KISSING PASTOR' TOLD TO RESIGN 'AT ONCE'

Rev. J. Lewis Evans, of Cedar Grove, N. J., Accused by Officer of Church

NEW YORK, March 31.—For kissing the pretty daughter of a trustee of his congregation, the Rev. J. Lewis Evans, pastor of the Congregational Church of Cedur Grove, N. J., was ordered to resign "at once" by a resolution adopted last night at a meeting of the Standing Committee and the trustees.

Miss Mand Jacobus, daughter of Edward A. Jacobus, a trustee, was not at the meet-

A Jacobus, a trustee, was not at the meeting, nor was Mr. Evans, but the young woman was represented by her father and her uncle, Herbert H. Jacobus, chairman of the trustees, and the clergyman was regarded by the Rev. Charles W. Carroll, pastof Lolarge of the church in that section of the State.

section of the State.

Mr. Evans remained in the parsonage with his wife and heard the news later. He would not say if he would resign or would stay and fight.

The kinzing incident is said to have occurred soon after Mr. Evans was called to the Cedar Grove church from a church at Washington, N. J., tast December. After he had boarded with the parents of Miss Jacobus several weeks his household goods arrived, and Mrs. Jacobus and her daughter aided the pastor and his wife to daughter aided the pastor and his wife to get "nettled" in the parsonage.

Miss Jacobus, one of the most popular young women in the borough and soprano in the choir, was carrying a framed in the choir, was carrying a framed picture upstairs. Mr. Evans, who is 55 and rather short and stout, was coming down. The stairway is narrow. They met in the middle and in squeezing past Miss Jacobus said the pastor threw his arms about her, hugged her tightly and kissed her "freth on the lins." her "right on the lips."

She ran upstairs and soon he entered the same room and again kissed her, cau-tioning her not to make an outcry because his wife and her mother were downstairs. loud protest at the time.

A few days later Mr. Evans and Miss

Jacobus met in the church. No one clae was there, and she said the pastor again kissed her and continued to do so until she was able to free horself and run out. Despite his admonitions of secrecy, Miss Jacobus informed her parents of what had harpeared.

YOUR OWN HANDS

Smelting is absolutely the most profitable business in existence and the only one without credit in practice. The ore is delivered a smelter from operating mines is tested by expert assayars and the profit in the control of the con profitable to the smeller. Smeller charges are always deducted before mine owher is paid. If handled right, it is as safe as a hait. Conditions in Mexico will soon be back to a nermal stage and great opportunities are presented there, for a smeller using no coke nor coal obtains greater heat, and does quicker, and cheaper work. Entire value of metal is recovered and a great deal more charges can be smelled than in old-type blust furnaces. charges can be smelled the countries plant furnaces.

Patented in Mexico and other countries—lested in every respect.

Rhowing the real condition in Mexico in the line and its opportunities, investor can control the bisiness entirety. Advartiser attends to the practical end of it.

It has been a success and more than a sure of the returns a profit.

Rhow party and his some cannot find a better opportunity than is offered here. America is covered with trust smelters. Not so in Mexico—an independent smelter will be a great success and mine owners will gladly patronize it.

There is an impense field open and returns on value and their charges for smelting now, and freight, is enormous. A smelter guaranteeing to one producer a fair return in value and smelting charges, will have an enormous business in a short time. A smelter cannot lose there. It can be started on a small scale and will quickly grow from profit. A smelter has no expense—the ore producer pays the entire bill.

You can only find the truth by investigating this proposition and any ore producer will corryborate my statements.

I offer half interest to patents in Mexico and other countries at a reasonable figure. A direct control. Please do not consider this a patent experiment; this is a proposition of 29 years experiment.
