NANCY WYNNE IS INTERESTED IN JUNIOR LEAGUE'S NEW YORK TRIP

Members of the Younger Set of This City Will Go to New York to Appear Again in the Ballet of Orlando at the Ritz-Carlton

As you may well imagine every one on Saturday evening at the Merion Cricket Club. funior League performance in New Tork. You see, they did so marvelously well in their performance of the "Ballet of Orlando" here last month that the tame thereof went abroad throughout the land, so to speak, and consequently they were invited to repeat it in New York in confunction with some movies which the Junior League there has got-

8d they left in a private car early this morning, and great is the excitement you may be sure. Some of the girls will stay over night at the Ritz under the chaperenage of Mrs. Francis Lloyd, the quite incomparable Orlando himself.

Others will go to stay with various friends, and some who have mutual triends are drawing lots, I hear, to find sut who shall stay with whom.

Those of us who saw the ballet here on February 2 remember it as one of the most artistic, quaint and humorous performances ever given by amateurs in this city, and I am quite sure they will take New York by storm.

Some of the members who will go to New York are Cornella Leidy, Mary Frances Fisher, Susio Ingersoll, Mary Alice Clay, Marion Savage, Alice Thompson, Mary Mitchell, Adeline Pepper, Kitty Brinton, Eliza Fox, Sylvia Barnes, Louisa Davis, Ellen Mary Casmit, Eugenia Cassatt, Cecile Howell, Mary Williams, Nancy Scott, Kitty Munoz, Alice Biddle, Christine Chambers, Nancy Reath, Marjorie Townsend, Marian Taylor, Nancy Stokes, Elizabeth Myers, Margaret Chrystie, Marian Butler. Alice Earle and a host of others. Miss Georgianna Brown was and is in charge of the dancing and general en-

Every day it seems I hear of more generous things which are being done for war sufferers, and this time the knitting which is the theme of my little tale is really not a joke, but is well done. There is a very attractive little maiden who lives in Chestnut Hill and came out about two seasons ago who is industriausly making socklets for the soldier boys. She goes out a lot and so does her knitting bag, I am told, and every time and everywhere it is possible to knit she knits. Just imagine, since January 1 this small person, so the wee bird says, has made no fewer than 12 pairs of socks; not 12 socks, mind you, NANCY WYNNE. but 12 pairs.
