NANCY WYNNE TALKS OF VARIOUS LENTEN DOINGS IN SOCIAL WORLD

Many Flourishing Sewing and Preparedness Classes Have Been Started Up During This Season-Society Is Busily Sewing and Knitting

ONE of the largest Lenten classes Wilson College vesterday to spend the meets every Thursday morning at spring vacation at Brookside Farm. the home of Mrs. Joseph N. DuBarry, M at 2101 Spruce street. You know Mrs. Brock and Betty have gone out to california for the winter, where Sarah had gone ahead of them, and so Joe and gua are occupying the house during their absence. I understand they intend to take a house out on the Maine Line ater in the spring. The class in sewing works for Mrs. Nina Larry Duryea's French Relief. Some among the members are Eleanor Hopkins, who seems is have been made for charitable work; ber sister, Letitia McKim, Nancy Coleman, Margot Scull, Gertrude Heckscher and Mrs. Albert Smith.

Another Thursday Lenten sewing class meets at the home of Mrs. G. G. Wesde Large, at 2308 De Lancey place. The members of this class include Mrs. Thomas G. Ashton, Mrs. Alfred R. Allen, Mrs. Charles E. Brinley, Mrs. William R. Donner, Mrs. Stacey B. Lloyd, Miss Mary K. Gibson, Mrs. Isanc R. Davis, Mrs. Henry S. Jeanes, Miss Agnes C. Kennedy, Mrs. Herbert T. Clark, Mrs. John M. Denison, Mrs. Isanc W. Roberts, Mrs. George W. Kendrick, 3d, Mrs. Henry Miller Watts, Mrs. Daniel B Wentz, Mrs. Gustavus W. Cook, Mrs. Herbert W. Warden, Mrs. J. Ridgway Reilly, Mrs. Robert Sewell and Mrs. Charles L. Borie, Jr.

It's all very lovely, you know, to be married, and there is great talk about how much a woman gives up when she does marry. Once in a while, however, the pendulum of my sympathy swings rather wide toward the side of the husband, who really gives up a good deal, too, you know. A man who in his bachelor days used always to go South with his family every year just about this time was asked the other day, "Why didn't you leave for Florida this week?" He feelingly replied, "I've got a wife and baby to 'ook after now." Then he boked rather happy, however, and remarked, "But they're worth It." And he never thought of leaving them. It's too bad some of the wives who rush off at the first breath of warm weather to the seashore or mountains and stay all summer don't think the same way. They seem to think nothing of leaving their husbands, while they, poor men, go to the club, except over Sunday, when, If the family is within reach, they take a few hours at the shore, usually arriving hist in time for a swim on Saturday, and leaving Sunday nights so as to reach town in time for the office on Monday. Is it any wonder that Satan often finds work for idle hands to do?

Mrs. Scott's Supper Club will have two more meetings and the last one will be held on April 1, when Miss Grace Field, of New York, will dance. But yesterday I heard Mrs. Scott and the management have tecided to give a dance on the Saturday night in Easter week, April 29, to which the members of both series are to be invited. I understand there is to be no extra subscription for this affair except in the matter of the club members' guests. Of course the Meyer Davis orchestra will play and there will be special features during the evening. That night, you know, will see the last Mask and Wig performance, and so it will be delightful for a great many hosts and hostes es to transport their parties from the theatre to the Bellevue-Stratford, There will be a great number of weddings on that Saturday also, so I would not be surprised If some of the bridal parties drifted to the Supper Club, which is certainly one of the best affairs going this year.

She is very pretty and very much in earnest and muchly, oh! very muchly, in love, and the wedding will take place out of town somewhere, either in late May or early June. But she did look so far away when I met her on Chestnut street this week! I said to her, "Come down, my dear, come back to earth; he len't so absolutely perfect, you know. Some day you might find a flaw!" And she looked at me in her funny little direct way and said, "Oh! do you know what I've been doing? I'm calculating how much I'll have to pay for my dining room rug." NANCY WYNNE.
