NICHOLSON ATTACKS UNJUST EMPLOYERS: ASKS SQUARE DEAL

Evangelist Assails Unfair Owners and Workers Who Labor With Eye on the Clock, in Sermon

PLEADS FOR SACRIFICE

Employers who fail to give their workers a square deal were assailed by Evangelist William P. Nicholson in the Nicholson son-Hemminger tabernacle in Darby this afternoon. He preached on "Soul Saving," and urged that employers try to get their employes to hit the trail when he made the assault.

"The employer who goes to church and claims to be a good Christian, but falls to give his employes a square deal, cannot hope to win them," he said. Then he turned the tables, and declared that "no worker could hope to win his employer as a convert if he was continually watch-as a convert if he was continually stating the clock."

It was announced today that Mr. Nicholson would give his conception of hell at the 2 o'clock service Sunday afternoon. Cards are being distributed for noon. Cards

In his sermon this afternoon the evangelist said in part:
"What hast thou done? Man, if you are saved you cannot be absolved from your responsibility as a soul-winner. You were not saved simply to be happy, but to be helpful; not to get to heavan, but to save others unto heaven. The Lord is depending upon you and me each day. Every one of us is called to be a soulwinner. Ponting Pilate washed his hands and said 'I am innocent of this matter.'

Some of you are trying the same trick.
"I say, if you are gifted enough to be saved, you are gifted enough to work. You are saved for service. You may, 'Am I my brother's keeper?' God says, 'Exthe theatre; laught them to worship the man who has wealth? Father, what have you done for your boy? Ah, you have taught to lie and to steal and to cheat and the cheat an

"Sunday school teacher, what have you done? You have had the young lives of your class for years. What have you done? Up in Shamokin, a young man was convicted of murder and was knaped for his crime. "The church seems to be busy at almost everything but the very thing for which God intended her, and the one thing that counts. Oh, may God arouse is soon to see the one thing that matters! We will sit up all night to save our neighbor's baby, and do nothing to our neighbor's baby, and do nothing to save that neighbor's boy. "Who are the wise men? He that win-neth souls is wise. Who is the wise man? Some say the popular preacher, who preaches eloquently and easily. He may never be known in heaven. Some think the man of millions, who endows this and that institution with millions. But millions do not count in heaven. They are the gutters and streets in heaven trampled under feet. Who will shine? They who turn many unto righteousness shall shine as the stars forever and ever. They will not be very popular here. But when God comes to rearrange things and work justice among His children, he that winneth souls shall shine as the stars.

"God has placed you in a home. Is there anybody in that home saved? How there anybody in that home saved? How about the servant who has lived with you for eight years? Did you ever ask about her soul? Are all the boys and girls saved? Oh, what a field of usefulness in the home. Do you come together each day to commune with God? The church is God's earthly home and you are there to be a worker. You have said, perhaps, I am not going back to the church; I set perced out of it. Bless your soul; you are saved for service. You say, 'Am I my brother's keeper?' God says, 'Exactly so; what have you done?' You, mother, what have you done for your children? Your daughter?
