

YOUNG PATRIOTS HEED NATION'S CALL OF 'MEN WANTED FOR MEXICO'

Engaged, Earnest Appearing Americans Throng Central Army Recruiting Office in Desire to Enlist

EAGER TO GO TO "FRONT" Caliber of Applicants Here Is High, Says Captain King, Officer in Charge

Scores of young Americans, ready to prove their patriotism, thronged the central army recruiting office, at 1229 Arch street, today and asked for a chance to help Uncle Sam.

Most of them were rugged and earnest looking. Many brought recommendations with them to prevent delay in getting into action. Placards posted throughout the central section of the city bearing the simple words, "Men Wanted For Mexico," was the magnet which brought the hearty response.

Many of the men held fairly good positions but they declared they wanted a chance for action. Some were under the impression that they would be accepted immediately on account of good physical condition. But Uncle Sam is particular about his boys in blue, and it is essential that every man prove good character before he can join the ranks.

Each applicant is obliged to give a record of previous occupations and good reports must come from the persons referred to before he is accepted.

If the scene at the central recruiting office is any indication of the spirit of the American youth, the 25,000 men asked for by the War Department a few days ago will be supplied.

The quick response of determined young Americans, said Captain A. A. King, recruiting officer, is an emphatic denial of the assertions made by many that men do not want to join the army.

RECRUITING CAMPAIGN OPENS

Five thousand posters, with the inscription in large red letters reading "Men Wanted in Mexico," were placed at prominent points all over the central part of the city today by the Central Army Recruiting Office, 1229 Arch street. The appeal, according to Capt. A. A. King, of the recruiting office, is meeting with excellent results.

MAN PUT OFF CAR LEFT DYING IN ROAD

Widow of E. H. Fry Seeks Evidence to Learn if P. R. T. Was Responsible

Friends of Mrs. Edward H. Fry, whose husband died of apoplexy after he was ejected from a trolley car on Old York road on Saturday, when the car crew thought he was intoxicated, are urging the widow to bring suit against the Rapid Transit Company. From the meagre evidence collected, friends of the widow feel that it may be shown that the car crew was not only guilty of neglect, but also exceeded its duty in ejecting Fry in a lonely section of the road. The widow said she will consult a lawyer.

Fry was found along the road by a pedestrian on Saturday night. The Abing-

VILLA'S RAID UNEXPECTED

Letter From Mexico Tells of New Period of Reconstruction

The unexpectedness of Villa's raid on the American town of Columbus is shown in a letter dated March 9, the date of the raid, which was received here today by the secretary of the Commercial Museum from a business firm in Mexico.

The letter described the "new era of reconstruction" upon which Mexico was entering, and showed how all political crises had passed. "Conditions are becoming normal, for all uprisings have passed. In fact, Mexico has begun to take serious steps to solve its financial problems that are disturbing the Republic," the letter reads.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., March 20—Burglars early today entered Postal Substation No. 19 in the center of the city and "jimmied" the safe, getting away with loot valued at about $800. Entrance was gained through a rear window.

FUNERAL OF EDWIN MOORE

Poor Richard Club Members Are Pallbearers

Funeral services for Edwin Moore, inventor of the "push pin," were held at 2 o'clock today at the Moore home, 225 West Venango street. Mr. Moore, whose rapid rise was due to his remarkable development of the wall tack idea, died at his home on Thursday, after an illness of several weeks. A delegation from the Poor Richard Club, of which he was an active member, were pallbearers.

The Rev. Dr. John H. Davies, pastor of the Bethlehem Presbyterian Church, conducted the services, assisted by the Rev. Gordon M. Russell. Mr. Moore was a member of the Bethlehem Church for many years. The pallbearers were Robert R. Durbin, William J. Eldridge, Edwin J. Cummings, William P. Mills. The Masonic service were conducted by members of Olivet lodge, of which Mr. Moore was a member.

Try this easy way to clear your skin with Resinol Soap. Bathe your face for several minutes with Resinol Soap and warm water, working the creamy lather into the skin gently with the finger-tips. Then wash off with more Resinol Soap and warm water, finishing with a dash of clear cold water to close the pores. Do this once or twice a day, and you will be astonished how quickly the healing, antiseptic Resinol medication soothes and cleanses the pores, lessens the tendency to pimples, and leaves the complexion clear, fresh and velvety. If the skin is in bad condition through neglect or an unwise use of cosmetics, apply a little Resinol Ointment* and let it remain on ten minutes before the final washing with Resinol Soap. Resinol Soap contains no harsh, injurious alkali, and is not artificially colored, its rich brown being entirely due to the Resinol balsams in it. Sold by all druggists and dealers in toilet goods. *Physicians have prescribed Resinol Ointment for over twenty years in the treatment of skin and scalp affections.

A Great National Public Utility

That concerns all merchants and all people

THE original Cash Register rang a bell, indicated and recorded the amount of the purchase. It benefited the merchant only.

In a third of a century this old model has developed into a Cash Register that directly benefits every man, woman and child who spends money in a store.

This new Cash Register equally concerns every merchant and clerk, every banker and wholesaler in this land.

It furnishes every customer with a receipt or sales slip. It prints on this the amount paid or charged.

On this is also printed the date of the sale and who made it.

It forces a duplicate, printed record for the merchant. It prevents disputes over charges and bills paid.

It saves shoppers' time. It gives the merchant all his profits. It gives him more money for his family.

It promotes more and quicker sales. It protects each clerk against making errors and against the mistakes of others.

It rewards the diligent clerk by telling his employer which one makes the largest number of sales and which one gets the greatest amount of business.

It assures the banker additional security for the money he loans the merchant.

It gives the wholesaler additional assurance that the merchant will have money to pay his bills.

It furnishes the banker and the wholesaler mechanical evidence that the merchant's statement of his business is correct.

It is a business necessity.
