SCENES ATTENDING OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY AND PARADES OF PATRIOTIC ORGANIZATIONS

TROOPS OF ARMY AND NAVY UNION FIRE MEMORIAL DAY SALUTE WHILE GROUPED AROUND WASHINGTON MONUMENT AT INDEPENDENCE HALL
After an address by E. J. Cattell and the reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg speech by Major T. Worcester Worrell, the various garrisons went to the Germantown High School, where a tablet to the battleship Maine was unveiled.

NAVAL FORCES OF PENNSYLVANIA, NAVAL VETERANS' ASSOCIATION AND SPANISH WAR VETERANS MARCH DOWN CHESTNUT STREET ON WAY TO FLORAL BOAT CEREMONIES
The line of march was from Broad and Cherry streets to Locust, countermarching to Chestnut, thence to Delaware avenue, to Vine street pier, where floral boats were launched in memory of the dead.
