Here are some fresh regulars from western army posts as they arrived at the Columbus, N. M., base. Their pleasure in getting so close to real "action" is evidenced by their greetings to the photographer.

PIE WAGON COMES TO GRIEF IN CRASH ON MARKET STREET
Almost $125 worth of the fresh product on its way to armchair lunchrooms was lost forever when this transport was banged into by a United States mail automobile at 5th street today. A few choice specimens that flew out were quickly snapped up by the ever-ready archer.
