

COURT ENJOINS AUTO SPEEDERS TO UTMOST CARE

Pedestrians, However, Told in Judge's Decision of Responsibility

FOUR MORE INJURED

Automobiles Have Right of Way, Justice Rules

Essence of opinion of Justice von Moersch, of Supreme Court of Pennsylvania: Automobiles have right of way. Chauffeurs and pedestrians must be vigilant.

A decision by Justice von Moersch, of the Supreme Court, furnishes an important commentary on the automobile situation in this city, where 51 persons have been killed and many injured by motorcars since January 1.

ARRESTED IN SCHOOL ON EX-PUPIL'S CHARGE

Teacher in Girls' School Accused of Leading Boy From Home

Peter Bender, a teacher in Church Street School, a private educational institution for girls, in Phoenixville, Pa., was arrested in this city this morning by Detectives Hodge and Farrell, of this city, and brought to City Hall here.

While conditions have not yet arisen in any case brought before us where we have felt called upon to rule that it was negligence per se for a pedestrian to traverse a public highway by means of the regular crossing places, nevertheless, when he does so he is bound to a high degree of care, and if a pedestrian goes further and deliberately selects the roadway of a city street for the purpose of walking longitudinally thereon, he is obligated to still greater care.

Those injured yesterday were Hugh McCusker, 78 years old, and his wife, 59 years old, of 2428 North Broad street, and Joseph McBride, of 273 South 4th street.

ORPET'S ORDEAL PROVES PASTIME TO NEWLYWEDS

Romantic 'Young Couples in Court Where Youth Is on Trial for Girl's Murder

WAKEGANG, Ill., May 24.—Honey-mooning at the trial of William H. Orpet here is a new pastime for Wisconsin newlyweds. Since the passage of the Wisconsin eugenics law Wakegang, which is just across the State border, has become a Gretina Green.

Orpet appeared tired today. He has visited the offices of his counsel each night since the trial began, rehearsing the story he is to tell when he takes the stand.

His lawyers have gone over every point of his version of what happened in Helma's woods on the day that Marian met her death there after a tussle with the defendant. They believe Orpet is ready to stand a thorough cross-examination.

Perley B. Burritt, a drug clerk of Lake Forest, was discovered today to be an important witness for the defense. His testimony, it was said, will indicate the sale of cyanide of potassium, the poison that caused Marian's death, to the Lambert family.

GRAND OFFICERS NAMED BY KNIGHTS TEMPLARS AT SCRANTON CONCLAVE

Andrew G. Williams, of Allegheny Commandery, Succeeds to Post of Grand Commander of the Order in State

MEET AT PITTSBURGH, 1917

SCRANTON, Pa., May 24.—Andrew G. Williams, of Butler, member of Allegheny Commandery, No. 3, Grand Commandery Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, today became grand commander of the order, automatically succeeding Grand Commander Bradley W. Lewis, of Tunkhannock, Pittsburgh, who was chosen the place for holding next year's convocate.

Two contests marked the election of officers. Eminent Sir Alfred E. Lister, of Cour de Leon Commandery, Scranton, defeating Harry W. Hipple, of Lock Haven, for grand junior warden, and John Cheeseman, of Mary Commandery, Philadelphia, being made trustee, succeeding the late Past Grand Commander Kendrick, of Philadelphia.

Memorial services for the late George W. Kendrick, Jr., of Philadelphia, the oldest grand commander in Pennsylvania, marked the opening business session of the convocate yesterday afternoon. Mr. Kendrick died a month ago. His virtues as a citizen and as a member of the Masonic fraternity were extolled by William McCoach, City Treasurer of Philadelphia, Grand Commander of Philadelphia, Grand Commander Bradley W. Lewis, Grand Prelate, Rev. Robert O'Boyle, Grand Recorder W. W. Allen and Lee S. Smith, of Pittsburgh, acting grand master of the grand encampment, Knights Templars of the United States.

Mayor Smith, of Philadelphia, sent a communication to the convocate urging the support of the Pennsylvania commanderies in the movement to bring the 1917 triennial meeting of the grand encampment of the United States to Philadelphia.

Grand Recorder W. W. Allen, of Philadelphia, reported that there are 24,287 Knights Templars enrolled in Pennsylvania, a gain of over 500 since the convocate held a year ago. There is a net balance of $33,000 in the treasury.

$1,000,000 A DAY FOR NAVY REPORTED IN COMMITTEE BILL

Appropriations Recommended in Measure Aggregate $360,934,293.99 for Fiscal Year

CITY GETS $3,837,813

WASHINGTON, May 24.—A million-dollar-a-day navy bill was reported to the House by the Naval Affairs Committee today. While the bill carries by specific appropriation $241,449,151.99, projects provided for obligation to the Treasury to an additional $119,485,142, a total of $360,934,293.99 for the fiscal year.

The specific appropriations give an increase of $91,787,287.11 more than that of last year. Philadelphia items in the bill are as follows: Dry dock, limit of cost $3,500,000, appropriation for first year $500,000. Navy yard ventilating system, $9000. Toilet and locker facilities, $4000. Continuing dredging, $25,000.

For improvement of ground adjoining the quartermaster's depot marine corps at Philadelphia and the erection of an addition not to exceed $175,000. For improvement of machinery and implements at Philadelphia Navy Yard, $25,000. Employees at Naval Home $22,696, and maintenance, $7,117. Additional obligations upon the Treasury for which appropriations are named in the bill are as follows: Projectile plant, $705,611. Gun shop, District of Columbia, $400,000. Drydock, Norfolk, Va., $2,000,000. Laboratory, $500,000. Naval reserves, $100,000. Armor plate plant, $11,000,000. Increase in ships, $100,843,000. The expense and pay of the naval reserves are not included in the bill, nor are the expenditures in Hawaii.

This protest was forwarded to the Canadian Government, but is being disregarded.

Some Suits! They're Perry's at $15

$18, $20, $25

Here are Perry Suits that are as different from all others as day—to use the old proverb—is different from night!

Different from scratch to score! Different and distinctive pattern assortments, because we have the pick of the mills! There are fabric designs on our tables here today that other stores would give their eyes for!

We come under the "favored nation" clause when the day dawns for first choice of the new weaves and styles!

And maybe we don't cut loose with pencil and order pad! They'd tell you—if you could get the ear of the inside office—that Perry is a plunger on goods! We don't pussy-foot when it comes to a crisis!

So we're always well heeled with generous choice of Suit styles, and never more so than right now when many a store's assortments are pinched by the meticulous policy pursued a year ago!

Pleated-back Suits, plain-back Suits, snug-waisted Suits, loose, comfortable Suits; soft-roll lapels, flat lapels; sharp top, slender lapels—Golf Suits with knickers or trousers at $18 and $20; and sport coats at $8!

Whether fashionable or conservative they're never commonplace!
