BOARD OF CENSORS HPHELD BY RULING OF STATE SUPREME COURT

Opinion by Justice Von Mischzisker Holds Common Pleas Erred in Overriding Breitinger

"VIRTUE" FILM AS TEST

The Supreme Court today, in an opinion by Justice von Moschaisker, sustained the appeal of the Pennsylvania State Board of appeal of the Pennsylvania State Board of Censors, taken by Deputy Attorney General Kun, from the decision of Court of Common Pleas No. 2, which, in the case of the motion picture film, "Virtue," decided, after viewing the photoplay in the courtroom, that the Board of Censors' indigment in ordering certain eliminations was "minute and far fetched," and without merit, but falled to find that the censors had been guilty of any arbitrary or oppressive abuse of discretion.

19-YEAR-OLD DRUG USER TELLS STORY HOW BOY FRIEND DIED OF HEROIN

Pale but self-possessed, a 19-year-old boy faced Magistrate Beaton at Central Station this afternoon and, according to the police, calmly confessed himself a drug user and described the part he had played in the circumstances preceding the death of a 15-year-old acquaintance from the effects of heroin. Raiph Miller, 19, of 3220 North Broad street, the witness-prisoner, was held without ball to await the action of Coroner Knight. Izzy Ginsberg, 24 years old, and Harry Provan, 21 years old, who were arrested at 803 North years old, who were arrested at $03 North 11th street today, were also held.

Louis Erdlich, of 342 South 3d street, arrested on suspicion, was released on the homicide charge, but was rearrested on a warrant issued by the Federal courts on a charge of carrying forbidden drugs. Linda Martin, 23 years old, captured in he North 11th street house shortly after the North 11th street house shortly after midnight, was discharged after a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Pennock. Howard Smith, of 731 East Clearfield street, whose death in the Samaritan Hospital from an overdose of heroin occurred yesterday, was the victim of the tragedy for which his young companion and the other prisoners were arraigned today. WITNESS CHEWED GUM.

Miller, on the witness stand, chewed baffled efforts to photograph him by hold-ing his hat before his face while he was recounting the details of his acquaintance "I met Ralph Smith on Saturday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, at Kensington and Allegheny avenues," he testified. "We played craps for a couple of hours and then went to my home. I said to Smith: Tm going downtown to buy some heroin. He suggested going along, so we went together. By accident we ran across a man I know as Tom' at 5th and Vine streets. He had no heroin, but sent me with a note to Izzy Ginsberg. Ralph Miller in Magistrate Beaton's Court Describes Last Night He and Howard Smith Were Together

BOUGHT "DOPE" FOR $6

To Jay Ginsberg.

"Taxy didn't have any either, so he wrote a note to a man named "Lou." which I took to a poolroom on 8th street near Cheatnut. The note read: Give this boy one bottle of stuff. Then the number 6, which meant $8, the price.

"In the poolroom I met 'Happy' Provan and Lou." Frovan went to a restaurant and telephoned to Izzy. I heard him ask, 'Is the Kid all right to give a bottle of stuff tor Then he gave me the bottle and I paid him $8.

"Smith and I walked to 10th street. On our way up 10th street, between Filbert our way up 16th street, between Filbert and Arch streets, Smith asked me for a spiff of heroin. I opened the bottle and we took about four grains apiece. Afterward we took a car to go home. On our way Smith was taken sick."

THREE TIMES TOGETHER. In cross-examination Miller said he met mith on three occasions. The first time was at a moving picture theatre, the sec-ond at Miller's home and the last occasion their final meeting. Erdiick was arrested on suspictor being the "Lou" named by Miller, but the police falled to connect him with the posi-room episode. Prior to his arrest, the others were taken into custody in a raid made by the police on a house at 803 North 11th street. The Federal authorities said they be lieved the heroin was obtained through a peddler, and were working on the suppo-sition that the boys distributed it to their young friends. Their acquaintances in the neighborhood will be questioned. Ginsberg, one of the men arrested, was confronted with another charge, that of suspicion of burglary, when he was ar-raigned for a hearing before Magistrate raigned for a hearing before Magistrate Pennock. Detective Lowrey testified that Ginsberg disposed of two gold watches, which were a portion of the proceeds of a robbery at the house of H. G. Robbins 2210 Bainbridge street, on March 14. Ginsberg said he bought the watches from a man outside of a poolroom on 8th street near Sansom. On this charge he was held in $800 bail for a further hearing on April 19.

The Federal and city authorities said

Smith was one of the youngest drug users ever reported in this city. They also expressed the fear that other youths may be addicted to the habit. For several weeks the police of the Belgrade and Clearfield streets station have been on the trail of a crowd of boys, ranging in age from 15 to 20 years, who are using drugs.

J., who were arrested on Saturday night charged with having dope in their possessions. sion, were also held in $400 bail by Magis-trate Pennock today for a further hearing next Monday. Policemen Hicks and Pa-chell, of the vice squad, testified that when they went to the Spring atreet house Watson, who was in Sullivan's room, threw about thirty packages of the drug out of the back window.

PENNSYLVANIA MEETS HARVARD AT LACROSSE

Teams Play on Franklin Field in Spite of Bad Weather

In spite of the wet condition of the grounds and the rain which fell all afternoon, the University of Pennsylvania and Harvard lacrosse teams played on Frank-n Field. Harvard was weakened by the absence f Captain O'Neill, who was injured in the game last Saturday against Swarth-ore, resulting in a 4-4 tie. Only a small crowd was present at the ntest this afternoon. Harvard, at the end of the first half, soked like the winner, as goals by Per-ons, Franzes, Hubbard and Sullivan gave the Crimson an advantage of 4 to 0.

have shown to date I think we have a better ball team than there has been in the National League in several years, but it might not look so good later on. "Our pitching staff is stronger than ever and there is more offensive strength. As the defense is just as good as ever, I see no reason why we should fail down, as the fighting spirit and nerve of the players I have in the line-up has never been questioned. We are carrying about seven men more than the National League player-limit rule allows and it is going to be hard to cut the squad down without be hard to cut the squad down without parting with a few players I would like to keep. This task is so hard I really do not know who will be allowed to go, but I do know that there will be two or three men who will not be passed up by other National League teams. That will give you an idea how strong I believe my team is, but I am not claiming the pennant nor roasting other teams."

"How is Bill James' arm coming along? Do you think he will ever be able to come back?" we asked the "Miracle man."

"You saw how bad he looked at Miami and I want to watch him closely tomorrow. You will see the greatest difference imaginable in James" general condition. He is not trying to cut loose and will not be allowed to until the warm weather arrives. rives.

"I expect to have Fred Mitchell back with me after Harvard closes its season. Mitchell is coaching Harvard with great success and I think he will bring James around in fine shape. Mitchell will know when James is ready to go to the mound and when he does you can bet he will be the James of old or close enough to it, to win a lot of games. You can count upon James coming back and the Braves play-ing strong, aggressive ball, but I am not claiming the pennant."

is well known as the Editor of The Ladies' Home JOURNAL. But the editorial part of the magazine does not begin and end with him. Back of him are 32 salaried editors—each the very pick of his or her profession. So that when a woman asks a question of THE Home Journal she does not get a haphazard answer. That answer goes to her direct from the best authority in that particular field. Let her ask a piano question and losef Hofmann answers it: a question about a book and Hamilton W. Mabie writes her; a question about a baby and the two best baby doctors in New York -both women-answer her; an entire board of Domestic Science experts is at the disposal of the questioner in the new housekeeping.

That is why 663,000 women wrote to The Ladies' Home Journal last year and each got an answer, prompt and direct: straight to the point and by mail -at once.

It is a clearing-house of the most authoritative information that is back of The Ladies' Home Journal. It took 25 years to build it up, but that is why the magazine has reached its great and famous position. It is the magazine to which women instinctively turn and they know from actual experience that they can safely do so.
