The most beautiful homes you ever saw await your choosing today. They're at Bala-Cynwyd, only six miles from Broad Street Station. No two of them alike-yet each having some one touch not found in the other. Spanish, Dutch, Colonial and Englisheach built from stone taken from our own quarries, and by skilled labor engaged and paid by us. Not a wishedfor detail lacking in their construction —and unlooked-for touches of beauty on every floor.

Scott's Beautiful Homes at Bala-Cynwyd

The homes are situated in the very prettiest part of Bala-Cynwyd on Latches Lane, Upland Terrace, Union Ave. and Edge Hill Road. We have a beautiful booklet showing the sixteen homes which we would gladly send on request—put better yet, come out to-day and see them. Take Pennsylvania Railroad to Jala or Cynwyd, or Market Street Elevated to 52nd Street—then Bala car o city line—a five cent fare.
