Garrett, Jr., 2524 A st. Interment private, at Follovue Cometery. Remains may be yiewed Tuesday evening. Automobile

LOVELY LASSIE LOSES STOCKING AND DOESN'T BLUSH EVEN A LITTLE

Everybody Solicitous, but Elevator Boy in Atlantic City Hotel Finally Comes to the Rescue

SOCIAL DOINGS AT SHORE

ATLANTIC CITY, April 11 .- "Oh, have lost my stocking!" exclaimed Miss Aldus, the adorably attractive grand-daughter of Sir Henry Bate, the "Grand Old Man" of Canada, as he is affectionately termed by his fellow countrymen. Miss Aldus was coming from the elevator of the Traymore when she missed the stock-ing. Those within earshot naturally gianced toward Miss Aldus' pedal extremi-ties, which were very properly clad. But is wasn't Miss Aldus' personal hosiery that was lacking. She had lost the stocking she was knitting for her soldier sweet-heart. An accommodating elevator boy finally found the lost article, and Miss Aldus Joined a group of Canadians in the solarium of the Traymore.

Imagine a group of pretty young girls dressed in the very height of fashion, knitting woolen socks, the kind that grand-mother used to concoct as they sat beside the fireplace! As one energetic girl put it:

"Anybody can knit a scarf; but it takes real skill to fashion a sock."

The girls are becoming adept at this sort of thing and exhibit their work with considerable pride. It would be interesting to know just how many miles of yarn are used in a day at Atlantic City, for almost every one is lenting, if not for imost every one is knitting, if not for ie soldiers for themselves. Although skating is coming back again, dancing has not by any means lost favor, and the submarine grill at the Traymore was crowded today at the tea hour. Mr. and Mrs. De Cardo, of New York, who danced at the Traymore last summer, are back again. Mr. and Mrs. Newlin Haines also were among the dancers. Mrs. Haines wore an attractive taffored coat suit, with furs and a close-fitting chapeau, built entirely of pink roses and leaves.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Hill, of New York, ent tained a large party.

Mrs. Sailing Baruch, of New York, wore one of the most stunning tailored costumes seen on the Walk this season. It was a study in dark blue and white stripes about an inch wide, inset with panels of plain blue and built with a striped cape effect. Mrs. Baruch's hat was also of blue-andwhite-striped material, severely tailored in sailor shape.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ferguson, of Ardmore, are coming down for Easter to visit Ferguson's brother, Dr. Thomas cottage on Oxford place, Ventner. Delancey Nicoll, former District Attorney of New York, and Frank Wellman, who were here for the week-end to enjoy the golf at Northfield, left Monday for

Miss Nellie Delle Smith and Miss Lenore Kaye, who always spend the summer at Chelsea, will be entertained over Easter by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Rogers at their Ventnor cottage.

Commedore Samuel H. Whan, of the Chelsea Yacht Club, and Mrs. Wahn have opened their cottage on Aberdeen place for the spring season. Mr. and Mrs. James H. Mason gave a family dinner party of 60 covers last night at their cottage, 114 South Michigan avenue, the occasion being the celebration of Mr. Mason's 80th birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Drake will entertain over Palm Sunday at their cottage on South Baton Rouge avenue Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wall, of Philadelphia. They will have as their guests over Easter Mrs.

6.4. Davis, of Wissahickon, and Miss
L. M. Hardwick, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Stotesbury and Mrs. Cornelius Stevenson, who were at the She burne for the week-end, returned to Phila-

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

Prederick V. Schwoebel, 1507 N. 27th st., and Laura D. Hewitt. New York city. Andrew H. Annan, Tacony, and Pauline M. Kling, Tacony, Dominick Pirrello, 512 Kauffman st., and Mary Robell, 112 Christian st. Conrad H. Lange, 1503 N. 2014 2340 Oxford st.
2136 Yeum st. and Emma 524 S. 234 st.
849 N. 11th st., and Eu327 Knorr st.
6th 2044 E. Russell st., and 2044 E. Russell st.
150 ms. Prokville, Pa., and Edna A.

E. Davis. Chicaso, and Edith H. Sinott. 4104 Spruce at the first of th

THE WEATHER

Official Forecast

WASHINGTON, April 11. For eastern Pensylvanta and New Jer-sey: Fair tonight and Wednesday; warm-er tonight; moderate south and southwest Fair weather is reported generally this oraing except for a few scattered rains the upper Lake region and in the far orthwest. The temperatures are rising Northwest. This temperatures are rising slowly and steadily in all parts of the country and are mostly above the normal in the plains States and the upper Lake region this morning, while a considerable deficiency still remains in the east Gulf and south Atlantic States, and a slight deficiency in the Middle Atlantic States. easonable conditions prevail west of the Rockies except for an excess over the mouthern plateau region.

U. S. Weather Bureau Bulletin

JOHN H. STOREY

ACCIDENT KILLS VETERAN

John H. Storey, 40 Years a Tipstaff,

Trolley Car Victim

1746 North 20th street.

John H. Storey, for more than 40 years

When he alighted from the cart at 20th for some reason reversed its motion. Mr. Storey was knocked down. His son, who was standing at the door of his home waiting for his father, saw the accident.

At first it was thought that his injuries

Ira Rheim, the motorman of the car.

hearing before Magistrate Beaton, at the Central Station, today, and was committed to await the action of the Coroner.

OFFICIAL SENT TO JAIL

Treasurer of Fraternal Order

WEST CHESTER, Pa., April 11 .-

Daniel H. Harmon, former secretary and trensurer of West Chester Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Engles, was committed to prison yesterday by order of Judge Butler for contempt of court, and is likely to face prosecution by the officials of the lodge, following this action. The Court had ordered Harmon to produce the books of the aerie showing his accounts during the last six years, but the former official claimed he had left the books in the rooms of the lodge, but they disappeared.

He produced, instead, a new book to show his accounts for the present time, but of-ficials of the organization claim the one

Police Court Chronicles

the street two other negroes were stir-ring a tank of pitch. The horse and cart

Every time that Gross wanted more cketful to a rope, and the negro on the roof pulled it up. But, unfortunately, the Finally they had considerable trouble in attaching the bucket to the rope, for the vision of each grew decidedly cloudy.

other two negroes started to run when Gross began to descend, and it's possible that they're running yet.

was separated from it he was only slightly Magistrate Pennock decided that Gross had enough trouble for one afternoon and let him go.

"'Deed am fankful eben fo' dat," said

OBITUARIES

Gross.

The horse ran off with the tar-stained ort 50,50 on sharing its contents were standing nearby.

produced shows little of interest.

Evening Ledger Free of Charge.

Cematery.

APPLEGATE.—On April 8, 1918, ALICE A., widow of Robert Applegate, aged 93 years. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the functsi services, on Wednesday, at her late residence, 1328 Brandwine st. Interment at Heightstown. Pa.

ASHENFELDER.—On April 8, 1916, NEWTON, husband of Laura Aurora Ashenfolder (not be a few and the season of the late Josiah and Annie Ashenfolder, in his 35d year. Relatives and triends are lavived to attend the funeral services, on Wednesday, at 2 p. m.

John H. Storey, for more than 40 years a tipstaff in the Orphans' Court, died last night in the Women's Homeopathic Hospital as the result of injuries, which he suffered when struck by a trolley earlier in the day. Mr. Storey was a veteran of the Civil War and hid lost a leg while fighting. He was 79 years old, and lived street and Montgomery avenue, near his home, he started to cross the tracks in the rear of the car, the motorman of which were not of a serious nature, but the veteran died within a few hours after his admission to the hospital. Refused to Produce His Accounts as

A negro, full of pitch, a wobbly cart and a balky horse was the combination which confronted Policeman Byers. The negro, who said his name was George Gross, was working on the roof of a bouse in Baynton street, Germantown. Down in the men at the tank attached a men who were working below had their attention divided. At short intervals one of them went off with a can, and they

Gross had plenty of reason to be dis-plensed. He was ignored in the dividends of the can and became impatient when half the pitch was spilled on its way up-ward. He leaned over to express his opinion of the men below when suddenly he lost his balance and slid off the roof. He collided with the dangling pitch bucket on his way down and was bathed in pitch from head to foot. He landed in the cart, which was half filled with gravel. The Cemetery.

DALLAS.—On April 10, 1919. ANNIE M., wife of Edward Dallas, and daughter of Catharine and the late 5-he Sullivan. Due notice of the funeral will be given from real-dence of her mother, 1817 S. Hicks at DIAMOND.—On April 3, 1916, MARY E., wife of Daniel T. Diamond. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral. Thursday, at 8:30 a. m., from her late residence, 2916 N. Mascher at Solenn Regulem Mass at the Visitation Church at 10 o'clock precisely. Interent at Holy Sepulchro Cemetery. The horse ran off with the tar-stained negro and his yells attracted the cop. He thought Gross was stealing the team and jumped on the cart to stop him. But the negro was full of fight and he and Byers made the gravel fly some before Gross was finally overcome.

The cop drove the prisoner to the Germantown police station. Fortunately, the pitch was only lukewarm, and when Gross was senarated from it he was only alightly

Ellen M. Pomroy

Ellen M. Pomroy, widow of Clifford Pomroy, well known from merchant, died today at the home of her daughter. MraGeorge A. Keilner, Montevista Apartments, 63d and Oxford streets. She was in her 83d year and died of heart trouble, brought on by old age, after a lingering illness. She is survived by her daughter.
The funeral will be held in the Montevista Apartments, on Thursday, at 7:30 p. m. Interment will be at Reading, where Mrs. Pomroy was an earnest worker in the Episcopal Church and had hundreds of friends because of her works of charity. She was born in Pottsville, but had spent much of her long life in Philadelphia.

home at Northampton last night, following a stroke of apoplexy. He was elected to the State Senate in 1830 and re-elected in 1834. He was 64 years old, and for many years was prominent in Democratic politics in Northampton County. Rev. G. W. Bull SCRANTON, Pa., April 11.—The Rev. G. W. Bull, pastor of the First Prenbyterian Church, this city, died early today in a hospital here. He had been ill for reveral modths.

MELIGIOUS NOTICES

Ex-State Senator E. H. Laubach ALLENTOWN, Pa., April 11.—Former State Senator E. H. Laubach died at his

These Notices Are Printed in the GHLFRY.—On April 8, 1919, ALBERT GH-FRY, husband of the late Magnito Glifry (nee Gross), in his 66th year. Relatives and friends, also Grattrode Council, No. 582, F. P. A. are invited to attend the funeral, on Wednesday, at 3 p. m., from his daughter's residence. Mrs. Edna Rush, 1100 is Fillmers, and the funeral of the vewed on vernessary at 10 a. m. Interment private, Cedar Hill Cemetery, GH.LIES.—On April 9, 1016, MARY ELIZA. IESTH, wildow of John Dallett Gilles, aged at years. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, at her tate relations. Devon, Pa., on Wednesday, at 230 p. m. Interment private, at 01d Dos. Run Freshyferian Cemetery.

GLACKIN.—On April 7, 1916, BERNARD, historial of Jennie Glackin, and son of Bridget and friends, also Tyrons Men's Society, are invited to attend funeral, Wednesday, at 7.30 a. m. from his late residence. Sin Esseny of Science Acts of Colek, Interment at Holy Septimber Cemetery.

Bepulerre Cametery.

Gof.DMANN.—On April 8, 1918, JOSEPH P.

GOLDMANN, bushand of Anna Goldmann (nee Franke), saced 61 years. Relatives and triends, also premises of Pequed Tribs. No.
ficial Society, are invited to act to the presociety Society, are invited to act to the presociety wednesday at 3 to meant biseral to the premise of the premise of the pretoolders.

Mi. Vernon Cametery Remains may be orclock.

o'clock.

GORDON.—On April 9, 1916, MARY M. GORDUN, wife of Frank Gordon and daughter of Frederick and the late George Vosiker, agred 42 years. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral services. Wednesday, at 2 y. m., at her late residence, 830d libriram sve. Interment at Mt. Mortah Competery, Friends may view remains Tueslay evening, after 8 o'clock.

terment at the Friends' Graveyard.

HACKSTIE.—On April 9, 1916, MARY, daughter of the late Louis and Elizabeth Hackstie case Bothof, in her dist year. Relatives and friends, also members of Archeonfraternity of the Holy Family and Sacred Heart Leasue, invited to funeral, Thursday, at 8:30 a.m., from her late residence, 1215 North Handship at. Solemn Requiem Mans at 10 a.m., at 81, Peter's Church. Interment at 81, Peter's Centery.

St. Peter's Cemeters.
HART.—On April 9, 1918, ELIZABETH C. wife of George Wart, in her 21st year Reia ives and friends are invited to attend th funeral services on Thursday, at 2 p. m. at her late readence, 3125 Janney st. In terment at Dakand Compters. Remain

HAZARD,—At Slerra Madre, Cal., on April 5, 1919. SAMUEL, HAZARD, son of the late Samuel snd Hanche Crissy Hazard Funeral services will be held at M. Luke's Chorch, Germantown, on Wednesday, the 12th 18th. at 3:30 p. m. Internent private.

HECK.—At his residence, 1329 Girard ave., on April 9, 10:16, Wildlad H. HECK, Jr., husband of Clara H. Heck, telatives and rushing of Grace Council, No. 631, Jr., O. 1. A. M. are invited to attend the functional services, on Wednesday, at 11 a. m., at the Oliver H. Bair Huiding, 1820 Chestnut at, interment private, Hemilus may be viewed at 1829 Chestnut St., Tuesday, from 7 to 10 p. m.

O'Reefe, 1412 S. Hanson st. Solemn Mass of Requiem at St. Francts de Sales Church, at 10 a. m. Interment at Holy Gross Cem-

REANE, -On April 8, 1916, BRIDGET, of James J. Keans and daughter of the Helley, On April 9, 1918, SUE P. belove wite of Joseph F. Kelley and daughter of Mary and the late James McDevitt. Du-notics of funeral will be given, from he-late residence, Linden ave., Lindenwold invited to attend funeral. Thursday, at 8:30 a.m. from his late residence, 1221 W. Sasquehanna as. Solemn Resulem Mass at Our Ledy of Mercy, at 10 a.m. Interment Hely Cross Cametery. Boston papers please copy.

RUNDS.—At the residence of her daughter, Mrs. L. MacFarland. 1018. W. Erle ave., on April 9, 1916. Elizahletti Kulins (nee Waltman), esed 92 years. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services. Tuesday, at 8 p. m., at the Oliver H. Hair Bullding, 1820 Chestnut st. Interment at Mount Joy. Pa. Tork papers wheas a rony.

MEREDITH.—Suddenly, on April 8, 1816. ELIZABETH S., widow of the Rev. John F. Meredith, in the Slet year of her age. Rela-tives and friends are invited to attend the fumeral services, at the residence of her son. Harry S. Meredith, 2226 N. Van Pelt at. or Wednesday, at 2 p. m. precisely. Interment at MI. Moriah Cemetery.

Cross Cemetery.

WILLIN.—On April 5, 1916, ISABILLIA, wife of Edwin Mullin. Relatives and friends, also Lengue of the Sacred Heart of Ciesu, are invited to arrend funeral, from her late residence, 1858 Wylle at, (19th and Brown), Wednesday, at 8,30 a. m. Solemn Regulern Mass at Church of Gesu at 10 o'clock Interment at Holy Cross Cemetery. Fleure omit flowers.

MURRAY.—On April 7, 1916, CATHARINE MURRAY (nee Friel), wife of Michael Murray. Bulatives and friends also Legaue of neral will be given.

NAFZGER.—On April 9, 1916, CHARLES, husband of Mary Nafzger (new Davidson). Relatives and friends, also Phila, Lodge, No. 54, L. O. C. M., and Lawrence Scelal, are invited to attend funeral, on Thursday, at 1 p. m., from his late residence, 2538 North Lawrence at, Remains may be viewed on Wednesday, from 7 to b p. m. Interment private, at Northwood Cemetery. Automobile funeral.

PHELAN (nee O'Mara).—On April 8, 1916, BRIDGET, wife of Matthew Phelan, aged 27 years. Relatives and friends are invited to attend theory, on Thursday, at 8:30 a.m., from her late residence, 3513 Narth 7th at, Salema Mass of Regulern at 8t. Veronica's Church at 10 a.m. Interment Holy Com-

Papers please copy.

R3DKE.—On April 8, 1916, MICHAEL, husband of Iva Radke, aged 43 years, Relatives and friends, also tripdesburg Lodge, No. 37, L. O. O. F. and Macanopes Stamm, So. 63, U. O. R. M.; John P. Mathieu Yearly Benefichi Association, are invited to attend funeral, Wednesday, at 2 p. m., from his late residence, 2535 Orthodox 8t., Frankford, at 3 p. m., at German Latheran Church, Frankford, interment at Oakland Cemetery, Hernalms may be viewed Tuesday, from 8 to 10 p. m.

SCHWEIZER.—On April 9, 1916, WILHEL-MINA, widow of Frederick and daughter of Margaret and late Frederick Schweizer, agod 39 years. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral, on Thursday, at 2 p. m.

DEATES

Water Bureaus, are invited to attend fu-heral, Thursday, at 2 p. m., from his late residence, 5321 Cresson st., Falls of Schugh-Elll. Services in Church of St. James the Loss, at 3 p. m. interment Mt. Vornon Con-eters, Friends may view remains Wednes-

A Worthy Newspaper

The PUBLIC LEDGER is a clean newspaper. It has character and can be read with freedom by boys and girls. It stands as a protest against that journalism which flaunts the details of crime and social disorder in the face of youth and decency. Taste is a habit, and habits are acquired early in life. A newspaper that retails, unwholesome things under the guise of "news" is impairing the taste and creating a morbid appetite for a kind of reading matter that disgraces the profession of journalism.

The PUBLIC LEDGER aims to keep clean all over-in its advertising as well as in its news and editorial columns. It does not and will not publish improper advertisements, details of crime or scandal, nor trivialities for the unthinking.

PUBLIC LEDGER