BISHOP AND PASTOR HAVE SECOND CLASH IN M. E. CONFERENCE

w. George A. Cooke's Comment on Rebuke Curtly Received by the Presiding Officer

RLEST BE THE TIE"

WILMINGTON, Dol., March 31,-The ation created in yesterday's session the Wilmington Conference when sishop Joseph F. Berry, of Philadelphia, and is presiding, publicly rebuked the George A. Cooke, of this city, for rupting a speaker, had its sequel towhen Mr. Cooke arose to a question rivilege and commented on the inci-

No man can accuse me of being thin-naed," he said. "I have a little nerve, there is a point beyond which I will submit. Great injustice has been done by what was said here and what was he by what was said here and what was esculated by the press. I was accused of a breach of courtesy or parliamentary procedure. You gentlemen know me. I san't believe you ever heard or saw anything unchristian in my life. It was a sellente situation. If I did anything rang, I apologize."

Bishop Berry in repty, said curtly:
"It would not be for the good of this enference, yourself or myself to prolong is affair. This incident is closed."

The Rev. Robert K. Stephenson, super-stendent of the Dover district, next preintendent of the Dover district, next pre-sented his report. It calls attention to deficiencies in Epworth League work and teclares it to be a question whether it would not be wiser to substitute the Meth-sdist Brotherhood for the League, the Ushers' Union and kindred organizations. He complains strongly of a lack of spiritpality and Interest.

Mr. Stephenson also speaks of the mat-ter of salaries for pastors, calling atten-tion to the fact that great inroads are made upon the pastoral income by travel, entertainment and other incidentals.

Bishop Berry's reputation as a wit was chanced by his comments upon Mr. Stephenson's report. "Brother Stephenson," he said, "I am sorry that in the sconomy of the church your term will close at the end of the conference. I do not feel so kindly toward you as I would like. You are giving me a great deal of trauble, which arises (dramatic pause) from the feet that many churches are dem the fact that many churches are de ding that I appoint you as their pas-Some of these churches will be dis-distanced, as I can give you to but one. ## GIRL BURNED TO DEATH AS SHE COOKS FOR DOG

Invalid Brother Injured While Trying to Extinguish Flames at Ogden Street Home

A girl is dead today, burned to death while cooking supper for her pet dog, and her invalid brother is recovering from burns received in a vain effort to beat out

The dead girl was 15-year-old Emma Carter, of 5055 Ogden street. Her brother is George Carter, 23 years old. In the cellar of their home is an old gas stove which the girl used in her "play" house-keeping. She went into the cellar last night to cook a pan of cornmeal and meat for her dog, a collie, and used an appron for her dog, a collie, and used an apron to hold the hot handle. The apron caught fire, flaring up and igniting her dress.

Her screams aroused her brother, in bed upstairs. By the time he had arrived in the cellar his sister was a mass of flames but he made a brave effort to save her, burning his hands.

others, too, were attracted to the house by the screams, the first being Policeman Montgomery, of the 61st and Thompson streets station. He helped beat out the flames and sent the girl to the West Philadelphia. Homeopathic Hospital in an automobile. She died a few hours later. The brother's injuries were treated at the brother's injuries were treated at the hospital and he was sent home.
