NANCY WYNNE IS INTERESTED IN CORINTHIAN CLUB'S OPENING

commodore Longstreth Will Keep Open House on the Arawan, His Yacht, Which He Will Anchor in the Stream-Clubhouse Open All Season

WE ARE all looking forward to the formal opening of the Corinthian unual dinner on Saturday evening of this years Club, which will take place on Walker is president of the society. enturday afternoon. Mr. Charles Longstieth has been made commodore, to sucod George W. Childs Drexel, and Ellaor Longstreth, his very attractive daughwho is beginning to attend debutante functions, is consequently official lady of the club. Ellanor has been in mourning for the past year, and every one is glad to welcome her to the various festivities. The clubhouse will be open from 1 until To'clock, and there will be dancing most of the afternoon. A buffet supper will be served and about 400 guests will attend. one of the events of the afternoon will be the race for the Raccabout Class. Then Commodore Longstreth will keep open house on his flagship Arawan in the open stream, where she will be anchored from 2 o'clock on. Tomorrow evening Commodore Longstreth will give a dance at the yacht club in honor of his gaughter, when there will be about 69

There will be a delightful dance this evening at the Merion Cricket Club, under the auspices of the Main Line Emprgency Ald Committee, of which Mrs. Charlton Yarnall is chairman. The adult will be a fancy dress party, and a number of the women interested will give dinners before the event. I understand the fancy dress is not obligatory, but it certainly helps the galety of nations. Most persons have some fancy costume to wear, as there are so many of those kinds of parties now, so I guess most people will wear it.

Meyer Davis' Orchestra is to play for the dancing and Henry Reeves with his orchestral attachment will be on hand. He certainly is a walking band all to himself. It is all I can do to dance when he is playing because it is so fascinating to watch him. Suddenly he rings a bell with one hand or beats a drum with the other and bangs a cymbal with the third. I was about to say; anyhow, he plays some other instrument in between times. With all the rest of the noise he makes he has a Victrola going and things which make queer groans and other odd sounds Believe me, young Henry is some or chestra. He keeps dandy time, too, and to certainly an institution

I hear Mathilde Weil is about to give up her work as a photographer and intends to take a much-needed vacation She is going to close her studio by the first of June and will spend the summer in Kennebunkport and will after that live in New York, where she has taken an apartment in Stuyvesant Square. She did wonderful work and was one of the first women in the field of business, Now everywhere one goes one meets women of gentle birth in the working marts, but it was not so usual when Miss Weil started, and she, having the courage of he convictions, carried her art fato busi tess and gained the reputation of being one of the best photographers in the city. She does not intend to take the work up in New York. I have a slight suspicion she will turn to things literary now that she has decided to take some time to herself. NANCY WYNNE.
