

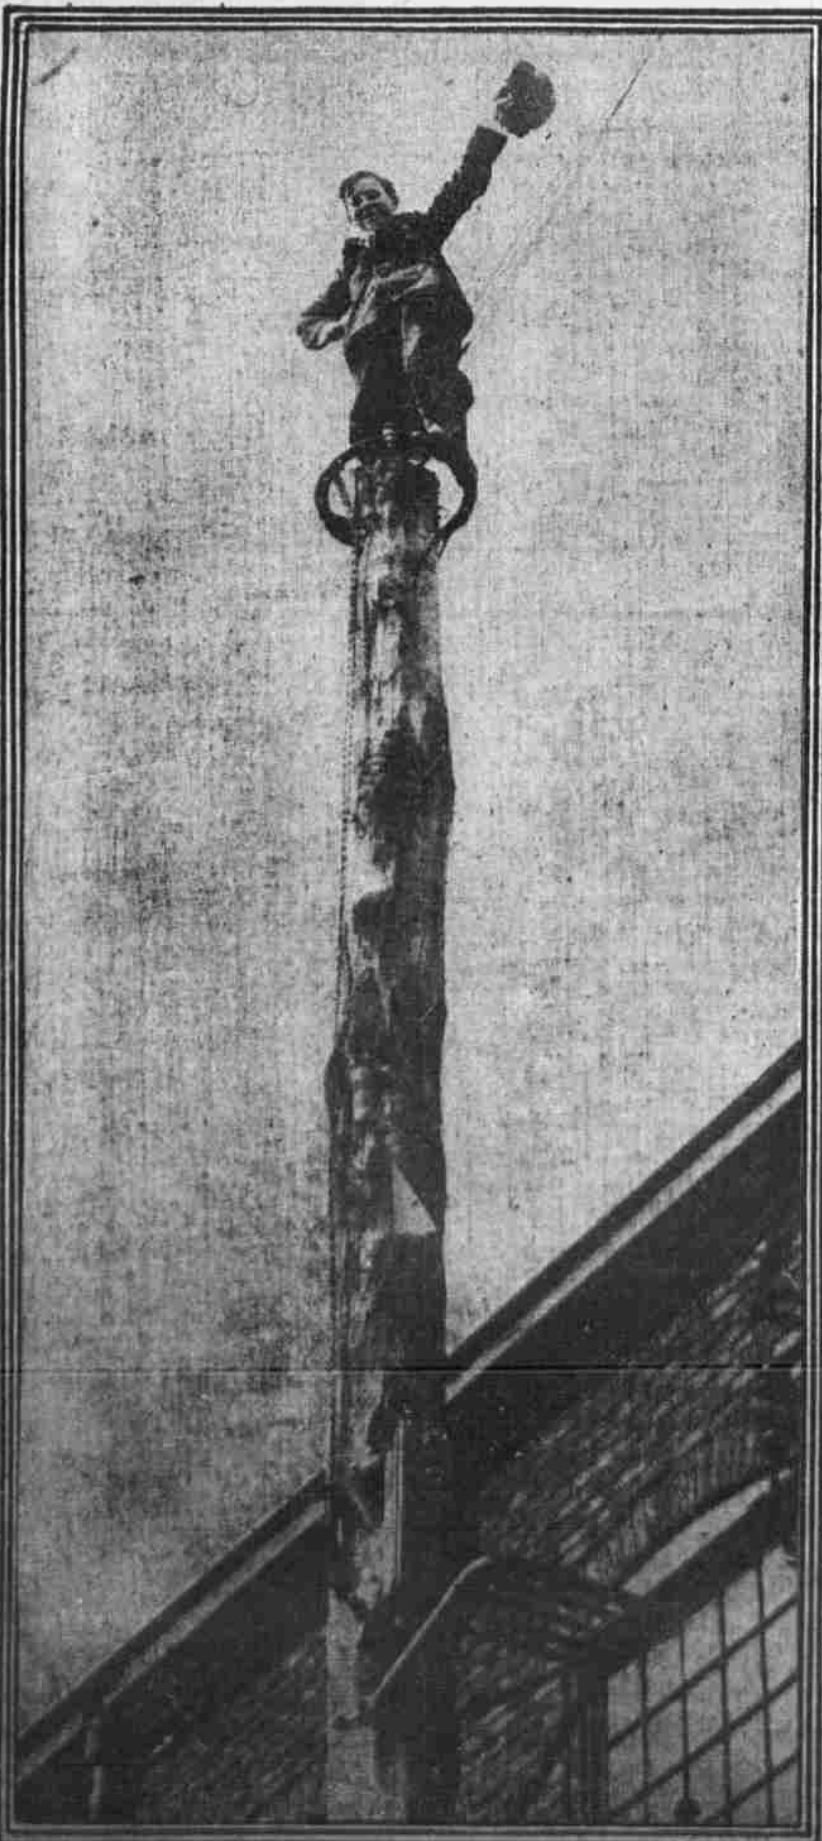

GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERA

PITTSBURGH ALSO HAS REBEL LEADER
Miss Anna Bell, who was an active participant in the strike agitations there, has been locked up, though she doesn't look very dangerous.

ONE OF THE THROGS OF STRIKERS WHICH HAS KEPT THE SMOKY CITY ON EDGE
This is one of the crowds at Braddock which steel company guards fired into, killing two and wounding more than a score.

THE STEEPJACK CRAZE IS SPREADING
Young James Kelly, 14 years old, offered to pose for this picture at 25¢ and after eleven showings he would paint City Hall at $5 a week.

FINDER OF MEEKINS BOY'S BODY
Judson Self's hubby is killing snakes, and it was while scouting for them that he came across the dead child on his farm at 70th street and Belmont road.

WOMEN WHO ARE WORKING TO ADD 50,000 MEMBERS TO RED CROSS
Groups of well-known women may be found at their headquarters in the Widener Building every day, busily sewing and rolling bandages in order to further the local membership campaign.

"MOTHER OF THE CIRCUS INSTRUCTS HER YOUNGSTERS
Mrs. Rhana Talbot has been with Barnum & Bailey's for 25 years, and as the children of performers have little opportunity for schooling, she sees to it that they get a little during off hours.
