

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

WEDNESDAY
May 17, 1916

GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERA

BELIEVED TO BE THE BEST BILLIARDIST OF HER SEX
Miss Clara Katherine Haywood, of Cynwyd, has run as high as 75 at the 14-2 balkline and has beaten many Class B players among the male experts. She has not yet reached the top of her ability, either.

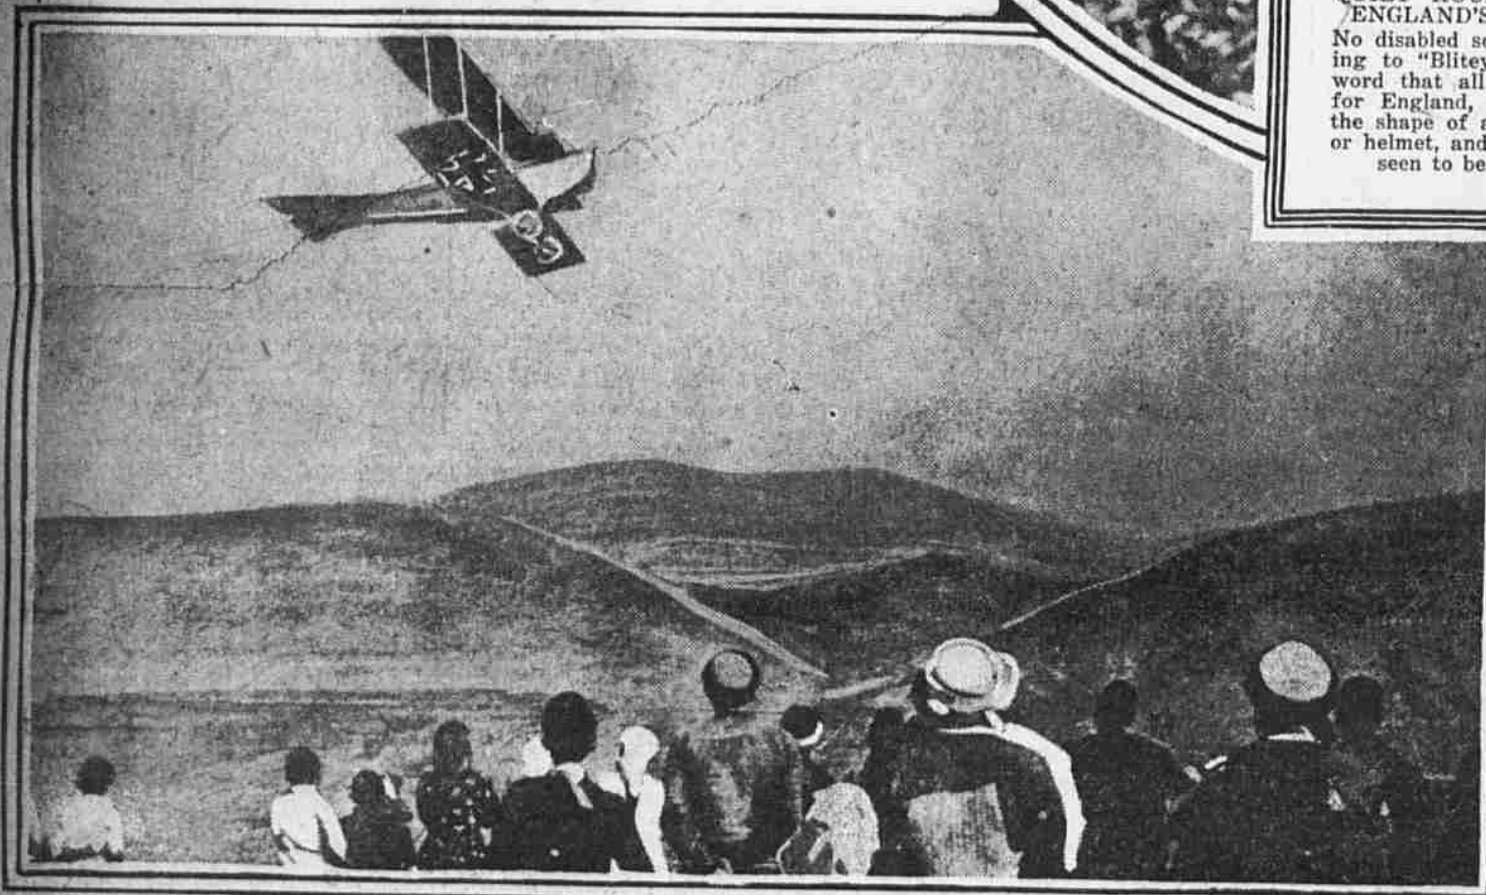

WOUNDED TOMMIES ENJOY A QUIET HOUR BESIDE ONE OF ENGLAND'S MOSSY STREAMS.
No disabled soldier thinks of returning to "Blitzey" which is the slang word that all British privates have for England, without a souvenir in the shape of a captured German cap or helmet, and two of this group are seen to be so decorated here.

ATLANTIC CITY CARNIVAL
BABY PARADE JUNE 22
ROLLING CHAIR PARADE JUNE 23
WATER PAGEANT JULY 29

PRIZE WINNER IN ATLANTIC CITY'S POSTER CONTEST
This design by Frank Guenther, of Trenton, was awarded the $25 prize by the Carnival Association for the best poster advertising the outdoor events at the shore on June 22, 23 and July 29.

PASSAGE OF AEROPLANE ASTONISHES NATIVES IN BALKANS
The population of the Balkan States is composed mostly of tillers on small farms who seldom leave their homes or see a foreigner, and the sudden projection into their midst of modern engines of war has kept them in a state of constant bewilderment.

YOUNG AMERICAN AVIATOR GETS MIXED RECEPTION FROM TEMPERAMENTAL JAPANESE
When "Art" Smith began looping the loop for Tokio crowds they overwhelmed him with plaudits, as in this picture, where the gentleman in the foreground is lauding him, but when he was late getting started at Osaka the crowd stoned him and wrecked his shed.

WOMEN OF FRANCE SHOWER ATTENTIONS ON NEWLY ARRIVED RUSSIANS
The Slav troops, four contingents of which are now in camp in the south of France getting themselves acclimated, are rescuing hordes to the women and children of the republic, who are seen here loading the new arrivals with gifts. They are powerful, strongly built fellows, as this photograph reveals.

POLICEMAN IN FOURTH WARD VIOLATES LAW HE IS THERE TO ENFORCE
The 1913 act says: "No police officer in commission, whether in uniform or in citizen's clothes, shall be within 100 FEET of a polling place during the conduct of a primary unless in the exercise of his privilege of voting or for the purpose of serving warrants or in case of disturbance of the peace." This picture was taken yesterday at Front and South streets.