FRANKLIN REFINERY WILL RESUME WORK

War Causes Big Demand for Sugar-Plant to Open Within Few Weeks

The Franklin Sugar Refinery, at Dela-ware avenue and Bainbridge street, will open within a few weeks after a shut-down of many years.

deen of many years.

The results will be widespread; there will be employment for many men; real estate values will go up, and it will interest entirely in the neighborhood. The pant, built by Adolph Segal, is one of the largest sugar refineries in the world, it was closed by Henry O. Havemeyer, then the director of the so-called Sugar prist. The shut-down was not due to any saural economic causes, but to an artisical condition, by which the "trust" was estaining control of the sugar situation. estaining control of the sugar situation. War has made sugar refining so profit-able that there is almost no limit to the setput that can be disposed of, and many eneries are being reopened.

The equipment of the Franklin Sugar penery is excellent; all that needs to be done is to make some general overhauling and the management will be ready to start

Taylor to Aid Pittsburgh Transit A Merritt Taylor, ex-Director of City ransit, has promised officials of Pittsbirgh to go to that city and look into the transit problem there. Mr. Taylor will make the visit merely for the purof offering such suggestions as may sear to him. He was asked if he would supervise the work of developing rapid transit there, and replied that he probably
