

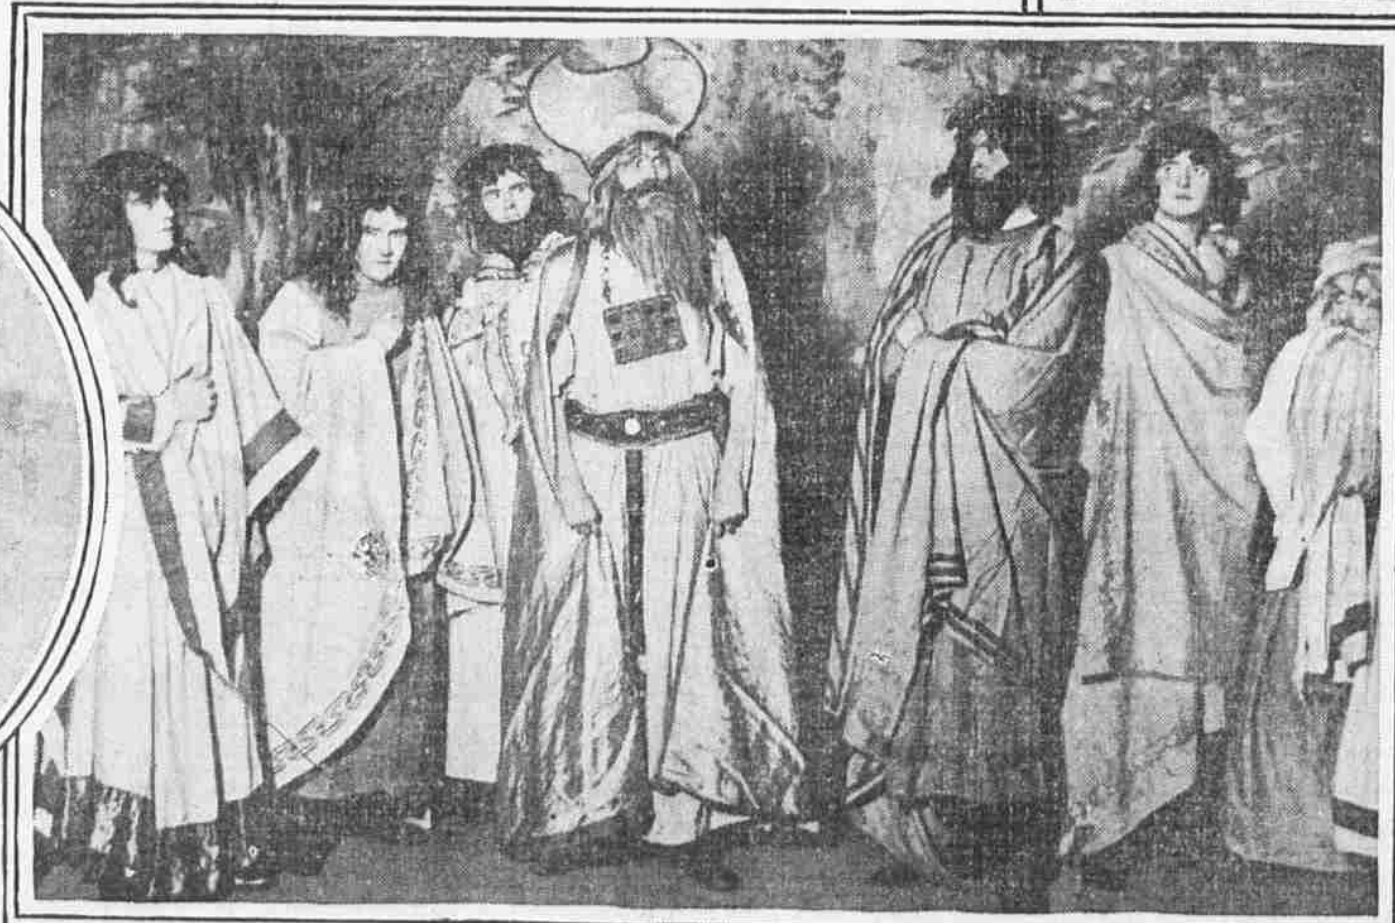

GRAPHIC SIDELIGHTS ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS REVEALED BY THE CAMERA

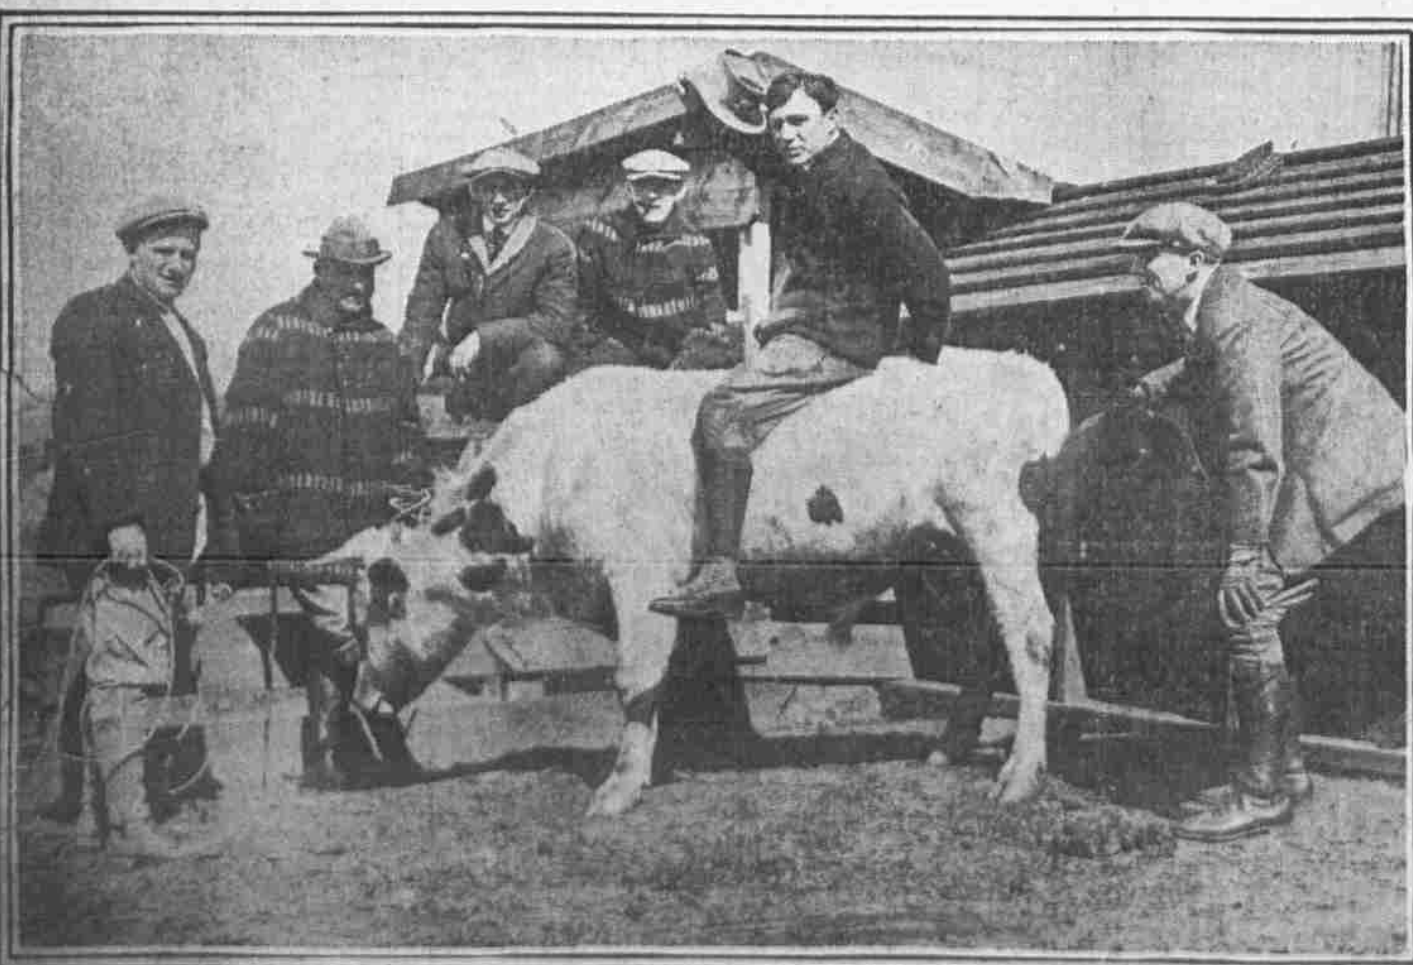

FEMININE AIDES MEET TO PLAN HOW TO AID COMING GUESTS OF POOR RICHARD CLUB
 A tea was held yesterday at which the "women's auxiliary" mapped out a campaign of entertainment for the big convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, which is to be held here in June. There will be many wives, daughters and sisters of "ad" men who must be provided for.

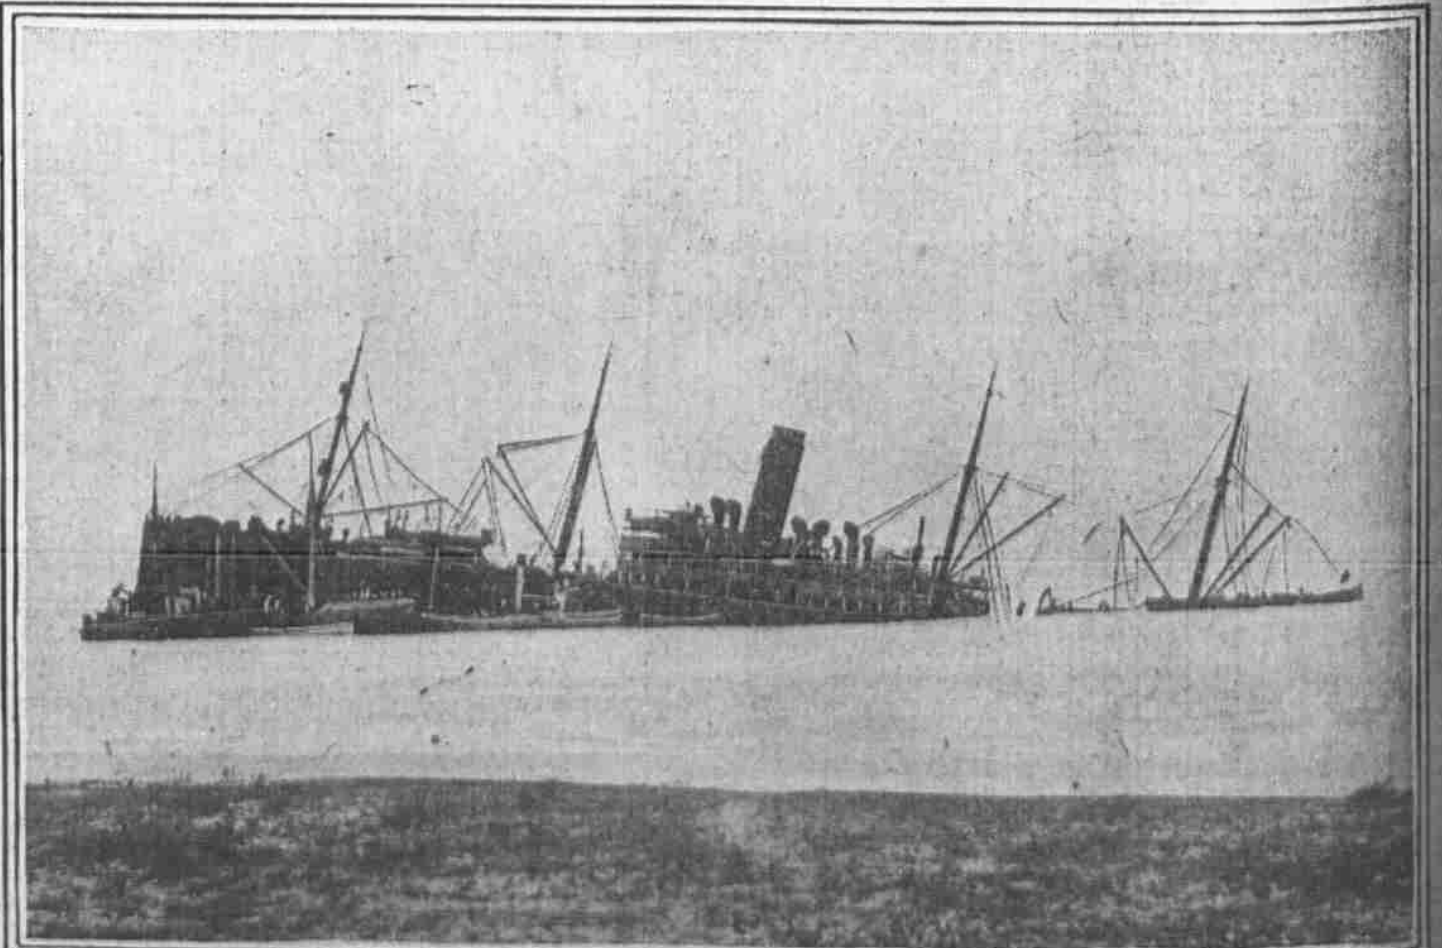

NOT WORRYING ABOUT VERDUN
 A French "poulu" helps himself to a little light refreshment behind the battle line and doesn't care who knows it.

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE STUDENTS WHO WILL APPEAR IN CAST OF PASSION PLAY
 Left to right are Clare G. Fenerty, W. F. McMenamin, William Denny, A. P. Rafferty, J. F. Horstmann, M. Diamond and Ed Larkin, who are seven members of the cast of 200 which will give "Nazareth" at the Metropolitan Opera House during Passion Week.

INDIFFERENT TO CHILLY SHORE WINDS
 Here Miss Bessie Elliott, of Seattle, Wash., in her bathing socks, and Albert J. Graham, of New York, who astonished Atlantic City's natives on Monday by boldly plunging into the surf.

BOSTON BRAVES DISPORT THEMSELVES ON STALLINGS' FARM BEFORE STARTING TRAINING
 Hank Gowdy is cranking the three-year-old named "Ford," while Pitcher Hughes, acting as chauffeur, waits for the engine to start. Looking on are Ragon Stallings, George Stallings, Neff and Evers, who have been visiting their boss down in Georgia.

BRITISH TRANSPORT BEACHED AFTER BEING TORPEDOED AT ENTRANCE TO SALONICA BAY
 The steamship Nordman, carrying a cargo of 4500 mules for the use of the Allies at the Greek port, fell a victim to a submarine near the fortress of Kara Burnu. However, by running her nose up into the surf she was able to save most of her mules.