

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

WEDNESDAY
March 29, 1916

TIMELY SIDELIGHTS ON THE DAY'S OUTPUT OF NEWS FROM A THOUSAND SOURCES

REINVIGORATED RUSSIAN ARMY TAKES OFFENSIVE AGAINST LONG LINE HELD BY TEUTONIC ADVERSARIES

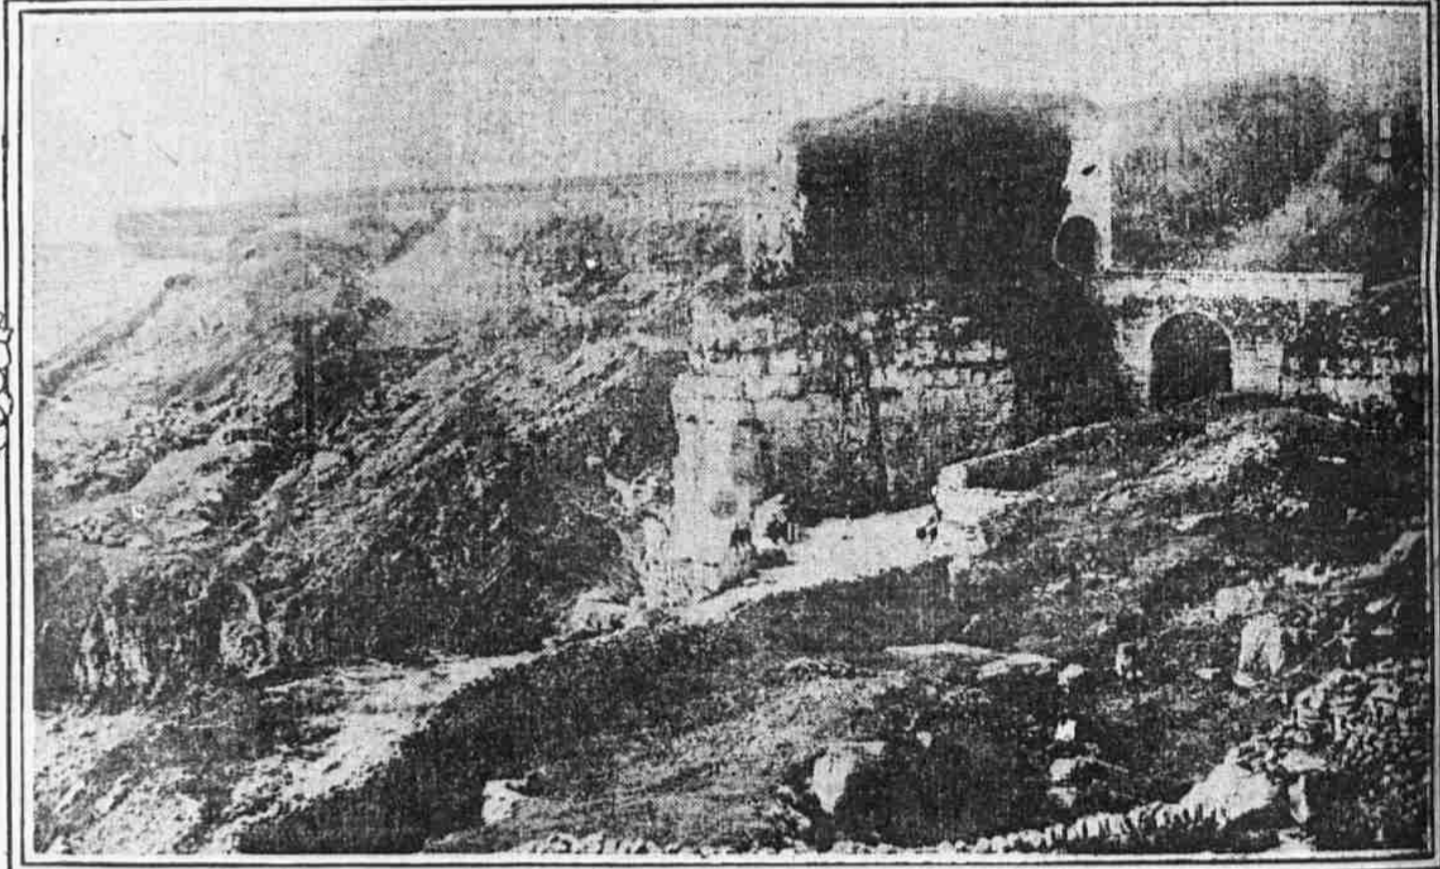

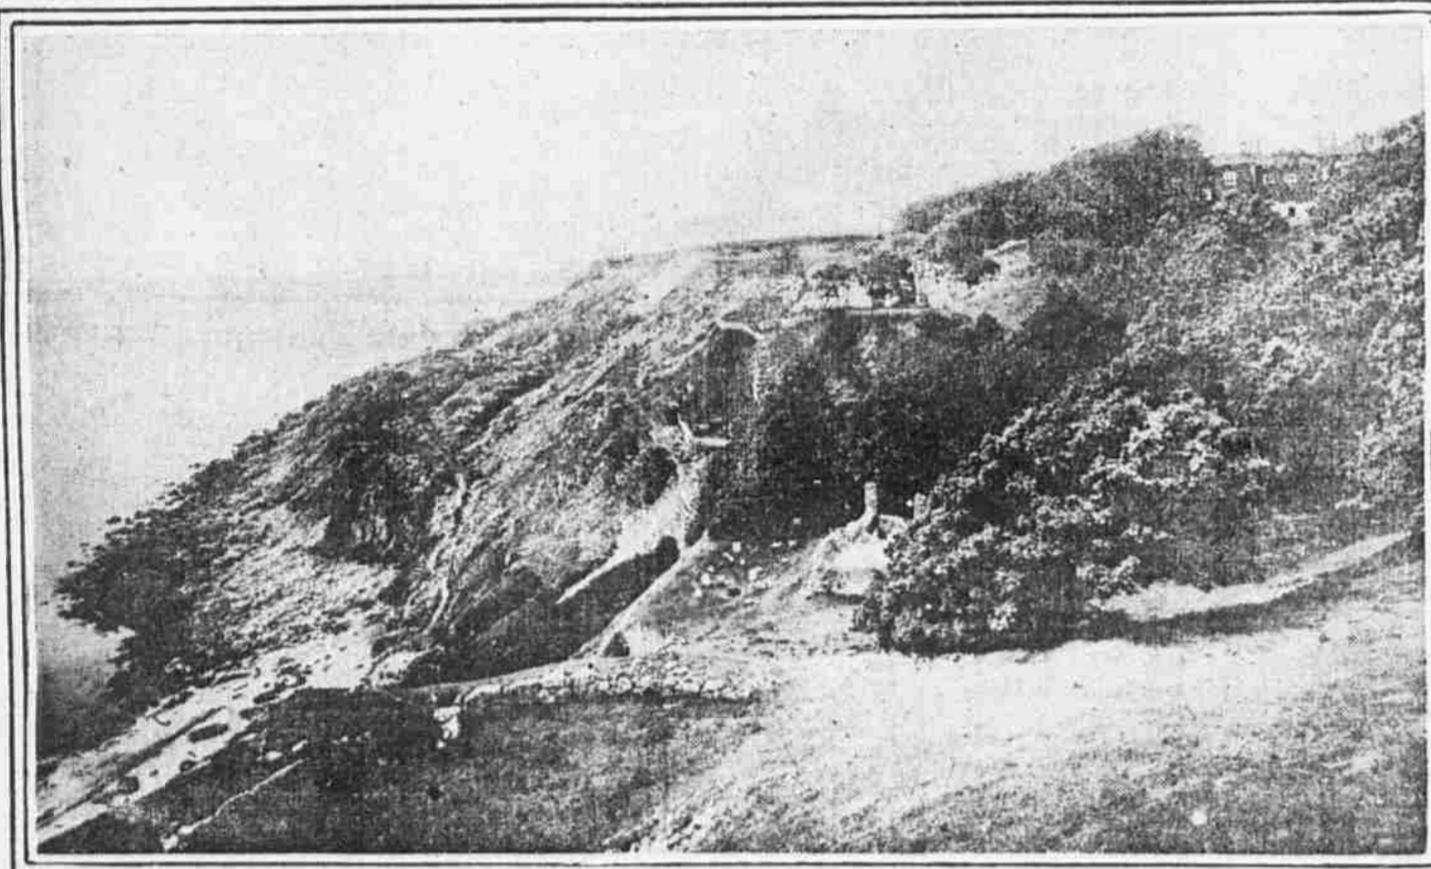

This is the first war picture that has come out of Russia in many months. It shows Slav soldiers guarding Austrian prisoners. The freshness and comfortable equipment of the Russians is in strong contrast to their haggard prisoners. The Czar's armies have been completely re-formed since the retreat from Galicia.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

GERMANS REAP HARVEST OF PRISONERS AT VERDUN

French officers are waiting here for a train which will take them to a prison camp. This is the first picture received from the German side since the great battle began.

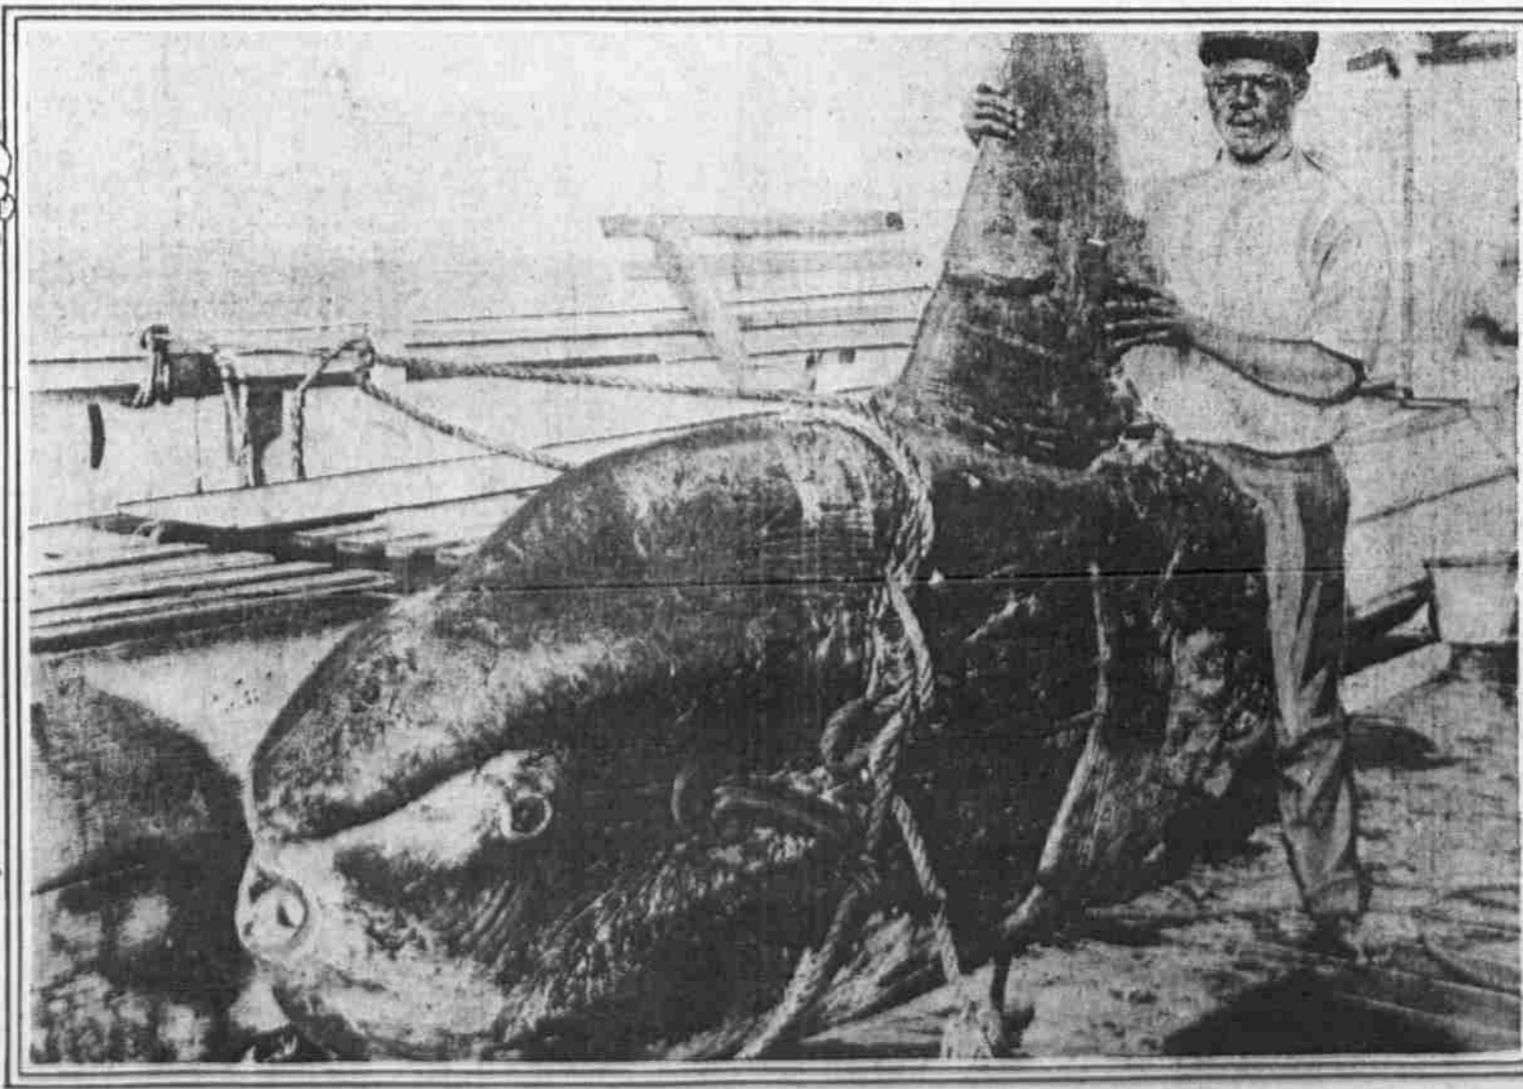

HISTORIC AND PICTURESQUE OLD PENNSYLVANIA CASTLE AND GROUNDS IN DORSETSHIRE, ENGLAND, ARE NOW FOR SALE

At the left appears the property on Portland Island given to John Penn, grandson of William Penn by George III. On the right, in the foreground, is the donjon keep of the Bow and Arrow Castle, which is situated on the same grounds. Here was the residence of William II, called William Rufus, who died in 1100.

MRS. PAXSON DEETER

Philadelphia fencer, who will compete for the national women's championship in New York today.

BIGGEST SUNFISH EVER SEEN IN AMERICA TAKEN OFF PALM BEACH

This monster was harpooned by Ambrose Mennell, of the Midvale Steel Company. It is simply a colossal edition of the tiny fish often seen in ponds and aquariums. It weighs almost a ton and is believed to be more than 400 years old. It probably wandered over from African shores.

Photo by International Film Service.

MISS IDA TOEFFER

Another expert wielder of the foils, who will go from this city to take part in the national fencing tournament.