

TIMELY SIDELIGHTS ON THE DAY'S OUTPUT OF NEWS FROM A THOUSAND SOURCES

Photo by International Film Service.

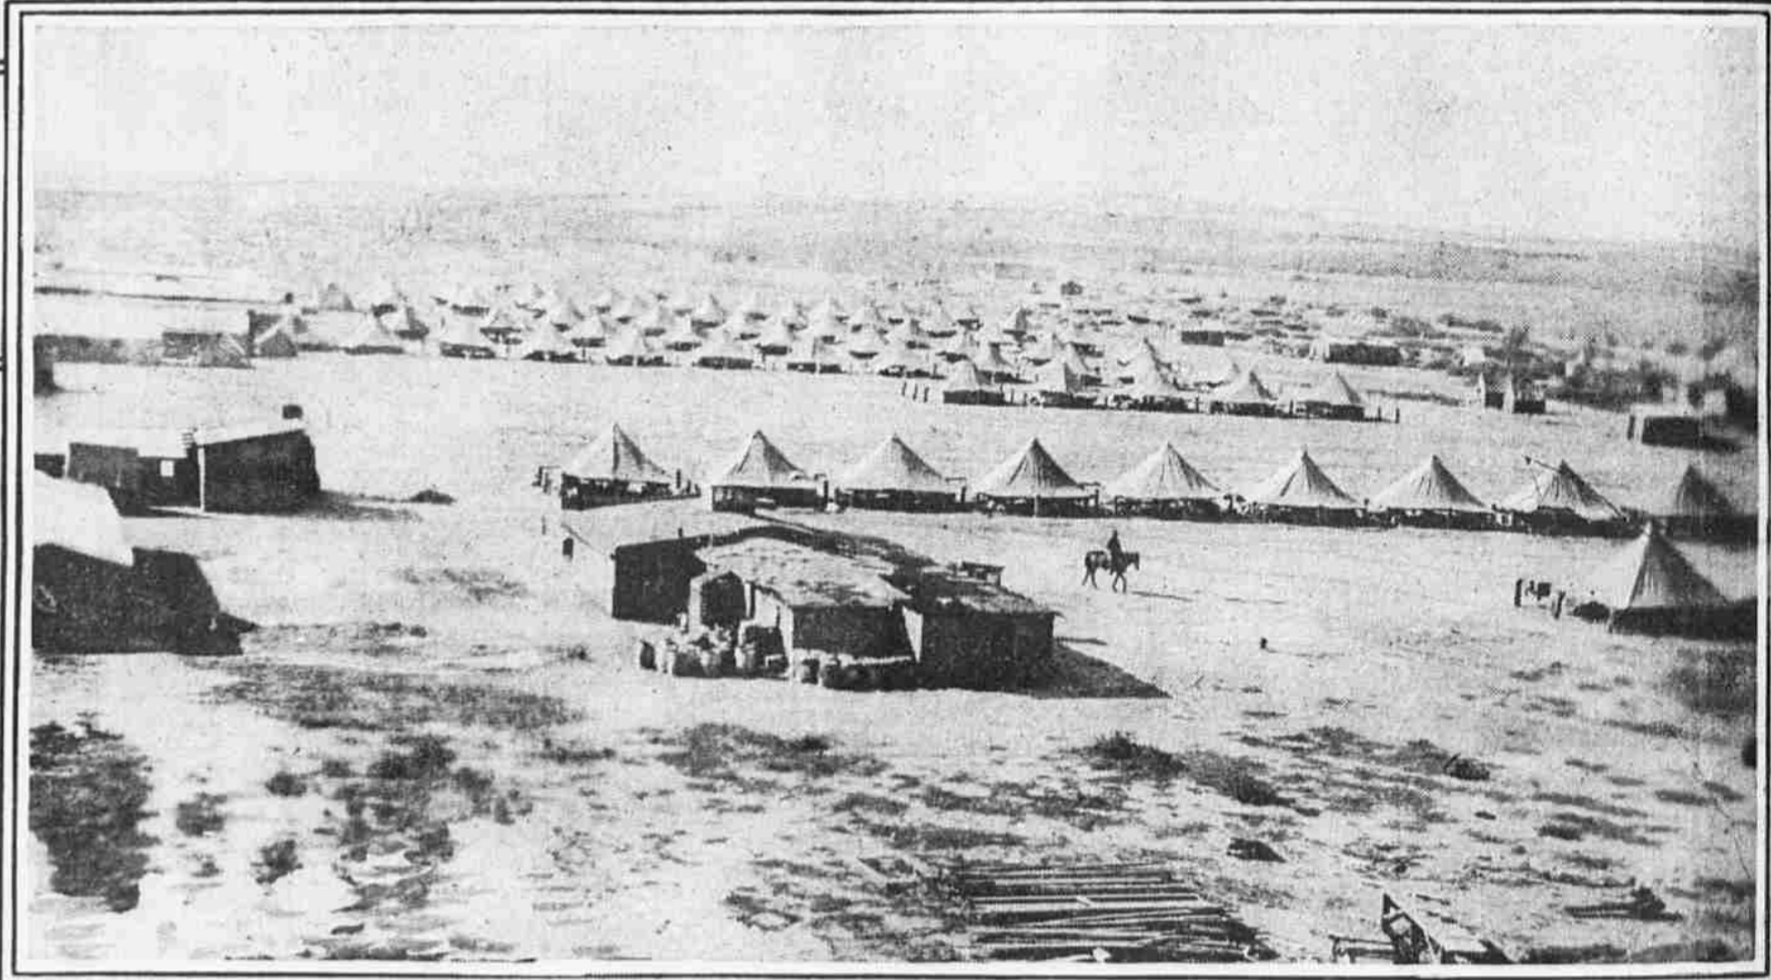

MEXICAN LEADER TAKES BRIDE

Miss Maria Tapia, a typical Mexican beauty, was married the other day to General Obregon, right hand man of General Carranza, de facto chief of Mexico.

THE BAND YOU WILL HEAR ON CITY HALL PLAZA THIS SUMMER AND ITS LEADER

Silas E. Hummel's veteran band has obtained the contract for music the coming season at the plaza and at Convention Hall. It is a big favorite in this city and has taken part in most of the parades and celebrations here in recent years. Inset in the drum is a portrait of Leader Hummel.

WHERE MEXICAN RAIDERS INVADED UNITED STATES TERRITORY

This is the camp of the 13th Cavalry at Columbus, New Mexico, with the town showing in the background. The picture reveals the flat nature of the terrain on which the town is situated.

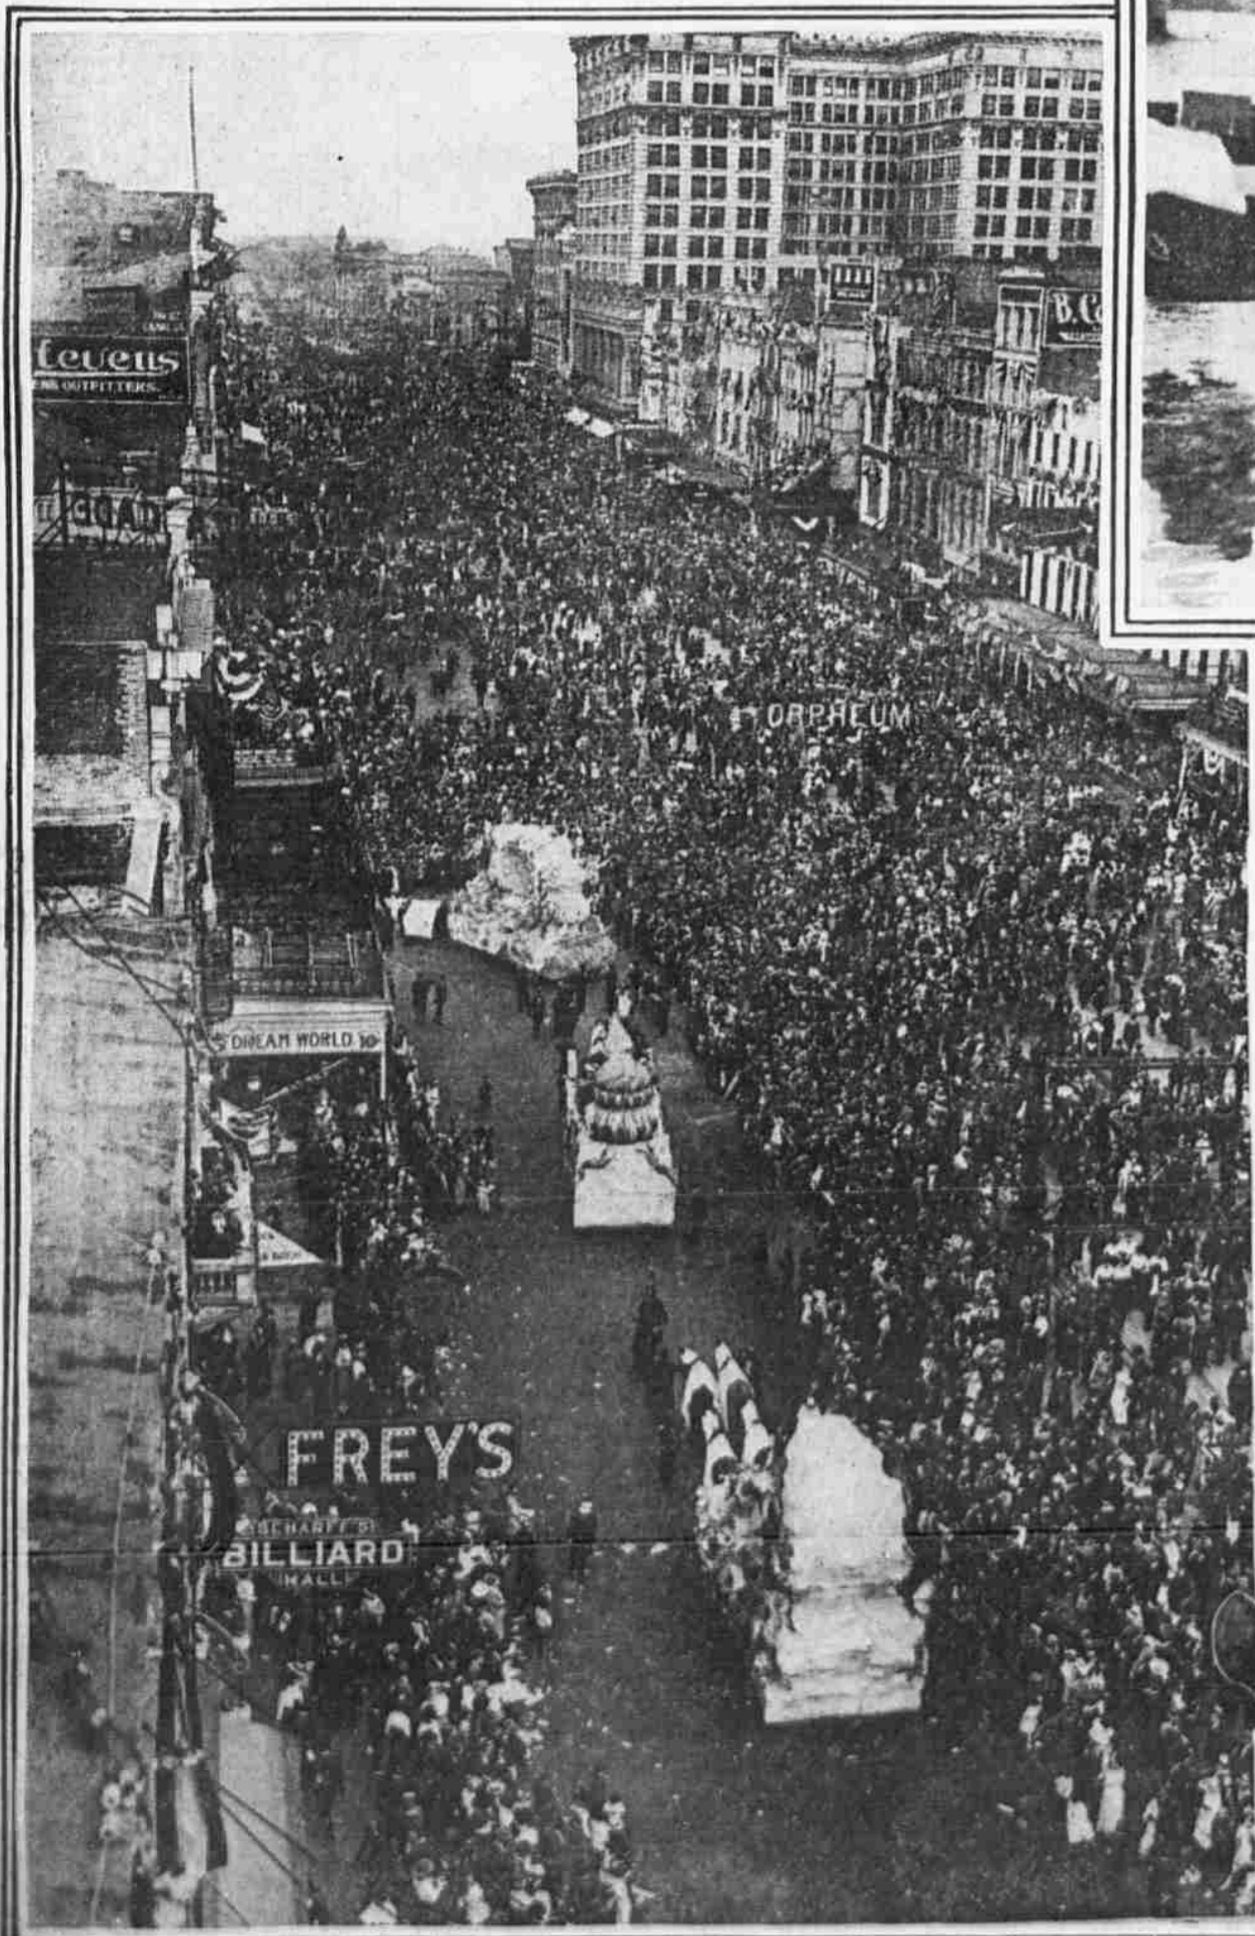

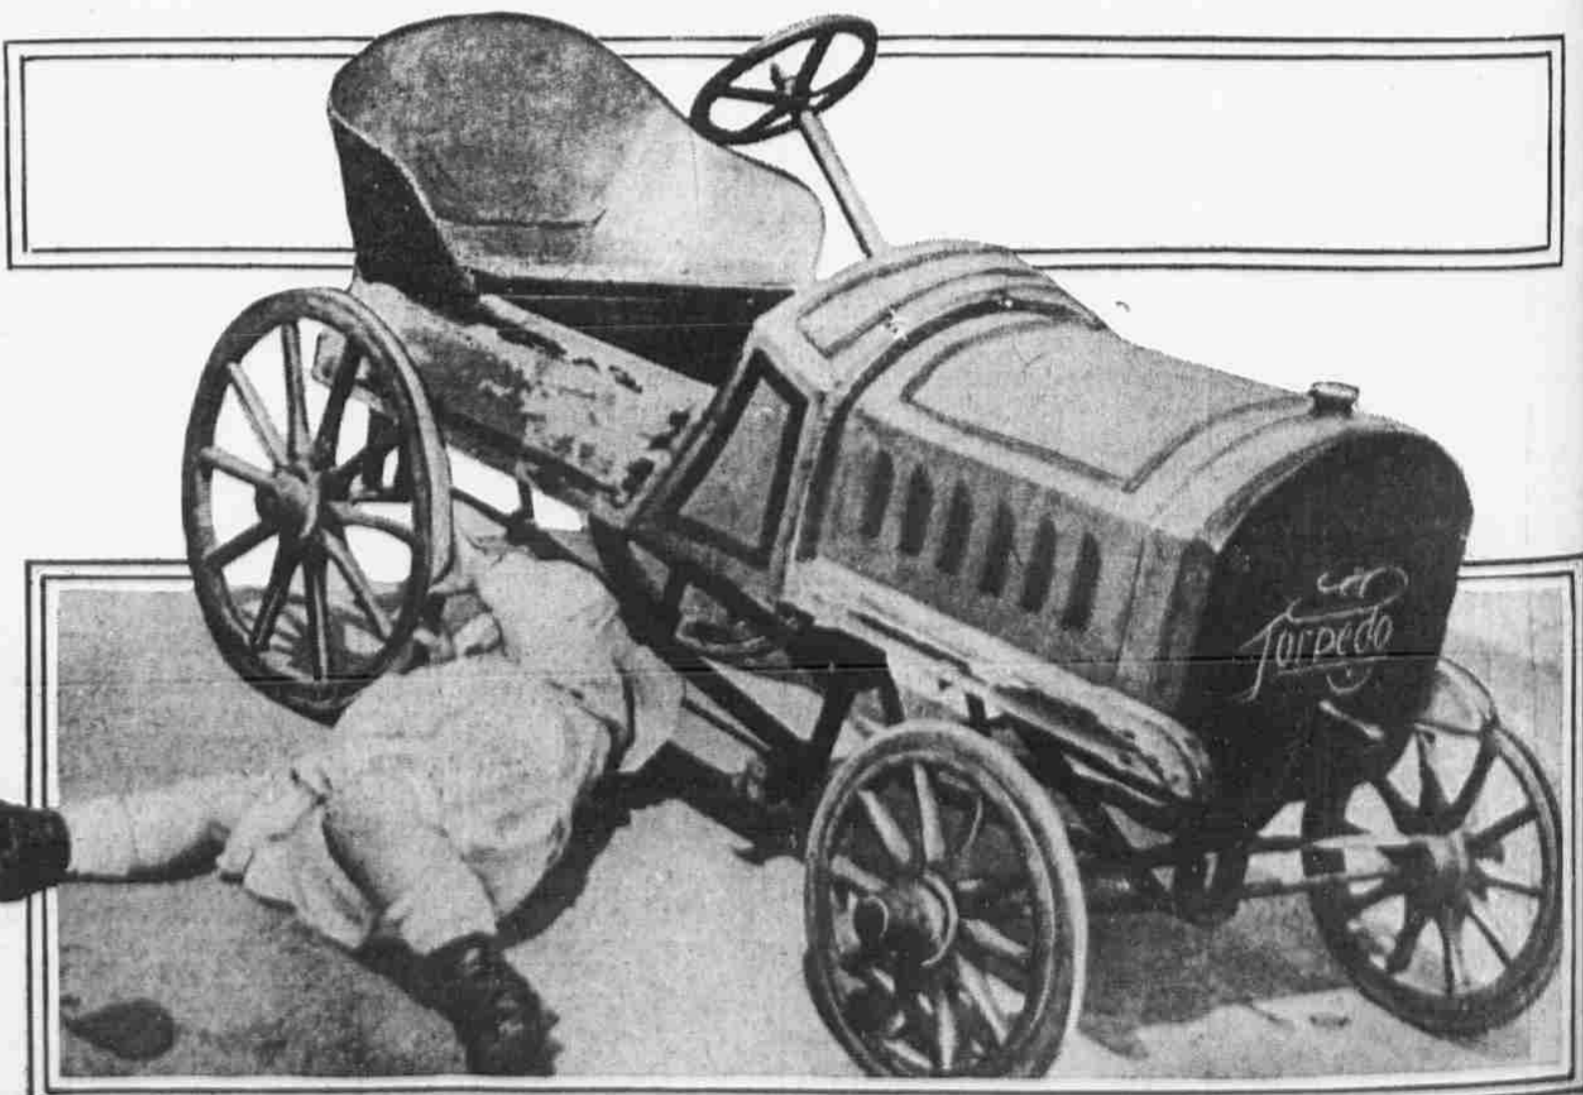

Photo by International Film Service.

CROWDS THAT LINED THE STREETS AT THE MARDI GRAS

New Orleans reports a record-breaking attendance at its recent annual carnival, which draws sight-seers from every section of the country. Here is a view of the parade as seen from the tops of houses on Canal street.

HE PROCEEDED TO "GET OUT AND GET UNDER"

A snapshot of young Master Joseph McCracken, 2623 North 4th street, laboriously fixing up a damaged crankshaft or something that interferes with the smooth running of his "autocar." He has all the air and attitude of a troubled motorist.