

COLONEL ELIMINATED BY PRIMARY RESULTS, SAY REPUBLICAN FOES

Roosevelt's Defeat in Massachusetts and Returns from Ohio and Jersey Called Conclusive Proof

HAS NOT 200 DELEGATES

Four Hundred and One Out of 687 Uninstructed—Hughes Urged to Speak

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Regular Republicans were jubilant today. They insisted that after yesterday's primaries in Massachusetts, Ohio and New Jersey there is no doubt that they will control the national convention when it meets in Chicago. They insisted that yesterday's results indicated conclusively that Colonel Theodore Roosevelt will not be a factor in the convention.

To date there have been elected 687 delegates to the Republican convention and of this number 401 are uninstructed. Carefully compiled figures here are declared to show that the Roosevelt strength in the convention will be less than 200—not sufficient to make any serious trouble for the regulars.

Indiana's candidate for the nomination, former Vice President Fairbanks, was said to be gaining strength in the South today, and the political experts expect him to lead the field on the first ballot at least. Many Southern delegates, who heretofore have been counted for Burton, are now said to be turning toward the Hoosier camp.

Another effort is to be made to smother out Justice Hughes. He has been asked to write to a friend, defining exactly his position, but those closest to the Justice insisted today that he would not do so in any circumstances, anyway not until the very eve of the convention.

Although President Wilson has had and probably will have no opposition for re-nomination, his action in the New York and Chicago postmaster appointments has aroused strong feeling. Senator Lewis has let it be known that he probably will oppose the confirmation of Dixon C. Williams, and Senator O'Gorman already has demanded that Joseph Johnson's name be substituted for that of Robert F. Wagner, who has declined to be a candidate.

CAMDEN EDUCATION BOARD SEEKS MONEY FOR SCHOOL

The Camden Board of Education will adhere to the original plans for the proposed high school building and has decided it is imperative an additional $100,000 be provided for the structure. A resolution has been adopted asking City Council to provide for a bond issue for this amount, making the total for the new building at Forest Hill Park a half-million dollars. It is said that an ordinance will be introduced at tomorrow's meeting.

authorizing the issue of $100,000 of additional school bonds.

The members of the Board of Education have been considering this problem for some weeks and it was manifest the original budget of $400,000 was inadequate, owing to the great increase in the cost of building material. Finally, it was decided that, if Camden is to build another high school, it must be in keeping with the rapid growth of the city, and also it should be of sufficient architectural beauty to add to rather than detract from its surroundings at Forest Hill.

JERSEY REPUBLICANS SHOW PREFERENCE FOR ROOSEVELT

Names Written In on Ballots Give Hughes Poor Second

TRENTON, N. J., April 26.—Partial returns from the presidential primary show that many Republicans wrote their presidential choice on the ballots, notwithstanding that a ruling of the Attorney General declared that such a choice could not be indicated.

Roosevelt and Hughes were the men named by the voters, and the Roosevelt supporters outnumbered those for Hughes by two to one. No petition had been filed for any Republican presidential candidate.

In some districts election boards refused to count the ballots on which the names were written. In some of the rest the ballots were counted without tabulating the presidential choice and in others the choice was recorded and returned to municipal clerks for what it might be worth.

It is estimated that outside of the contested districts, in Hudson and Essex Counties and the second district, made up of Atlantic, Burlington, Cumberland and Cape May Counties, not more than twenty per cent. of the total vote was polled. In districts where there were contests, and these were nearly all on the Republican side, the organization candidates apparently won easily.

This means the election of Richard K. More, a retired glass manufacturer, of Bridgeton, and Harry A. Knight, of Medford, as National delegates from the second district.

In Hudson County the Yardon, or regular, candidates were elected by a two-to-one vote. In the 9th and 10th Districts, both in Essex County, the unpledged candidates also won.

Charles D. White, a beach-front hotelman, carried Atlantic City for alternate. A fight was made on him by the Riddle forces. Returns indicate that James A. Lightfoot and W. F. Conant, both colored, lead in the vote in Atlantic City for delegate. They are Roosevelt candidates and were backed by supporters of Mayor Riddle in the City Commission fight. They have carried 25 out of the 43 precincts of the city. Roosevelt led as the choice for President.

The organization candidates of both parties for delegates at large were chosen without contests. The Republican "Big Four" is composed of David Baird, of Camden; Newton A. K. Hughes, this city; chairman of the Republican State Committee; Hamilton F. Kean, Elizabeth, and Ira A. Kip, Jr., of East Orange.

The Democratic delegates at large elected are Governor Fielder, Edward E. Grosscup, Wenonah; Senator Hughes, and Representative Thomas J. Scully.

The Democratic voters endorsed President Wilson as a candidate for re-nomination.

FORD AND ROOSEVELT FAIL TO CUT FIGURE IN OHIO VOTE

Colonel Shows Least Strength—German Sections Cut Wilson

COLUMBUS, O., April 26.—Only the members of the political organizations went to the polls yesterday according to the scattered returns from all parts of the State. They voted for Theodore E. Burton as the favorite son of the Republicans and gave the Democratic vote to President Wilson.

President Wilson didn't get all the Democratic votes, however. In German districts in some of the larger cities Mr. Wilson's name was scratched from the ticket. In many cases the scratching voters failed to write in other names.

An attempt to form a State organization to write in the name of Henry Ford both as Democratic and Republican candidate for President came to little. Ford may average a vote of two to the precinct and may have 5000 in the State. Ford was the choice of a combination of single taxers and extreme pacifists. They endeavored to promote his candidacy by the endless chain-letter plan.

While the vote of Ford was small, the written-in vote for Colonel Roosevelt was even smaller. The Ford and Roosevelt vote in many districts was ignored by the election officials, acting on advice from the Secretary of State.

Vice President Marshall was voted the choice of Ohio Democrats for re-nomination by a majority of four or five to one over Frank S. Monnett, ex-Attorney General. Monnett also ran for delegate-at-large and made a creditable showing.

The Democratic delegates-at-large will be ex-Governors Judson Harmon, James E. Campbell and James M. Cox and Senator Atlee Pomerene. Of the four, Cox is running ahead and Pomerene last. The vote is held to indicate that Cox will be nominated by the Democrats for Governor.

Interest centered in the Republican contest for delegates-at-large. Senator Warren Harding is leading, with Governor Frank B. Willis, who was the centre of the fight in an effort of insurgents to keep him from attending the Republican National Convention, second. Willis was cut in many Republican districts, but William Cooper Procter, wealthy soap manufacturer of Cincinnati, and John J. Sullivan, former Progressive, also were heavily cut, causing Willis to run second.

The vote was small and probably will not exceed 200,000 in the State. Cincinnati had the heaviest turnout, due to approval of a bond issue of $5,000,000 for a rapid transit system of transportation for the city.

BISHOP BOWMAN WED 60 YEARS AGO TODAY

With His Wife, He Celebrates in Allentown—Both Are 80 Years Old

ALLENTOWN, Pa., April 26.—Bishop and Mrs. Thomas Bowman, of the Evangelical Church, today celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding. The good old Bishop is an apostolic descendant of Peter Cartwright, who has the reputation of having been America's greatest evangelist. Billy Sunday to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bishop Bowman was a clerk in his father's store at Bowmanstown, near here, until the age of 19, when he married Diana Young. The regular preacher being absent one time at meeting on account of sickness, young Bowman was called upon to officiate, and from that time on he was for 50 years one of America's foremost pulpites.

One of the finest old men living anywhere today, there are traditions that Bishop Bowman, as an anti-slavery preacher before the Civil War, sometimes reinforced his religious convictions by his physical prowess.

In 1875 he was elected bishop and he continued until last year, when he decided to retire after golden service of 40 years. He saw his denomination grow to nearly a million members with property values of $25,000,000. He has presided at world's conferences in the United States, Japan, China, Germany and Switzerland. The Bishop and his good wife are both 80 years of age. On this, their diamond wedding day, they were overwhelmed with callers.

Chicago Alderman Wants to See Bacon Get All That's Coming to Him

CHICAGO, April 26.—Alderman Klaus has introduced in the City Council an ordinance changing the name of Shakespeare avenue to Bacon avenue, and that of the Shakespeare avenue police station to Bacon avenue police station.

"I'm no Shakespearean scholar," said Alderman Klaus, "but I hate to see one man get away with a thing like that forever. If Bacon wrote those plays he should get the honor we have been giving to Shakespeare."

Penrose Leaves for Pittsburgh

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 26.—United States Senator Penrose left Harrisburg this morning for Pittsburgh by automobile, after spending last night in this city. He rested quietly after his journey of yesterday, during which he made only a brief pause at Lancaster. He met a few friends last night, but it was noticeable that none of the local Republican organization leaders were among those who conferred with him. With the Senator, when he left Harrisburg, were Congressman Focht and State Senator Charles A. Snyder, of Schuylkill, candidate for Auditor General. The first stop will be made at Chambersburg, and others will be at McConnellsburg, Bedford and Greensburg.
