Pressure of Offerings of New Crop Cause Weakness at the Close

GRAIN BELT WEATHER FORECAST, CHICAGO, June 1.—The weather forecast for 38 hours follows: Wisconsin. Minnesota. Huma, Missouri Routh Dakota, Nebraska and Kannat—Unsettled tontant and Friday; probably showers and somewhat cooler.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Trade in wheat was rather small today, and prices moved irregularly with the tone of the market weak at the close, because of pressure of offer ings of new crop and of reports that because supplies in the United Kingdom were plentiful exporters were trying to resell here. Last quotations were at the lowest of the session. The early tone was firmer, July showed the most activity. The Southwest did some selling here. Prices in the Northwest, particularly at Winnipeg, also were weak.

Dealers in Okiahoma City indicated that new wheat had been ordered there for shipment within two weeks, and this, on top of an already burdensome old crop surplus. There were some trades in December here at 21sc. over September. Aside from some unfavorable reports from western Kansus, crop weather news today was favorable.

FORESTERS OF AMERICA

Methods Considered for Increasing Strength of Subordinate Courts

At the meeting of Court Schuylkili, No. 108, last week, with P. G. C. R. Kirk presiding, an interesting and profitable discussion was had of the plans proposed by the Foresters' Fellowship Club for the bet-terment of the fraternity and the placing of the order upon a permanently stable basis for all time.

One proposed plan, which, in addition to the suggested amaignmation of weaker courts, met with much favor, was that by legislation each court should be compelled to attain a net membership of 200 and a treasury of not less than $2000. This membership is to heave the second of additional courts. bership is to be maintained and added to yearly by a net gain of at least 5 per cent. This standard maintained, each court could in 20 years pay all death claims and ex-penses and still have a balance ordinarily thereafter of $1880 for the benefit of added new members.

As all of the former 200 members would not be deceased, their dues and interest on accumulated treasury would add materially to the Surplus balance.

Continuity and perpetuity of fraternal existence is dependent sreatly upon constant addition to membership as well as the proper management of the body corporate.

A court which has had a successful career 25 years and has a substantial treasury, but which has failed to add new members, according to those who have carefully studied fraternal insurance, has acquired only a part of what is needed to insure the payment of death claims. death claims.

It cannot in another quarter of a century secure the needed additional finances unless it wakes up and secures new members to replace those who lapse or die.

Court Nonpareil, No. 183, has the sole possession of a feature not duplicated in any other court. It meets Tuesday afternoon in the Parkway Building, Broad and Cherry streets. It convenes at 2 o'clock and has a goodly proportion of its 132 members present. For more than 17 years it has so met, and is regularly adding to its roster. With a field all its own, it is now engaged in a spirited campaign to double its membership. The meetings are attractive, and the good it has accomplished is beyond adequate recount. It supplies a need that is imperative and doog it well. Men unable by avocations to attend night meetings have this opportunity afferded them to participate in the day hours. Brother Amandus A. Fluck, secretary, 3115 North 10th street, would be pleased to give particulars to any prospective candidates.

The attention of all Foresters in Philadelphia and vicinity is focused upon the fact of the four great sectional initiations to be held this month. Attendance at each will be repaid by a pleasant night. Aside from the degree work, programs of exceptional excellence will be rendered and all members are cordially invited.

South Philadelphia Class. 45 courts united—Priday, June 16. New Auditorium Hall, 7th street and Snyder avenue.
West Philadelphia, 14 combined courts—Priday, June 23, at K. of C. Hall, 88th and Market streets.

24. Lu Lu Temple, Broad and Spring Garden atreats.

The splendid showing made by the Philadephia courts in the big Camden parade was the subject of much praise. Especially noteworthy in the were Courts Fairmount, No. 41; Mr.
Vornan, No. 117; Friendship, No. 98; GienwedNo. 101; Heddington, No. 128; Haverford, No. 202, and Delawars, No. 87, by reason of costumed degree teams, handsome banners and sets of colors, their own musical bands, and general outfit. While the paim of merit is bestowed upon them, it is without detracting from any of the other courts which in one or other feature were perhaps more attractive, but these were the winners in the sum total of points, and all participating made the columns of the Foresters loom up as one of the main features of the spectacular demonstration.

The annual convention of the Grand Cabin.

The annual convention of the Grand Cabin. Woodchoppers of Pennsylvania. was held May 27 in Convenient Hall, 23d and Federal streets. This body is a social adjunct of the Foresters of America. After the routine business was transacted the merrymalers made things hum in funiand. The officers for the ensuing year were installed.

At the sassion of Court R. E. Pattison last week, held at 7156 North Broad street, after routine businesse, a discussion was had as to the best means to employ to provide the needed finances for entertainment features. The san-eral visus favored was that the best results could be attained by combination storts, rather than by single court ventures. An economy of expense, it was argued, would arounce substantially larger financial results in all such undertakings.

Lorelei Court. No. 226, will meet tonight in the hall 2867 North Reese street. Its meetings are always attractive, and directed by firother M. Hagan and a corps of able assistants, the activities of the body are yielding gratifying results in both membership and financial in-creases.

An enjoyable meeting last week was held in the camp room of Camp 502 of Norristown, when two receptions were held, one for the new State secretary. William J. Mulr, and the other for the Baptist Bible Class, some 65 members of the class attending. The visitors were welcomed by the Burgess of Norristown, who is a member of the camp, and who delivered one of the best speeches of the evening. The speakers were: State Becretary Muir. Charles Weand, his assistant: Louis A. Berry, of the National Security League; State Conductor John W. Harper, Samuel T. Crout, treasurer of the Home Corporation, members of the Bible Class and members of the camp. The Entertainment Committee served refrashments after the season.

Committee served refreshments after the seasion.

At the meetings of Philadelphia Districts Nos. 3 and 9 last week, which were in the nature of a reception to State Secretary Muir and visitors, there were onesch occasion large gatherings of members present and at both datricts Mr. Muir was inderest as the candidate for election to state secretary. One of the pleasing features of the meeting of the 3d District was the initiatory ceremonies, as conducted by the district degree team, under the ladership of District Frasident Wallace Fox. The for kays exemplified to a class of candidates for Camp 500 and all oresent spoke in the highest words of praise of the efficient manner in which the work was done.

Thursday avening District No. 2, of Northampton County, held a reception to the following State officers: State Secerctary W. J. Muir, State Master of Forms Hon. G. H. Moyer, and State Conductor John W. Harper, in the Camproom of Camp 251, of South Bethlehem.

During the evening the degree of the order was conferred on a class of 85 candidates from the camps of the district, by the grack degree team of the Lehigh Valley, of Camp No. 30, of Bethlehem.

This team is fully equipped with the naw degree uniforms, as adopted by the National Camp. The large room was filled and many of the members of the order that came great digitances to see this team exemplify the work verse loud in their praise of the work performed. One of the features of the team work is the excellent music by the camp's orchestra and the floor work of the team after the reception to the State officers the meeting of the District Convention was held and the district Indorsed Brother G. H. Moyer for the office of State vice president and W. J. Muir for State secretary.

Head of Metro Scenario Forces to Give Readers Instruction in Photoplay Writing

By the Photoplay Editor The course of lessons in scanario writing Section of the EVENING LEDGER is to be under the able guidance of Harry O. Hoyt, the head of the scenario forces of one of the big feature film companies, the Metro, Every day for five weeks, beginning Saturday, Mr. Hoyt will talk on the multitudinous angles of photoplay writing. His first lessons will take up the following: How to Find a Plot, Writing the Synopsis, Terms Employed, Construction, Continuity, Heart Interest, Atmosphere, Plot Develop-

Mr. Hoyt is a university graduate. Born in Minenapolis, he was a student at the Universities of Minesota, Columbia and Yale, from the last of which he received the degree of LL. B. While practicing law his attention was drawn to the rapidly sevancing art of the photoplay. He first owned and operated moving picture theatres, but soon became interested in the direction of pictures. Finally he turned to scenario writing. As a free lance he wrote some 408 successions. As a free lance he wrote some 409 successful "scripts." Mr. Hoyt has been a member of the staff of the Kaiem Company, for whom he wrote the 19 three-reel subjects, "The Ten Commandments," and of the Fex Film Corporation, where he was responsible for "A Parisian Romance," "The Fourth Estate" and others. Among his recent films for the Metro were "The Turmoil," "Rose of the Alley," a "Man and His Soul," "Dimples" and "Big Tremaine."

The front of the Princess Theatre at last looks inviting and is in keeping with the quality of the entertainment being supplied by Frank Buhler, general manager of the Market Street Theatre Company. Neat brass frames are used to display the paper or announcements of the films. The art work is gradually improving and it will not be long before every film manufacturer will supply a handsome lithograph with the films. The cheapness of the whole industry of a few years ago has passed and the time is near when the advertising paper will show a material betterment of quality. Of course, there is some good paper now put out, but it is in the minority.
