

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

SATURDAY
April 22, 1916

EASTER, OF COURSE, ALWAYS SHOWS US WHAT IS NEW AND MODISH IN THE WORLD OF CLOTHES

Photos by Underwood, H. D. Smith and Staff Photographers.

THE FROCKS, GOWNS, COSTUMES, HATS, SHOES, FURS, NECKWEAR AND FURBELAWS THEY ARE WEARING FOR EASTER THIS YEAR AS REVEALED BY THE CAMERA

At the top is a line of Philadelphia-made styles as worn this week at Atlantic City in the Walnut Street Business Association's parade. Below is a glimpse on the Boardwalk revealing the importance of trim footwear this season. Remaining are several photographs of well-dressed women, made at various places in this city, New York and at the shore.