No Market for Goods From U.S. for Many Years, International Commission's Trip Shows

MONEY IN HANDS OF FEW

WASHINGTON, May 24 .- The bright hubble of South American trade which American marchants have been admiring and for which they have been grasping ever since the European war turned trade relations of the world topsy-turvy, has broken The United States section of the Internahe United States section of the Interna-ional high commission which recently re-mined from a tour of South American coun-ries, definitely established that so far as arnishing a market for United States needs is concerned, South America is a rel-tively unimportant factor. For obvious iplomatic reasons, Government officials are smaining silent on this subject, it being onsidered undesirable officially to startle be mensibilities of Latin-America, but the couth American trade boom has fallen flat. for with British, French and German cap-ital instead of South American. The members of the commission dis-covered that the United States may draw from South America certain valuable raw materials, but this can be accomplished only after a vast amount of wealth has been sunk. The trip of the commission established in the minds of the members the fact that, as South America's popula-tion bears a ratio of but 2.5 per cent, of the world population and that poulation is excessively poor, no market for United States merchants and manufacturers is mouth organ and guitar, while the other

In an Interview yesterday Gustav Mayer publisher of the Gazette and the Demokrat. declared this to be the prevailing senliment among the Americans of German extraction.

"At present," said Mr. Mayer, "the senti-ment among our readers is in favor of Justice Hughes. Philander C. Knox stands next to Justice Hughes with the Germans for the Republican nomination, Colonel Roosevelt, according to expressions of sen-timent we have received from our readers, is too bombastic.

"In the event of the nomination of Jus-tice Hughes by the Republican party he will receive the support of our readers and both the Gazette and Demokrat.

both the Gazette and Demokrat. "Although the Gazette and Demokrat are Republican papers as the situation stands today we would support President Wilson in preference to Colonel Roosevelt in case they are nominated by the two big parties. The only possible change from this policy could come through platform declarations with the Democratic mathe with the second by the Democratic party which we could not approve."

Girl Arraigned as Auto Speeder Gets Suspended Sentence

NEW YORK, May 24.—A good-looking young woman, who said she was Miss Nell Morgan, of Asbury Park, was accused in the Tombs Court yesterday of auto speed-ing. Traffic Patrolman Cody had captured her. She was so very pleasant to behold that Cody seemed sorry for his action. She smilled most charmingly at Magis-trate Handy.

"I didn't know I was going so fast," she said. My speedometer didn't register nearly as fast as the policeman says, and I wasn't passing anybody." "It was Sunday," broke in Cody, ready to help, "and the street was deserted." The Magistrate looked at the young wom-an. She smiled again. He smiled in return. "Justice is no more blind with me than with anybody else," said he. "I suspend

For the last 14 years Citron Higgins, of Salem, N. J., has listened to the tune of "Suwanes River" four times a day as played on the melodeon by his daughter Matilda. So proficient did Matilds become that she never bothered about learning any other tune. Furthermore, she discouraged any idea of taking more lessons. Such is the prologue.

Citron blew into town to buy seeds for the farm. In order to break the monotony of buying seeds he also bought liquid of various hues and drifted out Market street sounds of music greeted him. Italy had more than one aim when she when to war on the side of the Allies. The chief objects which the Government had in against the products of any other nation As you see, from broader point of view. Italy was fighting for the 'open door' in view when it decided to cast its lot with the Entente were these: First. Redemption of provinces held by the Balkans, and yet, strange as it seems, no nation backed her diplomatic efforts. "The problem of future Italian-Serbian relations is formidable and it is impossible to tell how it will be solved. Naturally Serbia's claim on Dalmatia is absurd. Dal-Austria.

Second. Establishment of the "open oor" in the Balkans. Third. Absolute control of the Adriatic.

Fourth. Destruction of the commercial alliance between the Central Powers and the Near East, which was working to the detriment of Italy.

To these is now added: Fifth. Restoration of the independence

Prince Peter di Scalea, a member of the Chamber of Deputies and for many years Under Secretary of State for Foreign Af-fairs, who has been fighting at the front. gave me this statement on Italy's position in the war during a visit he has just made to Rome, on leave of absence:

"Italy was one of the last of the big Powers to enter the war and she may be one of the last to lay down arms. To our revious aims (chief of which was the reemption of Italian provinces) the resurrec-ion of the kingdom of Serbia has now beome one of the main objects of Italy's ar.
