

NANCY WYNNE TALKS OF RECITAL RUTH DRAPER WILL GIVE WEDNESDAY

Society Is Interested in the Coming of Miss Draper From New York for a Rendition of Her Famous Monologues at the Little Theatre

WE ARE all looking forward with great pleasure to the appearance of Miss Ruth Draper in this city next Wednesday afternoon at the Little Theatre. Miss Draper, who is the daughter of Doctor Draper, of New York, is well known here, where she has frequently been the guest of the Ely girls, Constance Biddle and others who are especially prominent. She is a wonderfully attractive girl, and full of talent. She took up this monologue study for the pure love of the art some six or seven years ago, and since then circumstances have made it necessary for her to continue in it, and she has become quite the rage at numerous private houses. About two weeks ago she spoke at the dinner-dance which Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cox gave, and she has appeared at various charity affairs in New York and other cities. Most of her repertoire consists of humorous numbers, "Three Generations in the Domestic Court" is a scream, and another killing one is "A Quiet Morning in Bed." Altogether I anticipate a delightful afternoon, don't you?

Friends of Mrs. Randolph Snowden will be glad to know that she will return home about the first of next month. She left here a short time ago for London, where she had much of her furniture and other belongings stored, having lived over there for some time. She has joined her mother, Mrs. William Churchman, who has been staying in Paris with Mrs. Nelson Brown, and will bring her home with her. The two small Snowden children are staying with Billie Churchman and his wife, who was Beatrice Gaylin, at their home in Morristown.

Mrs. Scott's Supper Club was the biggest thing of the week after the bal masque, and it is remarkable with so many persons away how large a number they are really among the most delightful affairs given during the winter. There will be three more meetings in this series. Mrs. Scott was unable to be present on Saturday night, owing to a recent rather severe attack of grip. But there were more than 200 guests. The Sanders twins gave a party of 12 for Marie Agassiz, of Boston, whose engagement to Cornelius Felton, of Haverford, was announced recently. Mr. and Mrs. David Porter also entertained a number of guests.

So Alberta Brinton and Cesare Sturani have taken us into their confidence and announced their engagement. It only goes to show what the movies will do for us. Do you remember the melodramatic ones last spring, which were given for the benefit of the Cushman Club, when Alberta, Sturani and Reginald Oates were the three villains, Alberta soothing Reginald for making love to Sophie Norris. It was all horribly exciting, and after seeing the "Ideal Man" (he was that in the big pageant given some time before in Convention Hall) crumple over from a bench and die neatly on the grass, it was rather comforting to meet him going down the steps of the Griscom home to watch himself being killed afterward. And all the time Alberta was fooling us and she and Mr. Sturani were falling in love with each other. She is the daughter, you know, of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brinton, of Overbrook, a sister of Mrs. Ernest du Pont, of Wilmington, and Mrs. James Bayley, of Boston. Another sister is Kitty Brinton, who is charmingly pretty. No date has yet been set for the wedding of Miss Brinton and Mr. Sturani, but I understand it will be in the near future.

So Alberta Brinton and Cesare Sturani have taken us into their confidence and announced their engagement. It only goes to show what the movies will do for us. Do you remember the melodramatic ones last spring, which were given for the benefit of the Cushman Club, when Alberta, Sturani and Reginald Oates were the three villains, Alberta soothing Reginald for making love to Sophie Norris. It was all horribly exciting, and after seeing the "Ideal Man" (he was that in the big pageant given some time before in Convention Hall) crumple over from a bench and die neatly on the grass, it was rather comforting to meet him going down the steps of the Griscom home to watch himself being killed afterward. And all the time Alberta was fooling us and she and Mr. Sturani were falling in love with each other. She is the daughter, you know, of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brinton, of Overbrook, a sister of Mrs. Ernest du Pont, of Wilmington, and Mrs. James Bayley, of Boston. Another sister is Kitty Brinton, who is charmingly pretty. No date has yet been set for the wedding of Miss Brinton and Mr. Sturani, but I understand it will be in the near future.

So Alberta Brinton and Cesare Sturani have taken us into their confidence and announced their engagement. It only goes to show what the movies will do for us. Do you remember the melodramatic ones last spring, which were given for the benefit of the Cushman Club, when Alberta, Sturani and Reginald Oates were the three villains, Alberta soothing Reginald for making love to Sophie Norris. It was all horribly exciting, and after seeing the "Ideal Man" (he was that in the big pageant given some time before in Convention Hall) crumple over from a bench and die neatly on the grass, it was rather comforting to meet him going down the steps of the Griscom home to watch himself being killed afterward. And all the time Alberta was fooling us and she and Mr. Sturani were falling in love with each other. She is the daughter, you know, of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brinton, of Overbrook, a sister of Mrs. Ernest du Pont, of Wilmington, and Mrs. James Bayley, of Boston. Another sister is Kitty Brinton, who is charmingly pretty. No date has yet been set for the wedding of Miss Brinton and Mr. Sturani, but I understand it will be in the near future.

So Alberta Brinton and Cesare Sturani have taken us into their confidence and announced their engagement. It only goes to show what the movies will do for us. Do you remember the melodramatic ones last spring, which were given for the benefit of the Cushman Club, when Alberta, Sturani and Reginald Oates were the three villains, Alberta soothing Reginald for making love to Sophie Norris. It was all horribly exciting, and after seeing the "Ideal Man" (he was that in the big pageant given some time before in Convention Hall) crumple over from a bench and die neatly on the grass, it was rather comforting to meet him going down the steps of the Griscom home to watch himself being killed afterward. And all the time Alberta was fooling us and she and Mr. Sturani were falling in love with each other. She is the daughter, you know, of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brinton, of Overbrook, a sister of Mrs. Ernest du Pont, of Wilmington, and Mrs. James Bayley, of Boston. Another sister is Kitty Brinton, who is charmingly pretty. No date has yet been set for the wedding of Miss Brinton and Mr. Sturani, but I understand it will be in the near future.

So Alberta Brinton and Cesare Sturani have taken us into their confidence and announced their engagement. It only goes to show what the movies will do for us. Do you remember the melodramatic ones last spring, which were given for the benefit of the Cushman Club, when Alberta, Sturani and Reginald Oates were the three villains, Alberta soothing Reginald for making love to Sophie Norris. It was all horribly exciting, and after seeing the "Ideal Man" (he was that in the big pageant given some time before in Convention Hall) crumple over from a bench and die neatly on the grass, it was rather comforting to meet him going down the steps of the Griscom home to watch himself being killed afterward. And all the time Alberta was fooling us and she and Mr. Sturani were falling in love with each other. She is the daughter, you know, of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brinton, of Overbrook, a sister of Mrs. Ernest du Pont, of Wilmington, and Mrs. James Bayley, of Boston. Another sister is Kitty Brinton, who is charmingly pretty. No date has yet been set for the wedding of Miss Brinton and Mr. Sturani, but I understand it will be in the near future.

So Alberta Brinton and Cesare Sturani have taken us into their confidence and announced their engagement. It only goes to show what the movies will do for us. Do you remember the melodramatic ones last spring, which were given for the benefit of the Cushman Club, when Alberta, Sturani and Reginald Oates were the three villains, Alberta soothing Reginald for making love to Sophie Norris. It was all horribly exciting, and after seeing the "Ideal Man" (he was that in the big pageant given some time before in Convention Hall) crumple over from a bench and die neatly on the grass, it was rather comforting to meet him going down the steps of the Griscom home to watch himself being killed afterward. And all the time Alberta was fooling us and she and Mr. Sturani were falling in love with each other. She is the daughter, you know, of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brinton, of Overbrook, a sister of Mrs. Ernest du Pont, of Wilmington, and Mrs. James Bayley, of Boston. Another sister is Kitty Brinton, who is charmingly pretty. No date has yet been set for the wedding of Miss Brinton and Mr. Sturani, but I understand it will be in the near future.

So Alberta Brinton and Cesare Sturani have taken us into their confidence and announced their engagement. It only goes to show what the movies will do for us. Do you remember the melodramatic ones last spring, which were given for the benefit of the Cushman Club, when Alberta, Sturani and Reginald Oates were the three villains, Alberta soothing Reginald for making love to Sophie Norris. It was all horribly exciting, and after seeing the "Ideal Man" (he was that in the big pageant given some time before in Convention Hall) crumple over from a bench and die neatly on the grass, it was rather comforting to meet him going down the steps of the Griscom home to watch himself being killed afterward. And all the time Alberta was fooling us and she and Mr. Sturani were falling in love with each other. She is the daughter, you know, of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brinton, of Overbrook, a sister of Mrs. Ernest du Pont, of Wilmington, and Mrs. James Bayley, of Boston. Another sister is Kitty Brinton, who is charmingly pretty. No date has yet been set for the wedding of Miss Brinton and Mr. Sturani, but I understand it will be in the near future.

So Alberta Brinton and Cesare Sturani have taken us into their confidence and announced their engagement. It only goes to show what the movies will do for us. Do you remember the melodramatic ones last spring, which were given for the benefit of the Cushman Club, when Alberta, Sturani and Reginald Oates were the three villains, Alberta soothing Reginald for making love to Sophie Norris. It was all horribly exciting, and after seeing the "Ideal Man" (he was that in the big pageant given some time before in Convention Hall) crumple over from a bench and die neatly on the grass, it was rather comforting to meet him going down the steps of the Griscom home to watch himself being killed afterward. And all the time Alberta was fooling us and she and Mr. Sturani were falling in love with each other. She is the daughter, you know, of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brinton, of Overbrook, a sister of Mrs. Ernest du Pont, of Wilmington, and Mrs. James Bayley, of Boston. Another sister is Kitty Brinton, who is charmingly pretty. No date has yet been set for the wedding of Miss Brinton and Mr. Sturani, but I understand it will be in the near future.

So Alberta Brinton and Cesare Sturani have taken us into their confidence and announced their engagement. It only goes to show what the movies will do for us. Do you remember the melodramatic ones last spring, which were given for the benefit of the Cushman Club, when Alberta, Sturani and Reginald Oates were the three villains, Alberta soothing Reginald for making love to Sophie Norris. It was all horribly exciting, and after seeing the "Ideal Man" (he was that in the big pageant given some time before in Convention Hall) crumple over from a bench and die neatly on the grass, it was rather comforting to meet him going down the steps of the Griscom home to watch himself being killed afterward. And all the time Alberta was fooling us and she and Mr. Sturani were falling in love with each other. She is the daughter, you know, of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brinton, of Overbrook, a sister of Mrs. Ernest du Pont, of Wilmington, and Mrs. James Bayley, of Boston. Another sister is Kitty Brinton, who is charmingly pretty. No date has yet been set for the wedding of Miss Brinton and Mr. Sturani, but I understand it will be in the near future.

MRS. GEORGE D. ROSENGARTEN Photo by Marceau. The matron, who is one of the most popular members of the married set in this city, as she appeared at the recent Bal Masque.

Along the Reading The marriage of Miss Eleanor Bertel Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Long, of Elkton Park, and Mr. Charles A. Beach, Jr., of Chicago, formerly of Elkton Park, will be solemnized at 7 o'clock on Wednesday, April 26, in St. Paul's Church, Old York road, Ogontz.

Roxborough Prominent among the entertainments of the week in this section will be the annual banquet of the 21st Ward Board of Trade, which will be followed by a reception and dance. The affair will take place on Wednesday evening at Woodvale, the clubhouse of the American Bridge Company, and the guests of honor will be Mayor Thomas B. Smith and Mrs. Smith, the members of the Mayor's Cabinet and their wives, and Senator Boies Penrose. The clubhouse will be decorated with golden and white spring flowers, palms and ferns. Mrs. William F. Dixon, Mrs. George Dorwart, Mrs. Nathan Levering Jones, Mrs. John G. Morris and Mrs. John A. Morris will receive the guests. The officers of the association are: President, Mr. William F. Dixon; vice-presidents, Mr. C. W. Horrocks, Mr. John J. Foran and Mr. J. Riegelhaupt; secretary, Mr. John F. Turner, and treasurer, Mr. Joseph C. Morris. Mr. John F. L. Morris, chairman; Mr. J. C. Morris, Mr. Jacob Sheldrake, Mr. Clarence Turner, Mr. Joseph Kestler, Mr. N. L. Jones and Mr. George Dorwart form the committee in charge. In addition to the toasts and the responses, there will be a program of attractive musical selections.

Northeast Philadelphia Mrs. J. Newton, of 2834 Frankford avenue, will entertain her "500" club at cards and luncheon tomorrow afternoon, when those present will be Mrs. Dougherty, Mrs. Hagerman, Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Newman, Mrs. McCloskey, Mrs. M. Allen, Mrs. Lord, Mrs. Braun, Mrs. Heggins, Mrs. Geisel and Mrs. Martin.

Frankford Miss Sarah W. Williams, of Arrott street, will entertain her card club at luncheon Wednesday afternoon. Her guests will include Miss Lillian Johnson, Miss Corinne Mark, Miss Evelyn Balderston, Miss Margaretta Graham, Miss Ethel Schell, Miss Leonard Manning, Miss Martha Dudley, Miss Frances Clarke, Miss Josephine Alloway, Miss Dorothy Caldwell, Miss Edith Reynolds, Miss Ethel Tyson, Miss Anna Jones, Miss Della Holcomb and Miss Elizabeth Holcomb.

Bala-Cynwyd Residents of Bala and Cynwyd are much interested in the entertainment which will take place on the eve of St. Patrick's day, in the Bala-Cynwyd auditorium, Cynwyd, for the benefit of the new parish building of St. Matthias' Church, of which the Rev. M. J. McCabe is rector. The program will be as follows:

Camden and Vicinity Mrs. Carlos F. Noyes, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is entertaining her mother, Mrs. R. A. Brice, of 323 Cooper street, in Miami, Fla.

Lillian Russell to Address Writers Lillian Russell, that perennial beauty of the footlights, will address the members of the Women Writers' Club tonight at their rooms, 1219 Locust street. Miss Russell, who is as proud of her newspaper career as of her theatrical achievements, will speak on her humorous experiences in being a journalistic "beauty spot" to the dear old public.

Southern Resorts DAYTONA, Fla., March 13.—There are more Philadelphians in Daytona now than at any time during the season, and every one is gay for the balmy, sunny weather makes one forget the aridness of his life. The obstacle golf tournament on the Deepdale course brought forth a large gallery of golf enthusiasts on Tuesday. The brilliant coloring of the women's sports clothes against the soft verdure of the tropical foliage formed a charming picture. Tea was served at small tables on the lawn.

Mrs. W. E. Wright has arrived from Harrisburg, accompanied by Mrs. E. G. Gross, Mrs. Henry McCormick and Miss McCormick. Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Brown, Mrs. D. V. Brown and Miss Helen Brown, who have been at the Clarendon for a fortnight, returned to Philadelphia on Monday and will go to Atlantic City for the Easter season.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Thorpe, of Vineland, N. J., are here for the remainder of the month. Mr. Howard Carrow, of Merchantville, N. J., was here for the week en route to Havana. Mrs. John Fowler, of Oak Lane, has terminated her stay in Daytona and has gone to Tampa Bay. Mrs. William Ford spent some time here en route to the more Southern resorts. Mrs. Foster will also visit Daytona again on her way to Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Stroud and Miss Virginia Stroud, of Philadelphia, have taken apartments at the Bennett for a fortnight. Mrs. W. C. Seeburger, of Hillside, N. J., formerly of Atlantic City, spent a few days at the Colonial en route to Miami. Mr. I. R. Fenimore, of Philadelphia, has taken apartments at the Bennett for a fortnight. George W. Fenimore, of Ocean Grove, and they will leave here the first of April for the North. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Favorite and Miss Margaret Britz, of Atlantic City, who have been touring the State, are now at the Williams.

Mr. John C. McGraw is among the recent arrivals at the Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Schleicher, who have been touring the East Coast, are here for a few days before returning to their home in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. John Claffin, of Morristown, N. J., are at the Palmette for the remainder of the month. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Schultz, of Philadelphia, have joined friends at the Morgan, where they will remain for another week before going North.

Among the Philadelphians at the Ridgeview are Mrs. J. H. Loomis, who is accompanied by Miss Julia Strong, of Washington, and Mrs. F. H. Blade, of Englewood, N. J.; Mr. E. E. Hanson, Mrs. Sylvia Dalsimer, Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Bleser, Mr. Henry Sturman, Miss Cecilia Schurman, Miss Letitia Schurman, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. John Leavitt, Mr. Alexander D. Grange, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisch, Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Burton, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McCouner, Mrs. M. D. McCormick and Miss Kate G. Rae.

Mr. R. Farmer, who has been touring the State, left the first of the week for his home in Philadelphia. Mr. John W. Hanson, who was here for several weeks, has gone to Titusville, Fla., to visit friends before returning to his Philadelphia home. Mr. W. J. Staats, of Camden, has joined friends at the Despland.

Delaware County Mr. Donald E. Spencer will address the meeting of the Delaware County Association of Women's Clubs, which will be held in the Ridley Park Woman's Club this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Le Malistre, of Swarthmore avenue, Ridley Park, have left for Virginia Hot Springs, where they will remain until April 1.

Mrs. C. Elbert Hoffman and her young son, Elbert Dotterer Hoffman, of Highland Park, spent the last week with Mrs. Hoffman's mother, Mrs. C. R. Dotterer, of North Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Rhodes, of Moylan, have returned home from Florida, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood T. Allison, of Wallingford, who have a houseboat at Tampa.

Mrs. T. H. Moore, of Millbourne, is spending several weeks in Atlantic City. Mrs. Brice Rawley, of Lanserch, is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Mollie Eton, of Estes Park, Col.

LINEN SHOWERS, SURPRISE PARTIES AND BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS

Mrs. M. Kelly Will Give an Affair for Miss Mohan, Miss Helen Harter Entertains for Miss Mollie Francis—Various Other Matters of Interest

Mrs. M. Kelly, of 2950 Mercy street, will entertain this evening at a linen shower in honor of Miss Nora Mohan, whose engagement to Mr. William J. Kane was recently announced. The guests invited are Miss Helen M. Brite, Miss Mary Gribbon, Miss Kathryn Meehan, Miss Margaret Kelly, Miss Loreta Meehan, Miss Alice Meehan, Miss Margaret Mohan, Miss Agnes Mohan, Miss Margaret Mohan, Mrs. M. Waugh and Mrs. Gallagher. Supper will be served at midnight. The decorations will be yellow and white.

Miss Helen Harter entertained at her home, 4125 Fairview street, on Saturday in honor of Miss Mollie Francis, of 849 North 24th street, who is to be married to Mr. Clarence Dilla, of Elmerington. The guests were Miss Mollie Francis, Miss Edna Hiller, Miss Josephine Mitchell, Miss Ada Suptis, Miss Sara Francis, Miss William Wendt, Miss Jessie Fowler, Miss Florence Albro, Miss Elva Washburn, Miss Elizabeth Wells, Miss Helen Harter, Mr. Clarence Dilla, Mr. Gustave Ribbenberger, Mr. Charles Murphy, Mr. Ellis Gilbert, Mr. Albert Williams, Mr. William Flounders, Mr. Stanley McMillan, Mr. Viktor Keisel and Mr. Charles Statcher.

A dance will be given by the Point Breeze Branch of the Philadelphia Central Relief Committee, on Wednesday, at Apollo Hall. This use of the hall for the evening was given by Mr. J. Stern, the proprietor, and the proceeds will go entirely to the war sufferers. The committee in charge includes Mr. Rosenbaum, chairman of the dance, Mr. E. Glazer, chairman of printing, Miss Irene Lipsitz, chairman of refreshments.

On Thursday evening Miss Ethel Shetzline, of 247 South 21st street, gave a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Edna Shisler, who will be married in the near future. Among those present were Miss Edna Snow, Miss Beatrice Myers, Miss Sybil Cottman, Mrs. Elmer Myers, Mrs. Godfrey Shisler, Mrs. Louis E. Mann, Mrs. Samuel Foster, Mrs. Horace Hodges, Miss Edith Bate, Miss Louise Lamette, Miss Margaret Hubley, Miss Mary Simon, Miss Bertha Brown, Miss Ann Bolton, Miss Mary Vollmer, Miss Cecilia Cecil and Miss Sara Singley.

A surprise party was given to Mr. Atwood Robertson on his 70th birthday by his daughter, Miss Anna Robertson at his home, 1825 Wolf street, on Tuesday evening. Among the guests present were Mrs. A. Robertson, Mrs. J. Joseph, Mrs. Edna, his daughter and niece, Mr. and Mrs. H. Robertson, Dr. Frederick Byrod and Mrs. Coomes.

The S. O. C. Club of Philadelphia held its annual dinner, followed by cards, at Mosebach's on Saturday evening. Covers were laid for 16 guests. Those present were Miss Mary Minch, Miss Lyle MacFarric, Miss Emma L. Van Oest, Miss Elizabeth Rotz, Miss Clara A. Friend, Miss Mollie Ily, Mr. William E. Rubert, Mr. Fred Budens, Mr. Charles F. Spiess, Mr. John L. Rubert, Mr. Fred W. Pahl, Mr. H. Edward Rieger, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Schaefer and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Phillips. The committee in charge included Mr. Frederick Budens, Mr. John L. Rubert and Mr. Frederick W. Pahl.

A reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Martin in honor of their 10th wedding anniversary at their home, 249 Christian street, last week. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Cope, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Penater, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tanzilo, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pinto, Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Quatro, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rego, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas D. George, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Vito, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Famiglietti and Cavalier Vincenzo Gennaro Battagliore.

Mrs. P. Goldstein, of 718 Jackson street, is entertaining her birthday party at the Leimish, of Brooklyn. Her children, Miss Elizabeth Goldstein and Mr. Harry Goldstein, have given several affairs in his honor.

The rollcall held at the First Baptist Church, Queen Lane and Silverwood street, in celebrating her birthday was very successful. The opening address was made by the Rev. William A. Crawford, and was followed by other addresses and an entertainment.

Members of the Alpha Tess Sorority, who are Miss Sarah Gordon, Miss Hannah Marks, Miss Jennie Herman, Miss Sayde Silver, Miss Rosa Hirsch, Miss Anna Rosenkoft and Mrs. Julius Rosenberg, entertained 100 guests at a dance at Mosebach's Casino last Tuesday evening. The feature of the evening was a special ball dance, where ribbons and horns were used. Later refreshments were served and a leap year dance followed.

Wilmington WILMINGTON, March 13.—Social events will be reduced to a minimum during the Lenten season, but invitations have been issued to a few small affairs. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie P. Mahony will give an auction bridge party on Wednesday night, to which the Friday Night Dancing Club has been invited.

Miss Barbara Bispham, of Claymont, has invited Miss Helen Bartholomew, of Philadelphia, as her guest. Miss Elizabeth G. Thompson and Miss Alice Crawford are returning in Florida, after a visit at St. Petersburg, Miami and Palm Beach.

Miss Ellen du Pont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Coleman du Pont, and Mr. and Mrs. Meade, Jr., whose engagement was announced at Christmas, will be married the last of April, but the exact date has not been fixed.

Miss Ethel Macklein, of Monroe place, is entertaining Miss Louise White, of Salisbury, Md., as her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Chadwick, of Lyme, Conn., who spent the greater part of the winter with Mr. and Mrs. John Bancroft, have returned to their home.

Miss Betty Curtis has been spending a week with relatives in Maryland.

Judge Benjamin F. Keller and Mrs. Keller, of Charleston, W. Va., spent last week with Mrs. George Hall at St. John's rectory. Judge Keller, who is on the bench of the United States Court of the Southern District of West Virginia, is a brother of Mrs. Hall.

Lecture, "Standardization of Jews," Gustav Berger, Witherspoon Hall, 8 o'clock. University extension lecture, "Highways and Methods of Medicine," by Dr. Joseph McFarland, Association Hall, Germantown.

Market American Gas Company managers, Bellevue-Stratford.

What's Doing Tonight Con temporary Club discusses "The Shakespeare Tradition in Philadelphia," with addresses by Dr. Felix E. Schelling, Horace H. Furness, Mr. A. Joseph F. A. Jackson and Ernest Lacey, Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, 8:15 o'clock.

Philadelphia Business Men's Association transit discussion, Broad and Federal streets.

Symphony Orchestra concert, with Gertrude Parrar, soloist, Academy of Music, 8:15 o'clock.

Pittsburgh Street Improvement Association entertainment, 57th street and Haverford avenue, 8 o'clock.

University of Pennsylvania French play, "L'Avocat Patelin," New Century Club, Hall, Broad street, 8 o'clock.

Traffic Club dinner, Hotel Adelphi, 8:30 o'clock.

Lecture, "Standardization of Jews," Gustav Berger, Witherspoon Hall, 8 o'clock. University extension lecture, "Highways and Methods of Medicine," by Dr. Joseph McFarland, Association Hall, Germantown.

AMUSEMENTS The Emergency Aid ANNUALS Illustrated Lectures and Talks on Relief Work in War-ringing Countries

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Alan Strong, 2038 De Lancey. MISS IRIS BENTON, Pianist. VAN HARENZENT, Pianist. Subject: "Work in the Contagious Hospitals of France."

Wed. March 15, Mme. Carnoy lectures in French on "The Spirit of Belgium," at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Van Harenzent, 1428 Walnut st. (2200) are for sale.

Thurs. March 16, Reading by Mrs. Robert Grant, a series of unpublished letters from the countries at war, at the residence of Mrs. C. W. Van Harenzent, 1428 Walnut st. Tickets $1. for sale at 1428 Walnut st.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC PHILADELPHIA ORCHESTRA LEOPOLD STOKOWSKI, Conductor. Symphony / Fri. Aft., Mar. 17, at 8:00. Concerts / Sat. Evg., Mar. 18, at 8:15.

WAGNER PROGRAM Overture, "Der Fliegende Hollander"; Prelude, "Lohengrin"; Faelischer Zug zum Münster, "Lohengrin"; Overture, "Die Meistersinger"; Prelude to Act I, "Die Meistersinger"; Siegfried's Day, "Tristan und Isolde"; Prelude and Love-death.

Seats Now on Sale at Heppes', 1119 Chestnut. BROAD—Last 6 Evgs. Wed. & Sat. Klaw & Erlanger and George Tyger Present.

POLLYANNA The Glad Play, Spreading Good Cheer. Best Seats $1.50 at Popular Wednesday Mat.

NEXT WEEK—SEATS THURSDAY. MR. AND MRS. DIPPEL Present. PRINCESS TRA-LA-LA The Latest Viennese Opera. With Ethel Bartington, Emmy Nicklaus, George Baldwin—Cast of 70. Fresh From the Triumph Year in Vienna, and Berlin.

GARRICK—Tonight at 8:13. MATS. WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY, 2:15. THE FULMER and HARRIS Present.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE Original New York Cast and Production. Best Seats $1 at Popular Wednesday Mat.

FORREST Last Weeks. Evgs. at 8:15. Mats. Wed. & Sat. 2:15. ZIEGFELD FOLLIES Popular Wednesday Matinee, 5c to $1.50.

METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE METROPOLITAN OPERA, NEW YORK. TOMOR. EVG. Haensel and Gretel at 8. Double Bill. METZGER, BROWN, M. REISS, GORBY, CONNOR, HAGEMAN. Followed by PAGLIACCI, MME. CAJATEL, by Conductor, MR. RAVAGNANI. Seats, 10c. Chestnut, Walnut 4424; Race 67.

Nixon's Colonial & CHEERFUL AVE. MATS. 2:15. 10 BIG ACTS. Pollyanna Week! EVERYBODY GLAD!

PAUL CONGAR JOHN W. WEALE Biggest Show in Town. FASHION REVUE; Mrs. Stanley's "The World All the Time"; and "Willies, Eddie Foy, and Other."

Globe Theatre MARKET & JUNIOR STS. VADEVILLE—Continues 11 A. M. to 11 P. M. 30c, 50c, 75c.

"THE SIDEWALK CABARET" COMEDY SINGING AND DANCING. Joseph K. Watson Phila's Famous O'CONNOR SISTERS & ORCH. OTHERS.

Adelphi Positively Last Week. Tonight at 8:15. "The World All the Time." Thursday. GRAND. TUES. WED. THURS. FRIDAY. SEVEN O'CLOCK. "THE WORLD ALL THE TIME." Grand Company in British Howard's Delightful Comedy "THE NEW HENRIETTA."

Next Week—"NOBODY HOME!"

ACADEMY OF MUSIC Boston This (Mon.) Evg. 8:15. Symphony SOLOIST. Orchestra Geraldine FARRAR. TICKETS at HEPPES'.

LYRIC LAST TWO WEEKS! "THE ONLY GIRL" The Classic of Musical Comedy.

By Harry Hines and Victor Herbert. The Happy Days of the "The Only Girl." Whistling Gigue Tune.

SEKOW'S Una Clayton and Haynes. Seats $1.50, 1.00, 75c, 50c, 25c, 10c.

AMERICAN Grand Show in "The Grand" Seats 50c, 75c, 1.00, 1.50.