

FULLNESS OF SPIRIT, NICHOLSON'S THEME AT DARBY SERVICES

Many Brave Slush, Snow and Rain to Attend Revival in Temple at Terminal

COUNTY FOLK PRESENT

Snow, slush and rain could not keep the people away from the Nicholson-Heminger tabernacle in Darby for the sermon by Evangelist "Billy" Nicholson this afternoon.

Mr. Nicholson reached the site of the revival on the morning of the 6th. During the next two days he will preach on the same topic. He made it plain that he finds a wide difference between persons who are at the same time, filled with the Holy Spirit.

"You can't keep a person quiet when he is filled with the Spirit," said the evangelist. "You don't need a centrifugal pump to get a word of testimony out of you. It is like an artesian well."

"The Fullness of the Spirit" was his topic today, and he based the sermon on Acts 1:4 and Ephesians 5:17-18.

"Pentecost ought to be a daily occurrence in the life of every believer. If it is wrong to be drunk as a sinful man, then it is just as wrong not to be filled with the Spirit," he said.

"It is an absolute necessity that I be filled with the spirit of God. The first reason is that I may have a spiritual holiness. You can make a child moral, but you can never make it spiritual."

"There is only one source of holiness, that is the Holy Spirit. We can only be changed into the spirituality of Christ by the Holy Spirit. You can never live the supernatural life by natural means. It is only as I am being fed day by day that I am being filled."

"The whole secret," he declared, "is allowing the Lord the right of way in life. Christ must fashion us and present us. It is an absolute necessity if I am to work. How can I perform these greater works except I am being filled, day by day? You lost heart; you became weary in well doing, and finally quit altogether. By the energy of your resolutions you can never do the work."

BLESSINGS FOR BELIEVERS. "I suppose nearly all the crazy things today are in some way gathered around the teaching of God." Here he spoke of the extremes of the extremists, and cautioned his hearers.

"This fullness of blessing," he continued, "is for every believer—men and women. This is my inalienable birthright. This fullness of blessing is for every believer everywhere. I used to think it was for the preacher while he was preaching, but that's not so. The common, ordinary things of life are the reason why we need to be filled with the Holy Spirit. Many of the 120 never preached—only a few. The others scattered back to the ordinary pursuits of life and there they were still filled with the Holy Spirit."

TILLS OWN EXPERIENCE. "Every believer has the Holy Spirit, but the Holy Spirit does not possess every believer. There is all the difference in the world between a believer who has the Holy Spirit and one possessed by the Holy Spirit. At Pentecost they were filled with it. I received the Spirit at the time of my conversion, but it was months afterward before He possessed me."

"There is a striking analogy between a drunken man and a Spirit-filled man. First, he is a mystery. Second, you can't silence him; he will talk. Third, you can't discourage him. You may lock him up, but he goes back to the same old thing. Lift these three characteristics into the realm of spiritual things and you have a mystery."

"When I ran down that street, beating a tambourine, after I received the Holy Spirit," referring to that incident in his life which he had given in the tabernacle, "it was a mystery. The elders and my minister didn't understand me. You can't keep a person quiet when he is filled with the Spirit. You don't need a centrifugal pump to get a word of testimony out of you. It is like an artesian well. Out of the heart the mouth speaketh."

"FILLED WITH THE SPIRIT." "You can't discourage a person filled with the Spirit. Some are 50 years old and are just wee babies. When we are filled with the Spirit of God all touchiness vanishes. When a man is filled with the Holy Spirit he isn't concerned about pleasing men; he's pleasing God. You are indifferent to what old Mother Grundy thinks. When filled with the spirit of God we are the job, and to be filled with God's spirit we must be emptied of other things."

Then Mr. Nicholson illustrated that religious things are not necessarily Christianity.

$1000-A-YEAR JOB AWAITS AMERICA'S OWN HONEY BOY

Uncle Sam Offers That Salary for an Official Apiarist Willing to Undertake the Task of Subduing Belligerent Bees of Arizona

Uncle Sam is having considerable trouble to get an official bee handler. It is due probably to the fact that the average American has a horror of being stung.

To the man who successfully passes the examination of wrestling with bees Uncle Sam will give $1000 yearly, providing he will go to Arizona and work among the Indians.

Incidentally, the one who is selected can allow himself to become known as an official apiarist, or America's own honey boy. Word was received from Washington today that two Philadelphians were being considered for the position, but names were withheld until the final selection has been made.

On account of the prosperity rampant in all parts of the country there was no immense mob clamoring for the job. In fact, it is said that the applicants from all parts of the country could be counted on one's fingers.

In announcing that the position was in the market, Uncle Sam pointed out that all candidates would have to pass an average of 100. In this connection it was stated that a mark of 60 would be necessary for training and experience and 40 for physical ability. Stress was laid upon the physical requirements in view of the nature of the task.

The bees with which the bee handler must contend are of the Arizona variety. They are used to living in the wilds and fighting Indians. Therefore they are not of the wrist-watch species, and are happiest when in the midst of a massacre. They have daily revolutions for dessert

'BRIBERY,' SAYS M'ADOO OF DELEGATE'S OFFER

Secretary Refuses Promotion for Promise of Support at Convention

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Secretary McAdoo last night made public a telegram from State Senator James I. Green, of Massachusetts, relating to promotion for Mr. Green's brother in the Boston custom house and his reply. The telegram from Green to the Secretary read as follows: "As Secretary of the Treasury you have full power to create immediately deputy surveyorship Boston, just abolished, and promote my brother; or you can increase his salary to $6 per day, which is perfectly satisfactory. My conduct as delegate national convention will be governed by treatment accorded him. Wire my expense."

In his reply Mr. McAdoo said: "Do you realize that your telegram of 5th instant places you in very awkward position? You practically ask me to bribe you to govern your conduct as a delegate to national convention by giving your brother the position of deputy surveyor of Boston, which has been abolished because it is unnecessary, or to increase his salary to $6 per day. Your offense is a serious one and deserves to be treated with the contempt I accord it. I shall not prostitute the public service as you propose, and you can act as you please at the national convention."

WIDOW DEAD FROM FALL

Mrs. Pearl Mailman, Chester, Mother of Seven, Succumbs

CHESTER, March 8.—Mrs. Pearl Mailman, of 358 Fulton street, died today in the Chester Hospital from injuries resulting from a fall downstairs last Sunday. She was the widowed mother of seven children; her husband died in Russia shortly before she brought her family to this country.

The children were all at the breakfast table when the accident occurred. Their mother was coming downstairs to join them, and was seized by a fainting spell half way down. She fell the rest of the way, and was never conscious thereafter.

Mrs. Mailman was 53 years old. An eighth child, a son, was drowned in the Delaware River two years ago.

CHESTER FIRM CALLS FREIGHT RATES UNFAIR

Scott Paper Company Says Charges to Jersey Points Are "Unduly Prejudicial"

By a Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON, March 8.—Charges that all rates from Chester, Pa., to New Jersey points are "discriminatory and unduly prejudicial" were made today by the Scott Paper Company, of Chester, offices of which are in Philadelphia, in a complaint filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission against the Central Railroad of New Jersey, the Pennsylvania, Philadelphia and Reading and other roads. The complainant says that in an effort to equalize the rates the Pennsylvania has increased rates from Gibson Point and Paschal, Pa., but that this does not affect the unfairness of the rates from Chester. Whitney & Kemmerer, of Philadelphia, were parties to a complaint filed today by coal operators in the Freeport district of the Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad, charging discrimination in rates on bituminous and canal coal to New England points.

BITUMINOUS MINERS RATIFY AGREEMENT TODAY

New Terms Submitted to Full Conference of Soft Coal Men

NEW YORK, March 8.—The subcommittee of bituminous operators and miners, who were drafting a new wage contract for western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, completed their work late last night and reported an agreement to the full conference here today. One of the last things done was to fix the period of the new contract for two years, beginning April 1.

It also was decided that all internal differences shall be settled in the districts, with the provision that nothing shall be done that will increase the cost of production or lower the mining capacity of the miners.

The demands for an eight-hour day from "bank to bank" weekly paydays and that every other Saturday be an idle day were voted down. It is expected that the conference today will ratify the work of the subcommittee.

The subcommittee of anthracite miners and operators which was to have met this afternoon, announced last night that it had postponed its meeting until 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The meeting was again deferred to await a settlement of questions affecting the bituminous fields.

Steam Starts Scare in Printing Bureau

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Steam escaping from a broken pipe in the Government Bureau of Engraving and Printing Building threw hundreds of work-bound employees into a flurry of excitement this morning, and a fire alarm was turned in. Following no closely on the fire of several days ago, it revived rumors of plots against Government buildings.

Overland SIX $1145 advertisement with large stylized text and text: 'No Advance In Price. The price of the big, powerful Overland Six (Model 86) will not be advanced. Prices of other Sixes are advancing. Prices of Sixes recently announced on new models, are higher. In fact, comparatively figuring, prices of practically all Sixes are now far in excess of the Overland. On the basis of present prices of raw materials a Six of the Overland quality would have to sell at a much higher price. But due to a little foresight in purchasing we escaped having to pay premiums for raw materials—hence the price of the Overland Six is not increased. This in spite of the fact that prices of all steels are up from 100% to 150%; that the price of aluminum has gone from about 20 cents a pound to over 50 cents a pound; that the price of copper has more than doubled; that tires and other accessories have had a sharp advance. We cannot guarantee that this present price of $1145 will hold indefinitely. The serious condition of the material market makes that impossible. But the quality is not lowered; and for the present price is not advanced. Just compare the size, power, flexibility and quality of the Overland Six motor; the length of the wheelbase—the seating capacity, the finish, the equipment, the comforts, the conveniences and improvements of the Overland Six with all others and you'll find no valid reason for paying more than $1145 for a six cylinder automobile.
