NANCY WYNNE SEES A BUSY DAY AHEAD—BALLET AND FLOWER SHOW

Society Has Plenty to Do Today and Early Next Week. Russian Ballet and Mrs. Scott's Supper Club Add Their Quota of Enjoyment

WITH two performances of Serge de mond, Val., at the Mariborough-Blenheim in Atlantic City over the week-end. Flower Show and the final meeting of Mrs. Scott's Supper Club in the ballforeign countries Mi-Careme is as gay as carnival times, so why not here?

Mrs. Scott has provided especial attractions tonight for the final meeting of the club series. Two dancers from New York will give exhibitions of the newest steps, and pretty much every one who is not away in the South will the Flower Show. be there, many going up to the ballet first. Then, too, the Flower Show will be at its height, for tomorrow will be the last day you know, and, of course, every one wants to see one of the most beautiful spectacles ever exhibited in this city.

The precoclous chick is a source of constant joy to her family and friends so long as she does not become "too fresh." I heard a delicious bit lately about the small daughter of a very popular matron, whose uncle and aunt moved into the old family home last year. The Small Person was very, very interested, and when butler No. 2 appeared on the scene, and one parlor maid was not sufficient, and more and more maids and men arrived, she was quite dumbstruck, but canny enough not to show it. Later, however, she told it all to her grandmother, who is one of the best loved older women in the suburb from which the Small Person comes. Well, she told her all about it, and then she stopped and looked at her in a rather puzzled way, for Grandma did not seem terribly impressed, and yet she only kept three or maids. Finally, however, the Small Person brightened up and said, "But how could I expect you to understand, you who buy at a well-known cash grocer).

Suffice it to say that Grandma was highly amused, and repeated the story with great gusto.

From all accounts the Mi-Careme entertainment to be given Monday afternoon and evening at Horticultural Hall will be a great success, and it looks as if the little colored children at St. Nicholas' Day Nursery will be made very happy by the golden eagles that are being raised for their special benefit by the managers and friends of the institution. There will be movies, dancing Mrs. Isaac H. Clothier, Jr., Mrs. Francis F. Milne, Mrs. Edwin H. Fitler, Mrs. George H. Earle, Jr., Mrs. Edward Chase, Mrs. John S. C. Harvey, Mrs. George B. Evans, Mrs. J. Harrison Smith, Mrs. J. Louis Ketterlinus, Mrs. Nathaniel Knowles, Mrs. Edward Yorke Farquhar, Mrs. C. Wilmer Middleton, Mrs. Henry S. Jeanes, Mrs. William B. Chamberlain, Miss Margaret Clyde and Mrs. Frederick H. Mehl. And then in the evening movies will be shown again, to be followed by a large dance, at which many of this year's debutanted will be present.

NANCY WYNNE.

Personals

Miss Pauline Disston entertained at dinner followed by a theatre party and supper in the Crystal Room of the Ritz-Carlton, New York, last evening. Her guests included Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Eaton Cromwell and Miss Dorothy L. Norris, who are spending the week-end with her.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frederick Lewis, of 1914 Spruce street, have issued invita-tions to the members of the Plastic Club for ten at their home on Wednesday, April 19. Mr. Lewis will give a talk on the origin of "Portrait Miniature Paint-

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Clay, who have been spending some time at the St. Charles, Atlantic City, have returned to their home, 1229 Spruce street.

Mrs. Charles Wolcott Henry, of Stonehurst, has issued cards for a lecture on "America's Opportunity as a Peace Facin the Far Elast," by Dr. Teusler, of Luke's Hospital, Tokio. The lecture will take place at Mrs. Henry's home on April 3, and views of Japan will be shown by Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Pancoast.

Miss Dorothy Grammer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carl E. Grammer, 1024 Spruce street, will entertain at dinner on Friday evening, April 7. The guests will afterward attend the meeting of Mrs. Edward Troth's dancing class.

Colonel J. E. Hyneman, who met with a serious accident in Florida several eks ago, has sufficiently recovered to able to leave the Jefferson Hospital and return to his apartments at the Union

The Philadelphia Music Club will give a luncheon at the Aldine Hotel Thursday, April 6. Mrs. George W. Stewart, president of the club, will preside. Among the guests of honor will be Mrs. Leopold Stokowski, Mrs. W. Yorke Stevenson, Mrs. L. O'Hara, Mrs. Francis E. Clark, Mrs. Austic S. Heckerber Mrs. William Simon Austin S. Heckscher, Mrs. William Simpson, Jr., Mrs. Louis F. Benson and Madam A. Carnoy, and on April 13, "A Greek Night," at which the classic Greek dances, Greek odes and rhapsodies will be presented, will be given at the Little Theatre. The Greek night is under the direction of Miss Edith Pussy. ,

Miss Mary Ferrell Colton will give an exhibition at the Plastic Club, 247 South Camac street, on Wednesday. Miss Mary F. Holmes will talk on "Reminiscenses of Old Mexico in Time of Peace," on April 12, at the clubhouse.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mra. Louis K. Gilroy for the marriage of their daughter. Miss Amelia Fietcher Gilroy, to Mr. Albert Smith Faught, at the Central North Broad Presbyterian Church, on April 24, at 7:30 o'clock in the orening. A small reception at the home of the bride's parents, 1714 Green street, will follow the ceremony.

Mrs. Frederick H. Payne, of the U. S. Vaval Home, accompanied by her mother, are Gorton, will leave today for Corn-ng N. Y.

ing Helen Blair Daniel, of Engr ingfleid avenue, will be the guest of and Mrs. Issue Davenport, of High-

The marriage of Mr. David B. De Many Mrs. Scott's Supper Club in the ball-room of the Bellevue-Stratford this eve-ning one would hardly think that Lent is not only with us but half way over. Still it is the eve of Mi-Careme, and in

Along the Main Line

OVERBROOK-Mr. Philip Breitmeyer. overbrook—Mr. Philip Breitmeyer, ex-Mayor of Detroit, and Mrs. Breitmeyer, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Schumann, of Wynnewood road, left last night for their home in Detroit. Mr. Breitmeyer acted as one of the judges at

Mrs. W.a.S. McCalmont, of 746 North 63d street, and her little daughter left this week for a trip to Cuba.

Germantown

Miss Margaret Roberts, of 207 Logan street, will entertain at luncheon on Wednesday, April 26.

Mrs. Charles Carmalt Wills, of 423 West Walnut lane, has issued cards for an opera recital on Wednesday, April 5.

Mrs. Joseph Huston, of Lehman lane, will give a bridge party on Thursday,

Miss Katherine Nicholas, of 5335 Wayne avenue, will give a dance at the Casino on Friday evening, April 7. The guests will be

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lincoln Gillespie, of 332 West Manheim street, will give a dance on Friday evening, April honor of their daughter, Miss Freda Gilles

Miss Mary Dancey Goodwin, whose marriage to Mr. Samuel Mason Pritchett, Jr., will take place tonight, entertained her bridal party at a buffet supper last even-ing following the rehearsal at the Wayne Avenue Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Moore Davis, of the Cresheim Valley Apartments, will spend the week-end in Atlantic City as the guest of Mrs. Davis' mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blackburne, of Hayerford, who are occupying their cottage there.

Lansdowne

Mrs. C. V. Taylor, of Lincoln avenue, Lansdowne, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Edna C. Taylor, to Mr. Frederick F. Kolle, of Brooklyn, N. Y

Mrs. H. N. Willits, of Lincoln avenue who has been visiting her sister in Westerly, R. I., will return home today.

Mr. Clinton Wunderlick, of Maple avenue, will return today from Williams Col-lege, Mass., to spend the spring holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Lewis, Jr. and bridge in the afternoon, and among those who will have bridge tables are Mrs. Charles H. Howell, president of the nursery; Mrs. Walter S. Massey, Mrs. Isaac H. Clothier, Jr., Mrs. Francis

Mrs. Isaac H. Clothier, Jr., Mrs. Francis

Mrs. H. B. Kobler, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Boyd, Mr. William Mackay, Miss Marlon Borneman and Mr. John Galbraith

Langhorne

Mrs. Harry Stewart and her daughter, Miss Edith Lukens Stewart, will entertain at a large luncheon, followed by cards, on

Mrs. Henry Lovett has been giving a series of luncheons, two occurring this week, one on Thursday and the other

Mr. and Mrs. William Brinton, who have been spending the winter in St. Petersburg, Fia., have opened their hon

The Friday Evening Card Club was entertained at dinner last night by Mr. and Mrs. Malachi White.

Bala-Cynwyd

MISS DOROTHY A. FLECK

Miss Marion Pickford, of Bala, will giv luncheon and shower Saturday after-A. Fleck, whose engagement to Mr. Harry C. Taylor, of Baltimore, was announced

Miss Fisck will entertain the members of the Phi Sigma Servity at her home on Bala avenue tomorrow afternoon. The Hais avenue tomorrow arternoon. The members present will include Miss Naomi Haufman, Miss Florence Kline, Miss Blar-garet Kershaw, Miss Marie McClatchey, Miss Jean Hammer. Miss Ursula Sec-burger, Miss Dorothy Morris, Miss Kath-erine Street. Miss Myrtle Johnston, Miss Marion Pickford and Miss Sarah Pedrick.

Miss Marie Storey Eberbach, of Colwyn road, Cynwyd, is spending the week-end with Miss Heish Moore, of Frunkford.

Camden and Vicinity Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lowry and their laughter, Miss Matthe Lowry, have given up their residence at 5th and Cooper streets and have moved to Rossmout, Pa.

TWO RECENT BRIDES

Weddings

PRITCHETT-GOODWIN. One of the pretty early spring weddings will take place this evening, when Miss Mary Dancey Goodwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Goodwin, of 5339 Baynton street, will become the bride of Mr. Samuel Mason Pritchett, Jr., of New York. The ceremony will take place at 6 York. The ceremony will take place at 6 o'clock in the Wayne Avenue Baptist Church, the Rev. P. I. Newkirk officiating.

Miss Goodwin, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a dainty frock of tulle and old lace. There will be tiny puffed sleeves of tulle and a train falling from the high-waisted bodice. Her tulle veil will be caught with orange blossoms and she will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids. The maid of honor, Miss Constance Gray, of Washington, will be gowned in flesh-color chiffon over a foundation of turquise blue silk. The bodice will be trimmed with lace and a blue girdle will be t gives a touch of color. Her hat will be a white one, made in mushroom style and trimmed with a single pink rose and blue velvet streamers. She will carry Killar-ney roses. The bridesmaids, including Miss Catherine Holbrook, of Washington; Miss Emily S. Hawkins, Miss Helen Scott and Mrs. John K. Harper, of Baltimore, has colored silk. They will have flesh-colored girdles, and hats of white, each trimmed with a pink rose and streamers will complete the attractive costumes. They will carry arm bouquets of larksur, snap-dragons and pink sweet peas. Mr. Pritchett will have as best man Mr. John Parnell Feeney, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., and the ushers will be Mr. Richard Pritchett, of Baltimore; Mr. James I. Pritchett, Jr., of Danville, Va.; Mr. Thomas Firth, Mr. Andrew R. McCown, Mr. John W. Goodwin, Jr., and Mr. Hampton C. Goodwin. A re-ception will follow at the home of the bride's parents, 5330 Baynton street.

Along the Reading

Mrs. James D. Marshall, of Noble, en-tertained at luncheon Thursday at her some, in honor of Mrs. Alben Lloyd, of Milwaukee, Wis. Among the guests were Mrs. Robert Pearson Marshall and Mrs. Lewis Hugh Bean, of Philadelphia. Mrs Marshall has had Miss Florence Pearson, of West Philadelphia, as her guest this week. Miss Pearson will re-turn to her home on Monday.

Miss Nellie Ostheimer, of Jenkintown, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Willis Adams, at her home in Chicago, Ill., for the past few weeks, will return home shortly. Miss Ostheimer has be extensively entertained during her visit.

The Cheltenham Club of the University of Pennsylvania has issued invitations for a dance at the Old York Road Country Club on Friday evening. Mrs. Harry Renniger, of Glenslde, en-tertained the members of her bridge club Thursday evening at her home.

invitations to the seniors and their friends for the annual musicale, which will be given tonight. The program will include selections by the Germantown Academy Mandolin Club, and readings and imper-sonations by Mrs. Helen Heusman. Mrs. Frederick J. Schlaich, of Elkins Park, has left for Washington, D. C., where she will be the guest of friends for several days. Mrs. Schlaich will return to her home the end of next week.

Miss Marie Wooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Wooley, of Spring avenue, Noble, will have her cousin, Miss Ruth Barron, of Shamokin, Pa., as her guest for the week-end. Miss Barron will return to her home on Tuesday, Mrs. H. C. Stevens, of Wyncote road, Jenkintown, has left for Glen Ridge, N. J., where she will be the guest of friends for several days. Mrs. Stevens will return to her home the first of the week.

Mrs. Harry F. Kassebaum, of Elkins Park, has left for Atlantic City, N. J., where she will remain until the end of

Mr. James Flanigan and Mr. Garton Flanigan, of 1214 Flaher's avenue, Logan, will spend the week-end as the guesta of aunt, Miss Helen Fitzpatrick, of West Philadelphia Dr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Fox, of 3902 Locust street, will entertain at dinner this evening at the Philadelphia Cricket Glub.

A "Welcome Home" party was given by Mr. and Mrs. James Ritchie, of 5832 Rod-man street, in honor of Miss Lillias Fos-ter's return after a stay in New Orleans.

North Philadelphia Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Henning, of 2019 North Carlisle street, left today for an extended trip to Atlantic City.

Mr. Marry A. Corr. of 50th street and Buckner will entertain at dinner on Fri-dusgrahams averus, will spand the week, day, April 7, for Mr. and Mrs. Pierre S. and with friends to New York.

PRODUCTION OF PASSION PLAY FRAUGHT WITH INTENSE INTEREST

St. Joseph's College Dramatic Association Will Give Mammoth Performance at Metropolitan Opera House in Passion Week

DHILADELPHIA'S first Passion Play, | by the Rev. William A. Storck, S. J., who to be given at the Metropolitan Opera House during the week of April 10, under the auspices of the Dramatic Association of St. Joseph's College, bids fair to outdo anything of the kind that has ever been

The play is a huge spectacular dramatization of the life of Christ, accurate in every detail, following closely the biblical narrative and even the scriptural dictation. It is on a massive scale, requiring more than 200 characters, especially designed scenic effects, an orchestra of 40 pieces and a choir of 70 voices.

The appeal of the play is so universal and has already met with such a response that three extra performances have had to be provided in addition to the five al-ready announced. Men and women of every shade of religious belief and of every walk of life are alike attracted by this opportunity to see what well-known this opportunity to see what well-known critics have pronounced the most accurate and telling reproduction of the life of the great Teacher. Contrary to the Oberammergau produc tion, this Passion Play does not present the figure of Christ upon the stage. It follows closely the story of His life; it shows the men and women with whom He lived and the circumstances which sur-rounded Him, but Christ Himself is seen only, as it were, by inference-by His only as it were, by interence—by fits influence upon the people about Him. Throughout the production "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by"; but this is shown sometimes by the artifice of the old Greek chorus and at others by the flood of radiance which pours out upon the stage or narrows in the distance to a shining light. shining light.

Roxborough

Mrs. Joseph Culley, of 275 Rochelle ave nue, will entertain at cards and supper or

Tuesday evening when her guests will be Miss May Kennedy, Mrs. Brook Palst, Mrs.

Joseph C. Henderson, Jr., Miss Margaret

Warrington, Miss Alma Hinman, Miss Lucy Fox and Miss Myra Wartman.

Mrs. W. H. Snyder, of Monastery ave-

The Young Women's Christian Associa-tion of the Falls of Schuylkill has issued

Mr. William Waldeck, of 618 East Levrington avenue, is recovering from a re-

Kensington

in aid of the Poor Mission at Bangor, Pa., this evening at her home, 525 East Alle-

Mrs. Benjamin Henbon, of Elkhart, Ind., a visiting her mother, Mrs. Vickers, of

Mrs. Walter Klise, of 2011 Monmouth

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Needham, of 2812

Frankford avenue, will spend the week-end at Avalon, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer, of Ambier, have been entertaining Mrs. Anna L. Kircher, of Atlantic City.

Wilmington Mrs. William M. Pield entertained at incheon Thursday in honor of Dr. Mary stone, missionary from Kiukiang, China, who spoke at the Women's Foreign Missionary Society anniversary in Dnion Methodist Episcopal Church. The other guests were Mrs. Joseph Berry, Miss Susan C. Lodge and Mrs. Robert Bagnell of Philadelphia; Mrs. Frank Presman, of Overbrook; Mrs. Vaugin S. Collins, Mrs. H. F. Pickels, Mrs. John S. Mullin and Mrs. C. Wesley Weldin.

street, will entertain the members of her

Frankford avenue and Tioga street.

ewing circle on Wednesday afterno

Mrs. Thomas Patton will give a cuchre nue, has Miss Laura Louise Barnes, Ocean Grove, N. J., as her guest.

$1000 has been spant on the painting of one scene alone. This depicts the interior of the old Temple of Jerusalem at the hour of Christ's death, where the people, affrighted at the breaking loose of the elements, have sought refuge.

No expense has been spared to make

The scene is one of intense dramatic in-terest. The huge edifice is crowded with a kaleidoscopic meb of terrified people, made up of Romans and Jews of every degree, who are palsied with fear as the sacred vell of the Temple is rent as the sign from heaven that "it is finished." Another tremendous scene is the gathering of the Sanhedrin, in the old council hall of the Jews, when the high priests gather to plot the deatl of Christ. empting and yielding of Judas is one of the strongest bits in the drama. This Passion Play has the further distinction of having been written by a Philadelphian, Clay M. Greene. It was written by him to mark the golden jubilee of the Santa Clara College, of California, where it was presented some seven years Archbishop Prendergast and other leading church dignitaries are to be present on the opening night. The Papai Dele-gate, Archbishop Bonzano, has reserved a box for the second night performance. The performances, as announced, will be on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday nights, beginning April 11, and hining light.

The play is being staged and directed urday afternoons in the same week.

South Philadelphia

MISS ANNA BELACK

The engagement is announced of Miss Anna Belack, of 1017 Morris street, and Mr. Abram I. Herring, of 3860 Cambridge

Woodbury Miss Miriam Isrard is home from Wellesley College for the Easter holidaya.

What's Doing Tonight National Flower Shaw, Convention Ballet Russe, Metropolitan Opera Ho Lecture on "Military Engineering," a suspices of the Engineers Club by orge A. Zion, Witherspoon Bullet lock Clock.
Natural History Society. Wagner Institute.
Philladeintha Occhestra concert. Bryn Mawr
College: 8.15 o'clock.
Christian Solence lecture. Prof. Herman & tering. C. S. D. First Church. 46th and Waluit streets: 8 o'clock.

BEAUTIFUL BALL PLANNED FOR MOUNT SINAI HOSPITA

Brilliant Social Affair Is in Contemplation During Easter Week-Many New Features Have Been Arranged-Various Entertainments of Interest

THE board of managers of the Mount Sinal Hospital has arranged to hold its 16th annual charity ball on Tuesday evening, April 25, at the Academy of Music, and is preparing for a number of new features, with a view to making the affair a brilliant social success.

The ball will begin promptly at 9 o'clock, with a concert rendered by one of the two orchestras, following which there will be general dancing.

Arrangements for the supper to be served have been made, and no efforts have been spared to perfect every detail. The Academy will be elaborately decorated for the occasion by a prominent florist, and will be converted into a veritable fairwisnd. table fairyland.

The splendid work done by this hospital speaks for itself, and needs no comment. With its increasing usefulness, however. the demands grow greater, and there is immediate need of much larger facilities— more beds, more wards, more supplies—to meet in any adequate measure the calls for help in a neighborhood where such an institution is a veritable necessity. To help supply these, this ball is given, thus providing the means needed for the maintenance of this splendid work, and affording an opportunity for a social af-fair that promises to be of the best.

NE of the most interesting song recitals of the season will be that given at the New Century Drawing Room on Thursday evening, April 13, for the benefit of the Garretson Hospital. The program includes Miss Elizabeth Hood Latta, the popular young mexic-soprano, who will sing French, German and English selections. Mr. Daniel C. Donovan, the selections. Mr. Daniel C. Donovan, the well-known tenor, will also sing, and Dr. Leo Bernd will give a few of his dialect stories. Mr. Clifford Vaughn will be the planist. The list of patronesses includes such well-known women as Mrs. J. Madison Taylor, Mrs. George Dallas Dixon, Mrs. Edward Schmidt, Mrs. N. Scammon Jones, Mrs. Frank Wigton, Mrs. George W. Edmonds, Mrs. Isaac W. Kemble, Mrs. William Arrott, Mrs. M. Posey, Mrs. George B. Evans, Mrs. William Ernest, Mrs. Thomas Dixon Finletter, Mrs. Howard Davis, Mrs. William S. Belding, Mrs. C. Stanley Hurlbut, Mrs. Livingston, Mrs. Thomas S. Stewart, Mrs. Ralph Stewart,

Mrs. C. S. Barnes, Mrs. Wilmer Krusse Mrs. H. A. Bacon, Mrs. George Fritz Chail dier, Mrs. John Cooks Hirst, Miss Ra Williams, Mrs. Girardeau Shiles, Mrs. Harry Blynn, Mrs. William R. McShil Mrs. Joseph C. Poulterer, Mrs. Charles E Bochman, Mrs. C. S. A. Henry, Mrs. Wei ter Johnson, Mrs. H. D. Sawyer, Mrs. & Chandler, Mrs. Carl Smith, Mrs. Thoma J. Berry and Mrs. Mulford K. Fleher.

Miss Florence Morley and Mrs. J. Louis Gelbman entertained the W. W. G. T. M. Club at their home, 1320 Tloga street. Thursday night. A very enjoyable evening was spent in games, songs and danning. Those present were Miss Margarette Mor-row, Miss Jessie Main, Miss Elizabeth Wat-son, Miss Jessie Main, Miss Elizabeth Wat-son, Miss Alice Pepper, Miss Mary Abrama Miss Dorothy Chestnut, Miss Elsie Headly Miss Marion Headly, Miss Margaret Main, Miss Margaret Watson, Miss Ade Hack-man and Mr. and Mrs. Philip C. Merley.

SURPRISE party was given in h A of Mr. Raymond Dhue on his 18th birthday, March 28, at his residence, 2028 South Beechwood street. Music was provided by the Taibot String Band.

vided by the Taibot String Band.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs.

Boengen, Mr. and Mrs. Mays, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Uber, Mr. and Mrs. Fleigeno, Mr. and Mrs. Vandenene.
Mr. and Mrs. Dhue, Miss Mary Uber. Miss

Mildred Stewart, Mr. Harry Taibot, Mr.

Louis Coren, Miss Ida Mays, Mr. Raymond Dhue, Mr. Harry Dhue, Jr., Mr.

Stanley Albertson. Mr. Boengen sing
some of the popular songs and Mr. Fleigno gave some selections on the plane.

A large entertainment will be given on Sunday evening, April 9, at Park Avenue Hall, 1315 Columbia avenue, by the Women's Auxiliary of Standard Lodge.

SIXTEENTH anniversary party was A given in honor of Miss Rose L. Shore Last week by her parents. Among the guess were Mr. Samuel Aven, Miss Fannie Daniels, Mr. A. S. Weber, Miss Jennie Snapper, Mr. D. A. I. Rubin, Miss Bessie Rafer, Mr. John Caplan, Miss Derothy Raiseman, Miss Mary Gershman, Mr. Al. Stein, Miss Sara Dubject, Mr. Philip Hirsh, Miss Rose Rosenfield and Mr. Benjamin, Marstele.

ART POSTER EXHIBIT TO TEACH ADVERTISERS

Week-Long Show at School of Industrial Arts, Broad and Pine, Opens Today

Pilgrims, Indians, goddesses, steel work-ers, Tommy Atkinses, debutantes, sports-men and Colonial dames are mingling in much brilliant color today at an educa-tional poster exhibition in the auditorium in the School of Industrial Arts, Broad and Pine streets. The exhibition will last a week. The purpose is to show the advantages has spent the greater part of a year in gathering information as to authentic scenes, costumes and music. of artistic advertising, and how strikingly an idea can be "put over" in a mere bill poster, when it is designed by an artist. Among the several hundred posters are Among the 30 erai nundred posters are 60 entered in the poster competition to advertise the 250th anniversary of the founding of Newark, N. J., which will be held this spring. Included in these are the works of the best-known poster artists in the country. The Newark competition is the production a notable one. Close to the country. The for a $1000 prize.

There are foreign and American secions in the exhibition. The foreign in-ludes posters of the war by Steinlein and Bragrown. The American section contains originals by Penfield, Will Bradley, Paus, Treidler and others. Dr. Carol Aronovici is in charge of the ex-hibition and he is assisted by Otto F.

SAILS TO AID WOUNDED Dr. Richard R. Spahr Passenger on Rochambeau

Dr. Richard R. Spahr, who resigned recently from the staff of the Philadelphia Hospital, is a passenger today on the steamship Rochambeau, from New York. He will enter service in the American Hos-

Booked on the steamship St. sailing from New York today for Liverpool, are the following Philadelphians: Thomas Coffin
John Denney
Joseph J. Dougherty
Patrick Daley
Miss Minne Jones
Miss Gladys Davidson
John Dickson

SURRATT NEAR DEATH; HELD IN LINCOLN PLOT

Last Survivor of Those Arrested for Complicity in Assassination

BALTIMORE, Md., April 1. -Harrison Surratt, the last survivor those arrested for complicity in the plot assassinate Abraham Lincoln, but was subsequently released, is critically at his home in this city. He is nearly ! For 42 years he was auditor of the Ball more Steam Packet Company. Surratt was in Elmira, N. Y., the day Licoln was assassinated. He proceeded to Vermont, crossed into Canada and salled from Montreal for England. Thence be went to Rome, enlisted in the Pajai, zouaves and was there arrested in the barracks. He hacks from his arrested in the burracks. He broke from his guards, by night to Naples, shipped on a fiel sloop to Messina, thence to Cairo, wi Mr. Hale, the United States Consul, on the lookout for him. His arrest lowed, and he was brought back on United States warship Swatara. He tried and acquitted. Surratt always sisted his mother was innocent, as

GODSCHALL ESTATE $75,000

roperty Disposed of in Pr quests-Other Wills Probated

Wills probated today were those Charles F. Godshall, 1906 Wallace stre which in private bequests disposed property valued at $75,900; William Thomas, 105 East Washington $13,550; August Endriss, 3439 Wood $13,550; August Endriss, 3439 Woodavenue, $13,500; Mary J. Lunn, 2401; Huntingdon street, $3200; John Li 1422 South 62d street, $3200, and A. E. Lunn, 1927 East Pacific street, The personalty of the estate of E. Shedaker has been appraised at 609.09; Nannie L. Nevins, $15,867,4 rietta L. Ford, $11,519; Nichola brozi, $7846.89; Ellizabeth T. Barry, Mary E. Hughes, $2560.99, and F. Angeroth, $2174.32.

YOUNG APRIL AND HIS TRICKY WAYS HAVE FOOLED MANKIND IN ALL AG

Antiquity Had Its Merry Practices in Consonance W the Month That Begins Today-Some Famous Jokes

half smiles half tears. For do we not all join the company of merry fools on the first day of April, and on all the days that April gives us does he not fool us with promise of sunshine and then sud-denly pour a shower of water upon us, with a mocking cry of "April Fool?"

The custom of making a bigger fool of oneself than usual on the first day of April seems to be as old as the race of mankind. All the world loves to be fooled, and wise is the fool who laughs well whether the joke be on him or another the posts of the mostler. wearer of the motley. In the ancient land of India the Huli festival held on March 31 corresponds to our April Fool day. The Roman Saturnalia on February 17 was the Roman holiday of fools, when Brutus and Cassius, and perhaps Julius Caesar himself, forgot their wisdom and induiged in classic folly ANTIQUITY OF "APRIL FOOL"

One origin of the custom of sending people back and forth on fruitless errands people back and forth on fruitless errands may have come from the miracle play given in the middle ages at Easter time, showing the sending of Christ from Annas to Calaphas, from Calaphas to Pilate, from Pilate to Herod and from Herod again to Pilate. In Scotland these se-rands are called "hunting the gowk" and the poor victim is sent on his way with the speeding of 'hunt the gowk another mile." "gowk" being the vernacular for cuckoo.

the poor victim is sent on his way with the speeding of 'hunt the gowk another mile." "gowk" being the vertacular for cuckeo.

In France the victim of April foolery is called "Poisson d'Avril" or April fish, an April fish being young is easily caught and is sometimes known as a sucker, hence the meaning of sucker, one who is easily fooled A famous "April fool" is France, was that of the excape of Francia Duke of Lorraine and his wife from captivity in Nantes, Disguised as peasants they were just ready to pass the guards at the gate. A man who had learned of the plot, rushed up to the guards and told them not to let those two peasants out, that flory were the Duke and Duchess in disguise, but as it happened to be the first of April, the guards shouted knowingly "Poisson d'Avril' you can't fool us." and the prisoners escaped.

Addinge, in the Spectator, tells of a haph tenber in London who boasted tigst in the years he taid made over 162 April to street a the rest."

OF ALL Mother Nature's children Fools of people, sending them on a bound April is the most whimsical, much more a tricksy lad than a maiden, "History of Eve's Grandmother."

FAMOUS FOOLERIES OF ENGI In 1860 the wags of London to their heads together and decided their heads together and decided.

April Fool on a large scale.

Invitation were sent out to make and worthy people stating that is would admit bearer and frience.

Tower of London to view the annuer ceremony of washing the white lious. The card was to be presented at the White Gate on Sunday, April the dreat on that Sunday the neighborhood was disturbed by many a cab rattling about with the driver hunting vainly for the White Gate.

with the driver hunting vainly for the White Gate.

An earlier English joke than the ope of the washing of the lions was that of the Wiles Fools of Gotham. The said of the village of Gotham hearing that the king was coming their way, wished to save their mendow for the part ame traveled by the king became a publishighway. So by a ruse they sent the monarch the long way around. When the truth came to the royal esset the king was angry and sent several of his retainers back to the village to find out and punish the men who had planned to send him out of his way.

The villagers heard of the cosming of the king's man and hurriedly got ready to receive them. Some were found bushy musting carts on top of their houses to shade ceive them. Some were found busing ing carts on top of their houses to the trees of the wood; others were