TWENTY-ONE-PLAYER LIMIT'RULE BECOMES EFFECTIVE ON NEXT MONDAY

NATIONAL LEAGUE CLUBS WILL PROBABLY AGAIN ABUSE

THE 21-PLAYER LIMIT RULE Majority of Teams Took Advantage of This Ridiculous Clause in Code Last Season. Effective Next Monday

E

OTHER SCHOOL GOSSIP

$\qquad$
NORTHEAST NINE
HOLDS ONE GAME
NORTHEAST NINE
HOLDS ONE GAME LEAD IN LEAGUE Victory Over Catholic High Gives Red and Black First Place

Interesting Matches Be tween Cynwyd and Phila. Cricket Club Teams

PEPPER'S POND" PESTERS PLAYERS PICKING POSIES Huntingdon Valley Golfers Find Strange Waters for Erring Shots-St. David's Pe centage Is . 000 -More Dope $\qquad$ DETAIIS WORKED OUT FOR OPENING
OF THE SEASON Schedule Arranged by Officials for Montgomery County League $\qquad$
$\qquad$
$\qquad$ ars. Ambiert. Willow Hista. Noat

$$
\pm
$$

$\qquad$ $\because 2=4=4$ mox wix nem
nem
tem or cor kibsatas. an mex mime

$2 x^{2}+2$

THE Monte Crispen story, published a few weeks ago, was so interesting, so full of present-day Philadelphia life, that immediately after its conclusion many readers requested a sequel.
In next Saturday's Evening Ledger the sequel be-gins-a new Monte Crispen story, more vivid and more realistic than the first. It is a story of the great mill district of Kensington and its peöple.

Don't miss the first instalment of this interesting story. It appears in Saturday's

Eưning eftian Tringr
Saturday' Ledger

 inrow and Bancroft and Whitted nofo in left nela for a dooble.
It was Brookiynn's nrat appe mam inde an excelleat impression. If Robinson has at laat convinced his hard-warmed up fourfaratstring pitchers for the tast three innings of the game dedspite tit fact that Brooklyn enjoyed a comfortable lead. A continuance of this sytem Hill fact that Brook

Pror to yesterday the Phila had won five consecutive games, and with Alex. ander the Great on the mound the fans wero expecting nother triumph which would trorreaso the lead of the champlons. Alexander fooled the tans by ahowing him enough to deearve the victory. Incidentally yt wan Alexanders Arst defeat of the season, and the frat tme he his been driven from the mound since last apring.

 o noxt two balls over and then the Phlly captain rolled an eany grounder to ithhaw for the third out Another philly rally was started in the ninth. With one man out, stoek alked and Bancott singled to right. Paskert. who had hit a long home-run Catcher buu Cra mero.

mes thas neason. Ho was splendialy supported in tho feild, the Mackmen playing

Andy Coakley
Oilumbia Univeral

 Watt Manager Mack, of the Athlotics, was after Watt. the second basemus, und Beck. the southaw twirler, but Andy Cokeley hai wrned them over to Hwonguro ts batting above, seo for eix sames and appeare to be a sreai Wehken pronpest but alise ta one of the best hitters and baso runners is coilegliate

EVENING LEDGER MOVIES WHICH PROVES, NIBRICKUS, THAT YOU WERE NEVER ON A "FAIR WAY" TO THE 19TH HOLE

