

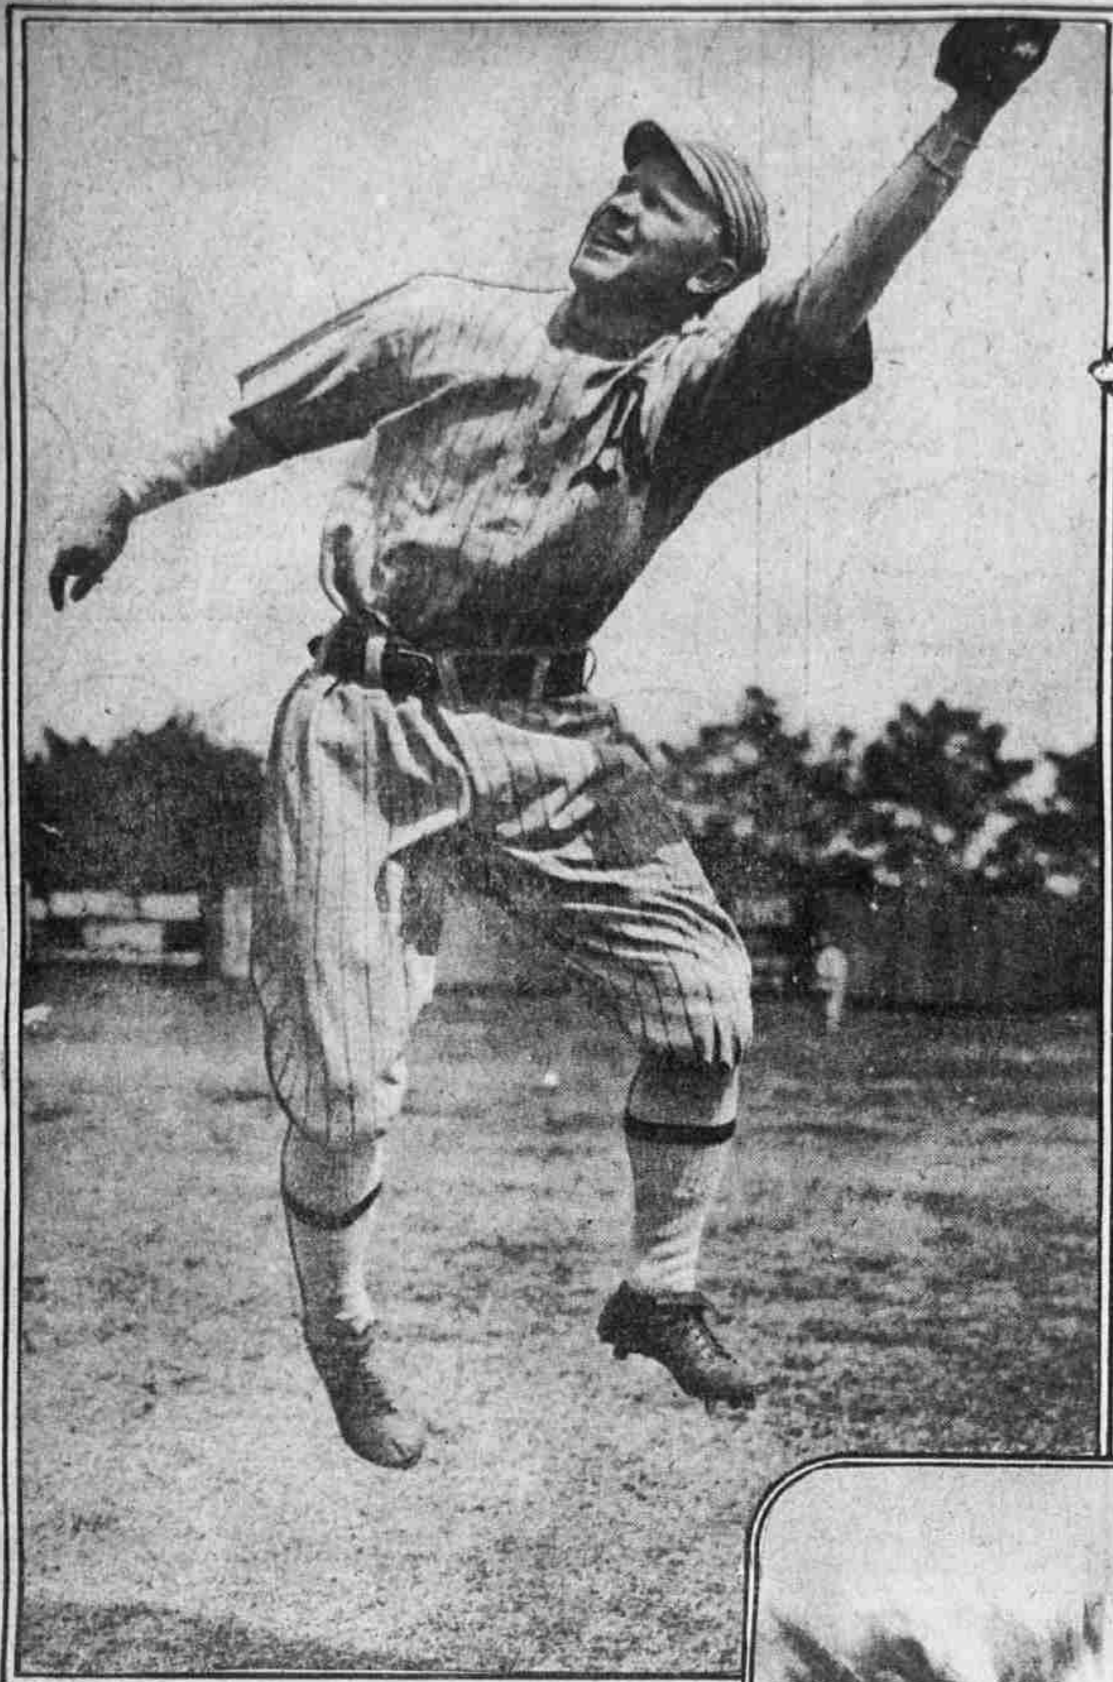

GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERA

GONNIE MACK FLASHES A NEW STAR
Young Witt is burning things up around short for the White Elephants, who open at home today, and has been one of the season's sensations in the baseball world.

Photo by Harper B. Smith.
PHILADELPHIA'S FASHION BEAUTIES TAKE AIRING ON THE BOARDWALK
The exhibition of styles organized by the Walnut Street Business Association has proved a big attraction at Atlantic City, not to mention the models themselves.

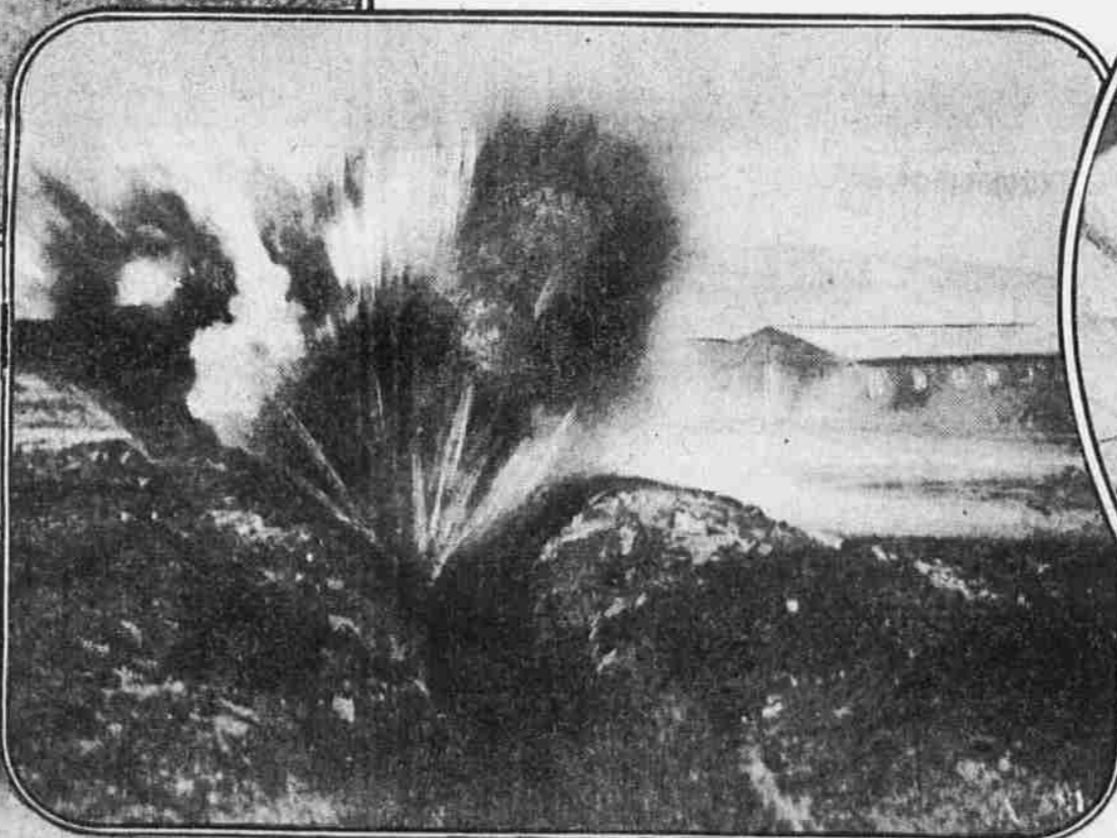

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
MINE WRECKS TRENCH "SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE"
Mining operations are carried out by sappers and engineers, who laboriously cut a tunnel from their own line to that of the enemy. A well-timed charge sometimes blows scores of men to pieces.

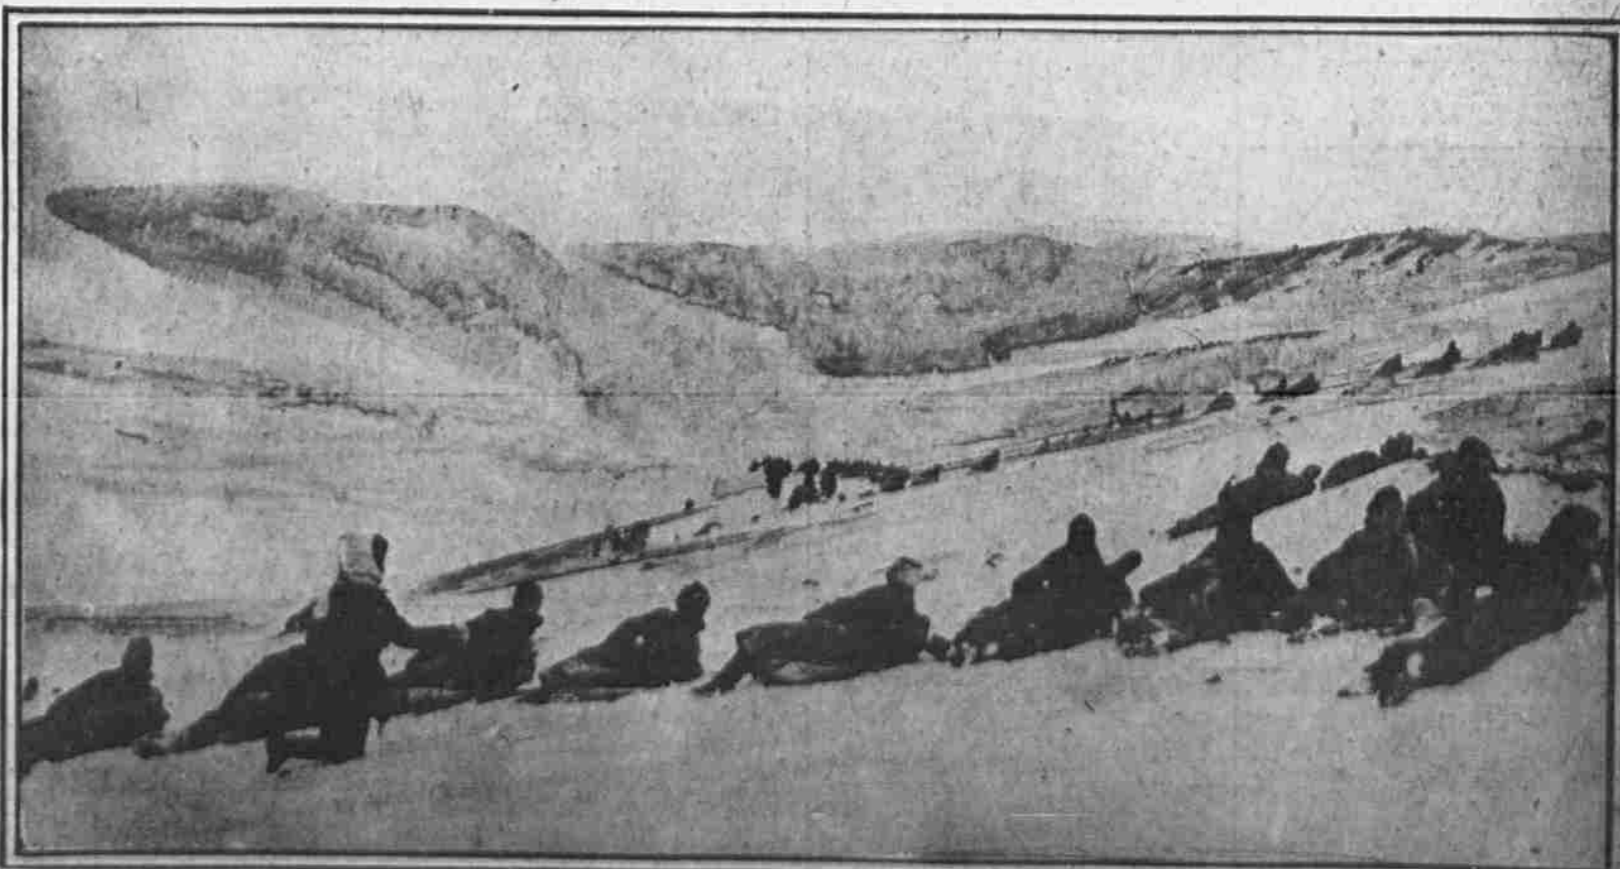

Photo by Modem.
ODD TRADE TAKEN UP BY WOUNDED SOLDIER
It would be hard to imagine a British "Tommy" or an American "doughboy" taking up such an occupation, but this convalescent French "poilu" goes at lacemaking like an old hand.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
THE DUGOUT DEVELOPS IN MEXICO

Such refuges are a familiar sight in war-torn Europe, but it is a new feature of United States army life. It was caused not by bursting shells, but a burning sun.

RUSSIAN TROOPS CRAWL UP HILLS OF SNOW FOR FINAL RUSH ON ERZERUM

First picture from the scene of operations in northwestern Asia Minor, showing Grand Duke Nicholas' soldiers from the Caucasus preparing for the assault which resulted in the downfall of the ancient city which the Turks had converted into a military stronghold.