splendid Festival of Apollo, to Be Given on the Grounds of the Lovering Place on West School House Lane in Germantown in the First Week of June

DELIGHTFUL festival will be given spring before leaving for the shore, where they will spend the months of July and A at the Lovering Place on West School House lane, Germantown, on Saturtay afternoon, June 3, A procession of greek youths and maldens will assist the priests and priestesses of Apollo, and the "Masque of Persephone" will be presented by the children of the Southwark Neighborhood House. Besides all this, the athletic contests will be under the direction of Michael Dorizas. The contests will consist of running and wrestling matches and throwing the discus and javelia. Besides this, the Delphic Orncle will prophesy the future. The festival is to be given for the benefit of the Southwark Neighborhood House and Southwark Day Nursery. In case of rain, as in most of these out-of-door affairs, the party will be held, not in this case, on the day following, but on the Saturday follewing, namely, June 10.

The committee in charge of the whole effair includes Mrs. Samuel B. Jarden, chairman; Miss Marguerite Lautenbach, secretary; Mrs. R. Marshall Truitt, treasurer; Mrs. M. M. Adams, Miss Josephine Fox, Miss Marion Grant, Miss Rosamond Hoyt, Mrs. Edward Hacker, Mrs. Walter C. Hancock, Mrs. Edward Farnum Lavell, Mrs. James F. Lea, Mrs. James Monaghan, Mrs. E. J. Morris, Mrs. Robert St McCracken, Mrs. J. Howard Reber. Mrs. W. G. Rhouds, Mrs. Wendell Reber, Mrs. Frederick Hart Shelton, Mrs. Marshall E. Smith, Miss Wuanita Smith, Mrs. Carroll R. Williams and Mrs. Thomas

Besides all the out-of-door games and athletics there will be a music contest of flutes and harps, arranged by Johan Grolle, of the Settlement Music School, Then there will be a poetry contest and reading of the prize poem, which is to be written on any Greek subject. Greek maidens will sell nectar, alias lemonade and ambrosia, in other words, ice cream. Altogether it will be decidedly unique and tremendously interesting. Best of all it will be a bit different from the thousand and one charity affairs that all do the same thing year in and year out. The "Masque of Persephone," given by the wee kiddles of the settlement, will be especially interesting. Mrs. Lavell has been working on this for weeks, and certainly those of us who have seen her act in the various amateur things which she used to be in so much before she married, may anticipate an enjoyable performance, for she not only can act, but can impart her knowledge to others.

My dears, the very cutest Junior Musical Club has been organized out on the Main Line by Mrs. Carroll Hodge and Mrs. Burton Chance. The end in view is to arouse the children's interest in things musical. They really are working in earnest on the subject, and they intend to give about three musicales a yearin the spring, fall and winter-and, mind yes, they will take up a different school esch time. The spring musicale was given very recently at Deepdale, in Strafford, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Beale, the parents of Mrs. Chance, There were about 60 in the audience, and the concert was wildly applauded. The program included Russian music only. The little artists who took part were Maisie and Helen Chance, Dorothy and Murial Hart, Alice and Robert Benedict, Polly Thayer and that small lamb, Jack Wheeler. The club boasts a quartet and trio, besides individual se NANCY WYNNE.
