FUR CAPES WILL BE IN THE MODE THIS SPRING AND SUMMER
This concoction, with fur tie and balls, is made of moleskin lined with rose and gray striped silk.

WHEN THE INDOOR HORSE SHOW OPENS at the Third Regiment Armory, April 27, Mrs. Walter C. Hancock (at left), who is its prime mover, will be there; also Dr. Thomas G. Ashton's pony, "Supreme" (above), winner of many blues, and "King's Choice" (right), handsome walk, trot and canter mare from the stables of John P. Crozer, Upland, Pa.

CLASS OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA MOTHERS WHO ARE LEARNING HOW TO PLAY
Children and their mothers both go to school together at the Moore Street Mission, where 300 or more of them take lessons from half a dozen young women.

SERBIAN CROWN PRINCE AT THE ALLIES' WAR CONFERENCE IN PARIS
Prince Alexander, once known as "the firebrand of the Near East," stands in the centre of the foreground. Behind him stands the Serbian Premier, M. Pachitch, wearing the long, gray beard.
