Gienside and the champion Bethayres leam had a terrific battle on Saturday, and it was not until the eighth when, with two men on base. Betts drove out a slashing grout drive, was the battle for supremacy won by Jack Hauser's team. Keen rivalry existed between both clubs and both fought hard for victory. By winning, Glenside, Bethayres and Jenkintown are thrown in a tis for second place, with Manager Fisher's Willow Grove team leading the way with no defeats.

Diebl is estching a wonderful game for Beth-byres. He has plenty of nerve for a catcher and it soes a sreat way in keeping his pitcher feady. His strong, accurate throws to the uses keep stolen bases down.

Hawkins is playing a particularly good game for Glenside at second base.

Sam Cavis, the hard-hitting pitcher of Jenkin-town, connected twice out of three times at bat, ence for a home run drive.
