GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERA
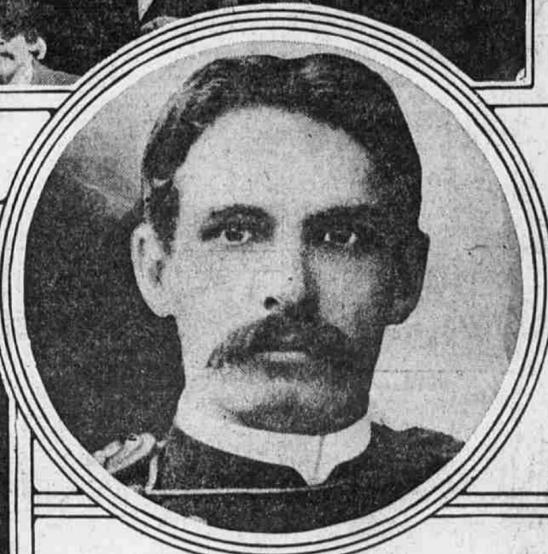

Photo by Staff Photographer.

VISITORS TO THE SHORE FILL BOARDWALK EARLY THIS YEAR
This Easter week picture is taken as an indication that Atlantic City will see its greatest season during the coming months. You are a poor searcher if you can't find yourself or some one you know in this crowd.

Photo by International Film Service.
NOW SHE DOESN'T WANT TO BE A MAYORESS
On the eve of taking office, after being triumphantly elected chief executive of Sawtelle, Cal., Mrs. Ellen French Aldrich has decided the office is too high and dignified.

MAJOR FRANK TOMPKINS
Cavalry leader who, following his repulse of the Villa band which attacked Columbus, N. M., is again in the news as commander of the troops which ran into the brush with Carranzistas at Parral.

POLICEMAN REWARDED FOR ARREST OF THIEVES OF PET ANIMALS
Left to right are Lieutenant Harry J. Benner, Officer Martin Manion, City Treasurer McCoach and Mrs. John H. Easby, who presented to Manion a gold watch yesterday for his work in obtaining the conviction of many dog thieves.

Samuel Chase Day

Photo by Chappel.
SWEDISH ART ON VIEW AT ACADEMY OF THE FINE ARTS
A painting of a Scandinavian girl in winter costume, by Anders Zorn, is one of 165 exhibited here after being shown at the Panama Exposition. There are, besides, 61 prints and 24 sculptures.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
AMERICAN TROOPS ARE ENTRENCHING THEMSELVES AT COLONIA DUBLAN, MEXICO
Though it is asserted that this digging at the Mormon town is only for "field practice," there is a belief that these earthworks are being constructed with a view to possible emergencies that may occur any time now that feeling in Mexico is high.

SAMUEL CHASE GETS A BIRTHDAY BOUQUET
This signer of the Declaration of Independence from Maryland was remembered yesterday by Miss Margaret Fleming, who placed a sheaf of carnations over his portrait in Independence Hall.