A VARIETY OF PICTORIAL SIDELIGHTS ON THE LATEST NEWS OF THE DAY FROM MANY SOURCES

ITALY TO ASSIST ALLIES BY MORE VIGOROUS OFFENSIVE
The picture shows members of the Bersaglieri, Italy's crack troops, on the firing line. The appointment of a new War Minister is believed to foreshadow a fiercer assault on the Austrian lines.

OLD-FASHIONED BARGAIN COUNTER RUSH AT BENEFIT SALE

Hundreds of women charged on the doors of the Widener Building yesterday to take advantage of the remnant sale conducted by society women for the benefit of Jefferson Hospital.

LEADERS OF MEXICAN EXPEDITION AT CASAS GRANDES
Colonel H. J. Slocum, who was in command at Columbus when Villa made his raid there (at left), and Major J. L. Hines, official censor, as they appear in campaign clothes.

AT THE PLAYGROUND TEACHERS' DINNER
Miss Edwina Ginder and Peter S. Schmid in a Dutch dance at the annual frolic at the Athletic Recreation Centre yesterday.

FIRST GERMANS CAPTURED AT VERDUN
Both extreme youth and middle age are taking part in the Teutonic assault on the French stronghold, which began more than a month ago.

"POCKET WIRELESS" TRIED OUT BY THE FRENCH
This wireless apparatus, while a trifle large for the ordinary pocket, still can be transported by hand and is declared to give entire satisfaction.

PARK GRIZZLIES IN A WRESTLING BOUT
These two veterans of the Fairmount Park Zoo were caught by the photographer as they started a friendly scuffle, caused, no doubt, by the spring air.

A GLIMPSE OF A BOARDWALK FLIRTATION
That the open season for this favorite outdoor sport is now on at Atlantic City is evidenced by this snapshot by a staff photographer. Note the spring bonnet, too.
