WOULD BLOW UP WAR PLANTS FOR GERMANY, SAYS MADAME GADSKI

Wife of Alleged Plotter Frankly Admits She Places Love of Fatherland Above All Else

TO ARREST FIVE OTHERS

NEW YORK, April 1.—"Yes: I would blow myself up munitions factories. I would give up everything else and go from one plant to another, carrying ruin with me, if only I could warn the workers in time to save themselves. That I would do gladly, and more—for Ger-

The frank speaker was Mme, Johanna The frank speaker was Mine, Johanna Cadski, of the Metropolitan Opera. Her heart is with the Fatherland, and she wants-the world to know it. So—frankly, too—is, the heart of her husband, Herr Captain Hans Tauscher, of the Kaiser's

But the captain, says madame, could not be a spy. His innate truthfulness is too great. He would not act a part. He could not do anything underhanded. He could not bring himself to violate the neutrality of the United Statets, his "second home" and Madame's.

"We are not worried," continued madame," because we know the captain is not guilty. He would tell you himself, quickly and emphatically enough, if you asked him where his sympathies lie. He is pro-German. So is Lotta. So am I.

But no matter what his sympathies my husband is not a spy. His fathe an officer in the Franco-Prussian war. His brother is a major with the Kaiser's army. The captain is a fighter, of a family of fighters. He would give his right arm to be in the trenches that he might fight Germany's enemies with his

Later the reporter met a man in the entrance corricor below—a man of mili-tary bearing, who responded to the name of Captain Tauscher—and a man decidedly in a hurry.

"I'm sorry." he said "but my lawyers have told me not to talk. Besides, I am almost late for a most important engagement with two ladies whom I have never disappointed in my life. Just say that you der Goltz is a faker."

The arrest of five more German plotters is expected by the Department of Justice as a result of the disclosures made by Horst you der Goltz, the German spy released by the British to testify in this country. One and possibly two of those sought are understood to be German con-
