored custom is to have the first one on the first Friday in the year and the second the last Friday before

It must be a terrific ordeal to stand for more than two hours courtesying and bowing to each guest in a long, conbowing to each guest in a tong, con-tinuous line, but it is such a pretty, stately custom I am always glad to see it is kept up from year to year. There will b' an unusual number of sinners before tonight's ball. Lowber Stokes will entertain for his brother Stokes will entertain for his brother and new sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs.

The Wilkins Carrs will give a dinner for Helene Martin, and among their guests will be Sarah Penrose, Christine Stockton, Kate Furness, Morris Gates, Percy Taylor, Lewis Parsons, Jack Sinkler, Lieutenant Forde Todd and Alexander Randall. Mrs. Woodville Bohlen will entertain for Mary, and the Lewis Neilsons will give a dinner for Sarah and Margaretta Myers. A debutante dinner will also be ! given by the Howard S. Grahams, Arrong the others who will entertain before the ball are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morrison Wiggins and Miss Grace Eleanor Murtha, two of this season's debutantes. Miss Murtha will be introduced at the Langdon Elwyn, Dr. and Mrs. Albert Francine, Dr. and Mrs. John Gibbon, Mr. and Mrs. Charlemagne Tower for Helen and Gertrude, Mr. and Mrs. Wal-Helen and Gertrude, Mr. and Mrs. Wal-of subscription dances tomorrow night, ter Waring Hopkinson, Mr. and Mrs. George Quintard Horwitz and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Howard.

We surely ought to be used to these things, and yet we are not, and when one sees a dainty little debutante of unquestionable birth light her cigarette in the palm room of a hotel and puff gaily while talking to her friends, it is a sort of shock, and that is just what I did see. I am wondering how many others saw her after I left and if any one will communicate the news It any one will communicate the news to her mother, who would, from all I know, be quite horrified, for only two days after seeing the small girl smok-ing away with a decided case borne of custom, I heard Mamma say at a huncheon, "Well, I am glad to say that is one thing my daughter never does. I simply will not allow it." It is a droll thing how often families are the last ones to know what deeds the members thereof sometimes perpetrate on the B. Patton, Mrs. C. J. Fairlamb and Mrs. E. P.
