The dramatic association has had very wonderful success in the various plays which have been staged in earlier years, but this is its first undertaking of such proportions. Judging from the dress rehearsal there is no doubt of its success and of the effect G. Child, of Hampton terrace, Bala. upon the audience, which cannot but be greatly impressed at the reverent handling of the greatest tragedy of the world. There is nothing to offend the most sacred feeling, as neither Jesus nor Mary appear on the stage.
