PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARIES IN 3 STATES TODAY

Massachusetts, New Jersey and Ohio Are Holding Elections

WILSON PARTY'S CHOICE

Three States-Massachusetts, New Jersey and Ohio-are holding presidential primary elections today. President Wilson has no opposition on the Democratic ticket. In Massachusetts the issue whether the delegates shall be instructed for Colonel Roosevelt or go unpledged. A split delegation is predicted.

In New Jersey the interest centres in four of the 12 districts. In these districts one set of candidates favor Colonel Roosevelt. The other set is unpledged. There is one candidate who favors Justice Hughes.

In Ohio, ex-Senator Theodore E. Burton is the "favorite son," although the eleventh-hour entry of Henry Ford's name will cause many voters to cast their ballots for the automobile manufacturer.

NEGRO PREACHER FIGURES IN NEW JERSEY FIGHT

Only State-wide Contest in Today's Primary Centres Around Him

TRENTON, April 25 .- With President Wilson casting his ballot at Princeton. New Jersey's primaries for the election of delegates to the Democratic and Republican National Conventions will be held from 1 o'clock this afternoon until 9 o'clock tonight.

Marked by the absence of interesting contests, the vote generally is expected to prove a light one. The only fight of Statewide interest is that of the Rev. Dr. I. W. L. Roundtree, a negro of this city, for election as a Republican alternate dele-

Announcement has been made that some of the party leaders, including David Baird, of Camden, have declared for Mr. Roundtree. It may be, however, that they are playing with him to keep in line the negro vote. It is regarded as significant Lat advertisements published in Newark for the "regular Republican candidates" from the 8th, 5th and 16th Congressional districts have left out Mr. Roundtree's

Only in the 2d, 9th and 10th Congress ional districts will any direct sentimen be obtained on Theodore Rossevelt.

W. F. Cozart, of Atlantic City, one of Republican candidates in the 2d district, has declared for Roosevelt, and William A. Lord and Henry C. Hines are running as Roosevelt men in the 9th district. Charles W. Walker and Charles H. wart are the Roosevelt men in the 10th

There is also one Hughes candidate, Franklin W. Fort, a son of John Franklin Fort, in the 9th district.

The dog leaped upon him, bit his hand and then pulled him to the sidewalk with such force that his head was badly lacerated. Policeman Flynn, of the 19th and Fitzwater streets station, heard the boy's cries and drove off the infuriated dog. He fired several shots at the animal as it sped up the street, but none of them hit the mark.

The boy was taken to the Polycinic Hospital.

LOST CHILD FOUND BY PHONE GIRL. DUBBED "LITTLE WIRE DETECTIVE"

Miss May Sibel, of Keystone Exchange, Germantown, Restores Dorothy Henderson to Parents

Little Girl Wanders From Home With Boy Companion and Is Found in Police Station

To Miss May Sibel, 6508 Stenton avenue, operator at the North Exchange of the Keystone Telephone Company, 22 Collum street, belongs the credit of re-storing 5-year-old Dorothy Lillian Henderson, 4428 Germantown avenue, to the arms of her mother after the child had been missing from her home for more than 11 hours.

The Germantown police asked Miss Sibel to aid them after they had spent hours in a fruitiess effort to locate the parents of the child. Miss Sibel worked the wires of her exchange, calling up scores of drug stores and grocery stores along Germanian Company of the child assertion of the child of the control of the child of the ch mantown avenue, asking if a child answer-ing to little Dorothy's description was missing from the neighborhood. Finally she located the frantic mother, who hurried to the police station and claimed her little girl. Because of her success, House Sergeant Whalen, of the Germantown station, has given Miss Sibel the hon-orary title of "Little Wire Detective."

Little Dorothy is known as "Sunshine in her neighborhood because of her sunny disposition. She was dressed in a red coat, a white dress, white stockings and a hat covered with daises yesterday afternoon when her mother sent her into the front yard to play. Dorothy was specially happy, for early in the day her father had given her 5 cents to spend, and the coin reposed in a pocket in her coat.

Soon a boy about Dorothy's own age came along the street and stopped to chat with her. She had never seen him before, but he seemed to be a nice little boy. His face and hands shone from a recent ap-plication of soap and water, and he wore a clean white collar and a blue bow tie. ed a nicke, which he ex-
