FRENCH CAPTURE TRENCH LINE NEAR DEAD MAN'S HILL

TEUTONS GAIN IN VOSGES

Paris Reports Repulse of Verdun Attacks-Guns Busy in Lens Sector

BERLIN, June 1. French troops have captured 400 yards of the German first-line trenches south-east of Dead Man's Hill, on the Verdun front, says the official statement of the War Office today.

East of Obersa, in the Vosges, the Germans have penetrated Brench positions over a front of 350 yards.

The French positions entered by the Germans covered a depth of 300 yards. Instead of attempting to suround the captured ground, the German detachment returned to the German lines with some prisners and booty.

Vicions counter-attacks were made by the French last night in the triangle formed by Dead Man's Hill, Cumieres and Chat-tancourt. It was there that the French were able to advance.

Heavy artillery fire is reported from the ens front, where the Germans are en-aged with the British. Following is the text of the official report: North and south of Lens there was violent artillery firing yesterday.

To the left of the Meuse the French sent forward considerable forces last night against our positions on Dead Man's Hill and Caurettes wood, Southeast of Dead Man's Hill they succeeded in getting a foothold in our first-line trenches over a width of 400 yards. Otherwise the reported assaults were repulsed with heavy losses.

To the right of the Meuse artillery activity has continued on a heavy scale. East of Obersapt a German reconnoitering detachment penetrated French positions over a width of 350 yards and to a depth of 300 yards returning with booty and prisoners.

Office today.

While the German infantry was engaged west of the Meuse, the French lines on the Douaumont front, to the east of the river, were under hot artillery fire. Virtually all the German guns northeast of Verdun were concentrated upon a short target, approximately two miles broad. The shells fell at intervals of less than a second. The entire French line, comprising both first and second line trenches, was smothered be-neath the tempest of steel. The text of the official communique

On the left bank of the Meuse the bombardment continued with great violence in the course of the night in the region of Dead Man's Hill. An attack by the Germans yesterday evening about 8 o'clock against our positions on the slopes east of the hill was completely repulsed by our fire. On the right bank the artillery duel has assumed a character of intensive-ness west of Fort Douaumont. The night was relatively calm on the rest of the front.

Last night one of our aviation squadrons threw 20 bombs on the sta-tions at Thionville and Audunleroman and 50 shells on the supply depot at 75,000 fresh troops into action at Verdun since a week ago today, according to re-ports received by the War Office. At least five new German divisions have been engaged on both banks of the Meuse.

Since February 1,000,000 Germans have been in action at Verdun, according to War.

Office figures. Of this number it is estimated that about 200,000 have been killed or put out of action.

This imputation of bad faith to General Scott is the more resented here, as General Scott was empowered in dealing with Gen-eral Obregon to commit their conclusions to writing. After many delays and refer-ence of the matter to Mexico City, how-ever, Obregon himself declined to sign any document with General Scott. Now officials do not hesitate to declare that Obregon's reservation of his signature was done with a deliberate purpose of repudiating the conference with General Scott and placing upon the outcome of the meeting any construction he and Carranza chose.

It was made plain here, however, that no attention will be paid to the note's insinuations against General Scott. Officials have maintained from the outset that there was ample authority and precedent for the pursuit of the Glenn Springs raiders by Colonel Sibley and Major Langhorne. They declare that the understanding reached after the Columbus massacre covers all similar outrages perpetrated by Mexicans in the United States.

This expedition they declare is fully justified under the practice of pursuing a "hot trail" after marauders and murderers. In their opinion resentment of American efforts to run down the Glenn Springs and Columbus murderers, as expressed in the Carranza note, amounts to a defense of the slaughter in cold blood of these defenseless Americans on their of these defenseless Americans on their

The anger of officers at the War Department has been further aroused by Carranga's reference to the Pershing expedition as "interned in Chihuahua." Finally, officials in both the State and War Departments feel that nothing could be more impudent than Carranza's query as to the intentions of the United States toward

There is, of course, a disposition to remember that many of the threats and high-sounding phrases carried in the note are due to "Mexican sensitiveness," and the fact is not lost sight of that Mexico is ruined economically, and the de facto Government on the verge of collapse.

PERSHING AT COLONIA DUBLAN FOR GAVIRA CONFERENCE

TEMPORARY FIELD HEADQUARTERS PUNITIVE EXPEDITION AMERICAN FORCES, COLONIA DUBLAN, Mex. May 31.—(Via Radio to Columbus, N. M. June 1.)

General John J. Pershing, accompanied by nembers of his staff, arrived here late this afternoon from Namiquipa, for the con-ference with General Gavira tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon. General Gavira and his staff, along with about 50 soldiers, came in about the same time on a special train of seven box cars.

General Pershing stated today that he would have nothing to say until he had an opportunity to meet Gavira and go over the preliminaries to the formal conference. Gavira suggested the railway station at Neuvo Casas Grandes as the place for the conference.

The American commander is under orders not to discuss with the Carranza repre-sentative any measures which include the withdrawal of United States forces from Mexico. Instead, the conference is expected merely to hinge upon the disposal of both Mexican and American soldiers, so as per-mit more co-operation in ridding Northern Mexico of bandits.

General Gavira's special went on to Par-ron from here where he will spend the night. The place of meeting has not yet been decided on.

TEUTONS DESPERATELY STRUGGLE TO OUTFLANK ITALIAN ARSIERO LINES

Fierce Battle in Progress for Three Days for Positions Held by General Cadorna's Forces

INVADERS MOWED DOWN

Alpine Troops Valiantly Defend Soglio di Campiglia Positions Under Terrific Gun Fire

ROME, June 1. South of the Posina Torrent and west of Arsiero the Austro-Hungarian army is making desperate attacks in an effort to outflank the Italians defending the Arsiero-Asiago positions. Severe losses have been inflicted upon the Teutons, who attacked on the mountain slopes in mass formation. The masked batteries of the Italians dropped curtains of drum-fire on the attacking forces and wiped out whole companies.

Dispatches from Udine say that artiflery duels are in progress along the Isonzo River and in the Carnic Alps, but the Austrians seem to have weakened their lines there, for no infantry attacks followed

A battle which opened on Tuesday night on the line connecting Conl Zugna and Monte Cengio for positions held by the Ital-ians in the districts of Monte Pasubio, Fori Alti and Priafora is still in progress. Dispatches from Vicenza say that the carnage among the Austro-Hungarian troops equaled that inflicted upon the Germans at Verdun. Thousands of Austrian dead lie unburied upon the slopes of Monte Pasublo, Cont Zugna and in the Buole Pass, Alpine troops distinguished themselves by their valiant defense of the Italian positions in the region of Sogli di Campiglia and Priafora in the face of terrific artillery fire.

The Italians were finally withdrawn from these exposed positions, which, however, were held long enough to enable the main forces to re-establish new lines.

On Corbin plateau the Austrians have combarded the Italian positions incessantly or six days and six nights.

AUSTRIANS WARNED AGAINST TOO HIGH EXPECTATIONS

VIENNA, June 1.—Military critics predict that the Italian cities of Arsiero and Asiago will soon be in the hands of the Austro-Hungarians, aithough they warn the people not to expect too much of the army of invasion in Italy because of the natural obstacles which have to be overcome.

Plymouth Rock Chases Young Woman Until She Falls. Tears at Her Face

POTTSVILLE, June 1.-Cock-a-doodle Cock-a-doodle-do!

A big Plymouth Rock rooster sounded this warcry today as it gave chase to Mrs. Edward Wagner, of Cressona. Mrs. Wagner had been familiar with barnyard fowl all her life, but there was something so militant about the crow of the big bird that fear tugged at her heart and she began to

The rooster legged it after the pretty young woman, flapping his wings and in-creasing his fierce cries. Mrs. Wagner gasped with terror as the huge fowl gained upon her. She gathered her skirts about her knees so that she could make bette speed. The rooster was now only a few feet behind the young woman and the bird emitted another fierce crow as it seemed to realize it was gaining on its quarry. Completely winded by the chase, Mrs. Wagner sank to the ground. The rooster attacked her with bill and talons, inflicting lacerations on her head, face, neck and hands. The screams of Mrs. Wagner brought Edward Schweigert, a neighbor, to the rescue. He beat off the rooster with a club and carried Mrs. Wagner to her home, where her wounds were dressed by a physician. Mrs. Wagner is suffering greatly from shock.

Michael Francis Doyle Will Conduct Defense of Irish Rebel Leader

Michael Francis Doyle, who has been engaged by Sir Roger Casement to conduct the defense of the Irish baronet at his forthcoming trial for high treason in London, will sail on the St. Paul Saturday. June 3.

It was because he knew and had confidence in me that he doubtless cabled direct from the that he doubless cabled direct from the Tower of London shortly after his confine-ment there to come over and conduct the case. I will be assisted by A. M. Sullivan, of Dublin, the leader of the Irish bar, and Cannon Duffy, of Dublin. "Earl Grey has cabled the British Embassy that he would be glad to have me represent Sir Roger, and I have been ad-vised by the embassy to that effect, thus securing special standing at the English bar for this occasion. I believe my appearance there is the first instance where an American attorney has had charge of the defense in a jury trial for high treason in any foreign country. I have outlined a plan of defense, and with my assistants, who have communi-cated with me by cable, confidently expect to win the acquittal of Rir Roger. I cannot, of course, ethically state at this time what our defense will be."
