WHERE 129TH CONFERENCE OF THE PHILADELPHIA METHODIST CHURCH IS IN SESSION

REV. RICHARD RADCLIFFE
Assistant Secretary.

DR. F. P. PARKIN
Superintendent Central District.

HARDEST TRAVELER AMONG YOUNG PHILADELPHIANS
Harry Johns has just returned from a trip of 14,000 miles with his parents. He rode on 23 railroads and slept in a new place each night, or trip four countries, without once being sick or suffering any ill effects.

TABLET MARKS BIRTHPLACE OF THE TELEPHONE

Here is Alexander Graham Bell beside the monument just put up at 109 Court street, Boston. It was on this site that he talked over the wire for the first time to Thomas A. Watson at No. 5 Exeter street, June 2, 1875.

NEW ADDITION TO THE VON CLAUSSEN FAMILY
The former Countess again appeared on Atlantic City's Boardwalk this week, accompanied not only by her new husband, Frank Doss, but by her new poodle, whose name is Brownie. The three, she declares, shall remain inseparable.
