

TIMELY SIDELIGHTS ON THE DAY'S OUTPUT OF NEWS FROM A THOUSAND SOURCES

Photo by Ledger Photo Patrol

HOUNDS OF THE RADNOR HUNT JUST BEFORE THE WINDING HORN SUMMONED THEM TO THE FIELD FOR AN EARLY MORNING CHASE

Photos by Medem and Underwood.

The upper bonnet is of purple satin, with neck ruching to match; the lower of chenille embroidered straw.

HATS FROM HOME AND ABROAD—A FEW SUGGESTIONS FOR EASTER
On the left is a neat affair noted at Atlantic City. The hat on the right was made by Leroux, of Paris.

Lower Photo by Underwood.

The ribbon down the back is a new effect from the Boardwalk. The Panama above is one of the shapes favored this season.

PHILADELPHIA FAMILY WHOSE FOREBEARS BORE NAMES WRITTEN LARGE IN THE HISTORY OF THE COUNTRY.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Houghton and their 10 children, descendants of signers of the Declaration of Independence and of first New England settlers. Top row, left to right: Carlos, Clara, Lillie, Annie, Viola, Ida, William; below, Ruth, Edith and Frank. An article on another page describes this interesting family.

Photo by International Film Service.

ARTILLERY ON GUARD AT APPREHENSIVE EL PASO

Ever since the present trouble broke out the Texas city across the line from Juarez has lived in dread of a sudden raid. More than half its population is of Mexican birth. So precautionary guns have been mounted on the river-side, and patrols watch the Rio Grande night and day.