WYNNE ANTICIPATES HAPPY AFTERNOON FOR KIDDIES

Child's Garden of Verse and Memories of Famous Portraits Will Be Shown at Bellevue-Stratford Today-Children of Fashionables Take Part

THE kiddles will be in their element ten avenue, Germantown, will give a din-this afternoon at the Hope Day Nursery benefit, which will be given in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford from 2:30 until 5:30 o'clock. Tableaux will be given at intervals during the afternoon, and between times Constance Binney, of New York, will dance and little Polly Thaver will play on her beloved violin.

It is a pretty thing, this idea of the little children of the well-to-do giving of their talent and time to help their poorer little brothers and sisters who are taken care of in the Hope Day Nursery, which is in the heart of the slums, at 1013 Vine

Eugene Field's Garden of Verse will be Illustrated by the small tots and some of the world-famous portraits of children will be copied; after the performance there will be a children's dancing tea. A feature of the entertainment will be a loan exhibition of dolls dressed in the costumes of all nations, and there will also be a sale of children's summer hats under the management of Mrs. Howard Eilison, Jr., Mrs. Charles Wood, Mrs. Meade Large, Mrs. Robert Sewell and Mrs. Morris Clothier.

Mr. J. Kenton Eisenbrey, Mr. Richard Newlin, Mr. John Baird, Jr., Mr. Henry Bain, 3d, Mr. Theodore Bailey and Mr. John Bankson.

You are nowise fashionable nowadays if you haven't got the measles or at least are not quarantined with said infantile disease, which is ravaging the eauty of our young people just now. here is Lisa Norris, the attractive debuante of the last season, laid up in darkened room—to protect her eyes, darkened room—to protect her eyes, Hoskin and Miss Rose B. Jacobson, Miss May Hoskin and Miss Rose Braunfeld. of course-and Valentine Mitchell, too, another charming girl, is suffering from the selfsame malady. Charlotte Brown, who is doing such splendid work in nusic over in New York this winter, ame home for a while last week, and ow she is quarantined over here and nable to return to her studies because er small brother has a case of measles. Nannie Hecksher also has a case and o has Uncle Guy.

It really is too bad if it were not a it funny; it would be so much more tylish to have something like appendiitis or inflammation of the sinus, which s the very last word in things social. NANCY WYNNE.
