GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERA

RUSSIA TRIES ANOTHER WAR MINISTER
The Czar has had bad luck with previous entries, but believes he has a winner in General D. Shouvaeff, to whose aggressive spirit is ascribed the present Russian offensive.

"FOX TROTTERS" IN "POUSSE CAFE," WILMINGTON'S SOCIETY CHARITY SHOW, WHICH OPENS TONIGHT

EXPLOSION WRECKS PLANT NEAR TRENTON, N. J., KILLING THREE PERSONS
The enormous power of the blast is revealed by the broken pieces of the heavy concrete roof over the drying room of the Chandler Oilcloth Works at Yardville. Pieces of wreckage were thrown 200 feet. Six workmen were injured.

"SLIDE, (MISS) KELLY, SLIDE!"
However, the slider's name is not Kelly, but Tolson. The tense-looking young catcher is Miss Leeds. This was an exciting incident yesterday in the regular baseball game between rival teams of Yonkers University made at the Kingsessing Recreation Centre.
