PICTURES FROM HOME AND ABROAD THROW TIMELY SIDELIGHTS ON THE DAY'S ASSORTED NEWS

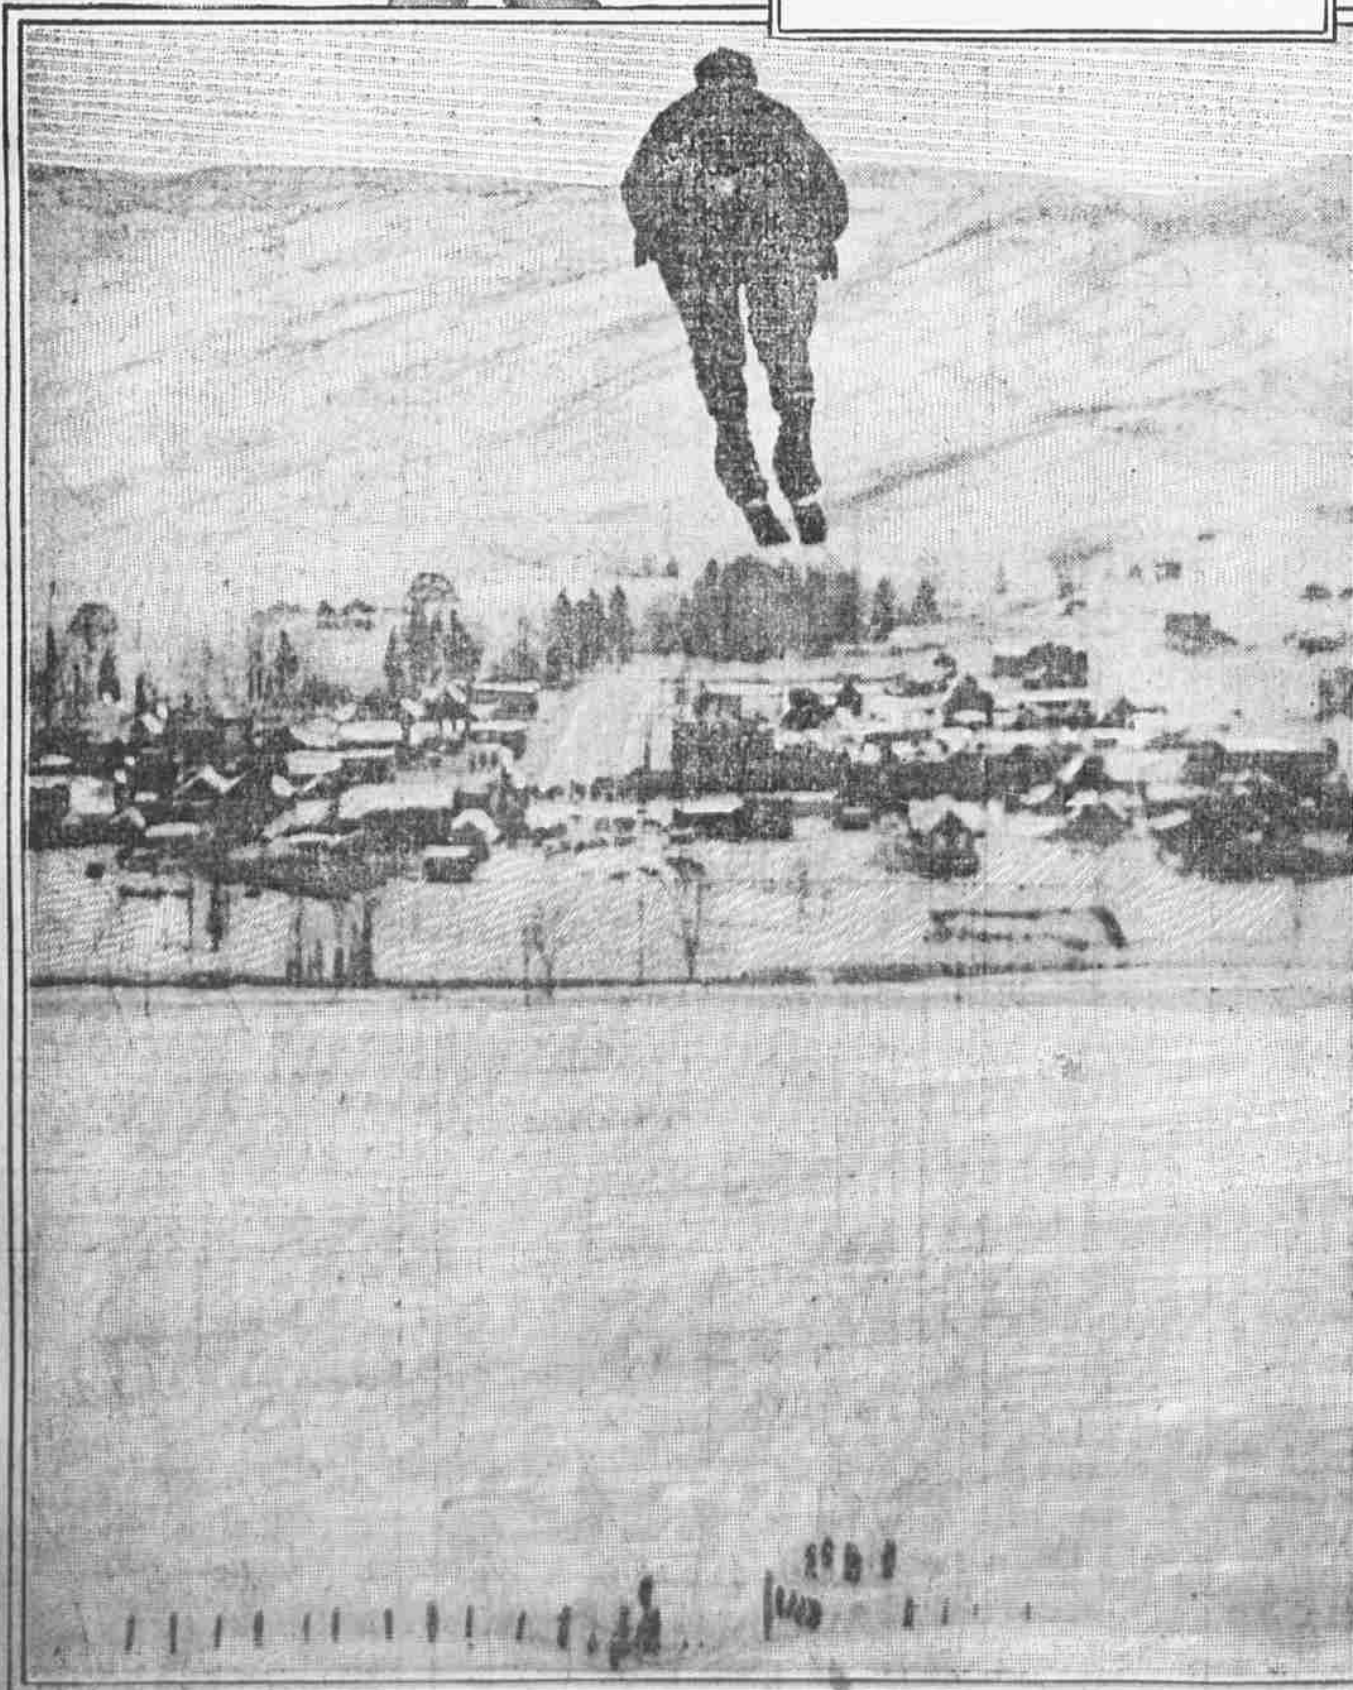

FLOWER GIRLS AT THE BABIES' BENEFIT SHOW
Misses Elinor Bean (at left) and Elizabeth Wister sold their goods at the Forrest Theatre yesterday at the performance given for the Babies' Hospital.

THREE YOUNG ELK ARE LATEST ZOO ADDITIONS
These youngsters were captured only a few weeks ago in the Yellowstone National Park for the State Game Commission.

LUBRICATING MUZZLES OF GERMAN BATTLE CRUISER'S GUNS
A sailor has climbed out to pour oil down the huge rifles of the Moltke, which may take part in a new North Sea battle at any time now. The British once announced that they had sunk this ship, but the Germans later proved otherwise.

CHICAGOAN MAKES RECORD SKI JUMP IN COLORADO
Ragnar Ostvedt cleared 192.9 feet in this feat at the carnival held at Steamboat Springs. The previous record of 177 feet was held by Omundsen, of Christiania, Norway. The size of the figures standing far below gives an idea of the height of the leap.

OPEN AIR CLASS OF SCHOOL CHILDREN LOOK LIKE YOUNG ESKIMOS
Outdoor study at the Bache School, 22d and Brown streets, has been prosecuted with much success and it is probable that the idea will spread rapidly—a contrast to the times of our fathers when cold, fresh air in a schoolroom was looked upon as dangerous.
