

ILLUSTRATED
Evening Ledger

FRIDAY
 June 2, 1916

CAMERA SIDELIGHTS ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AND SOME OF THE PEOPLE WHO FIGURE IN IT

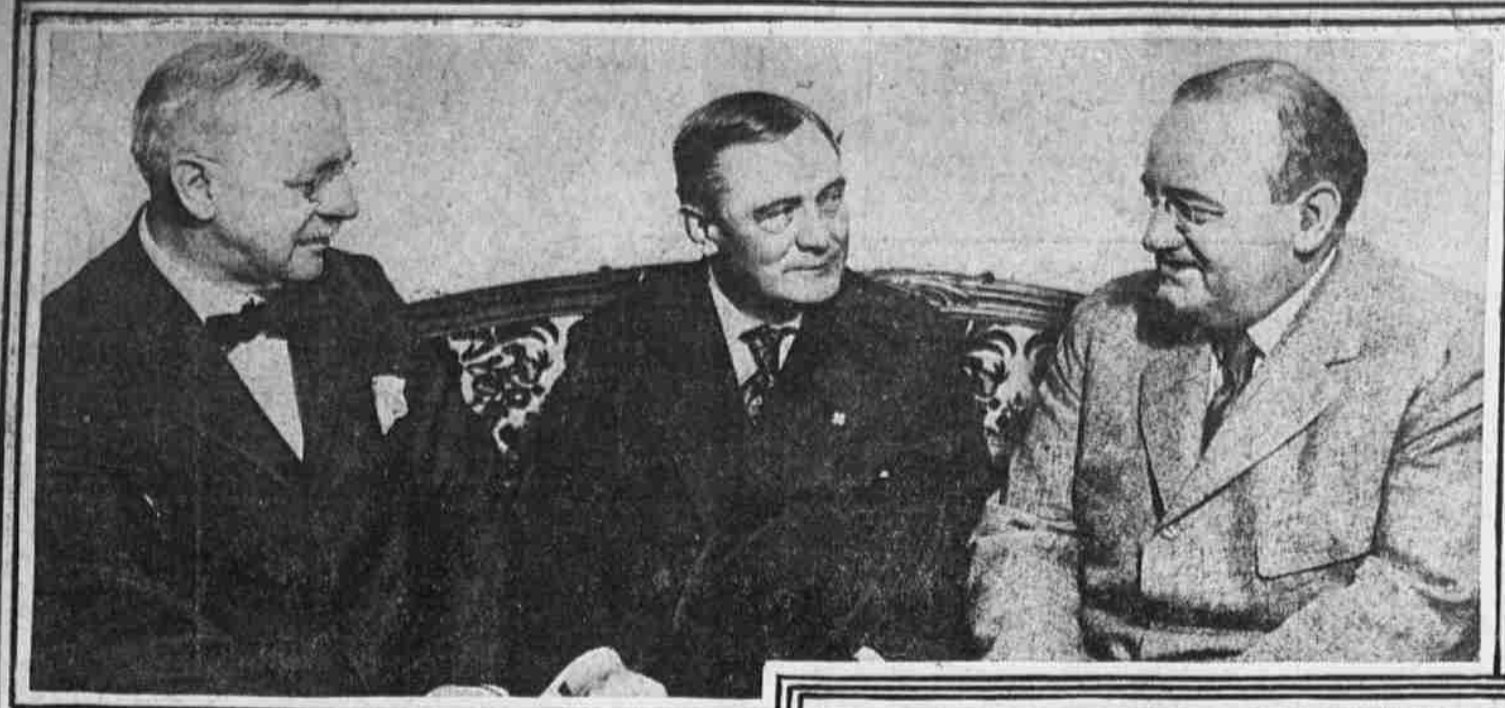

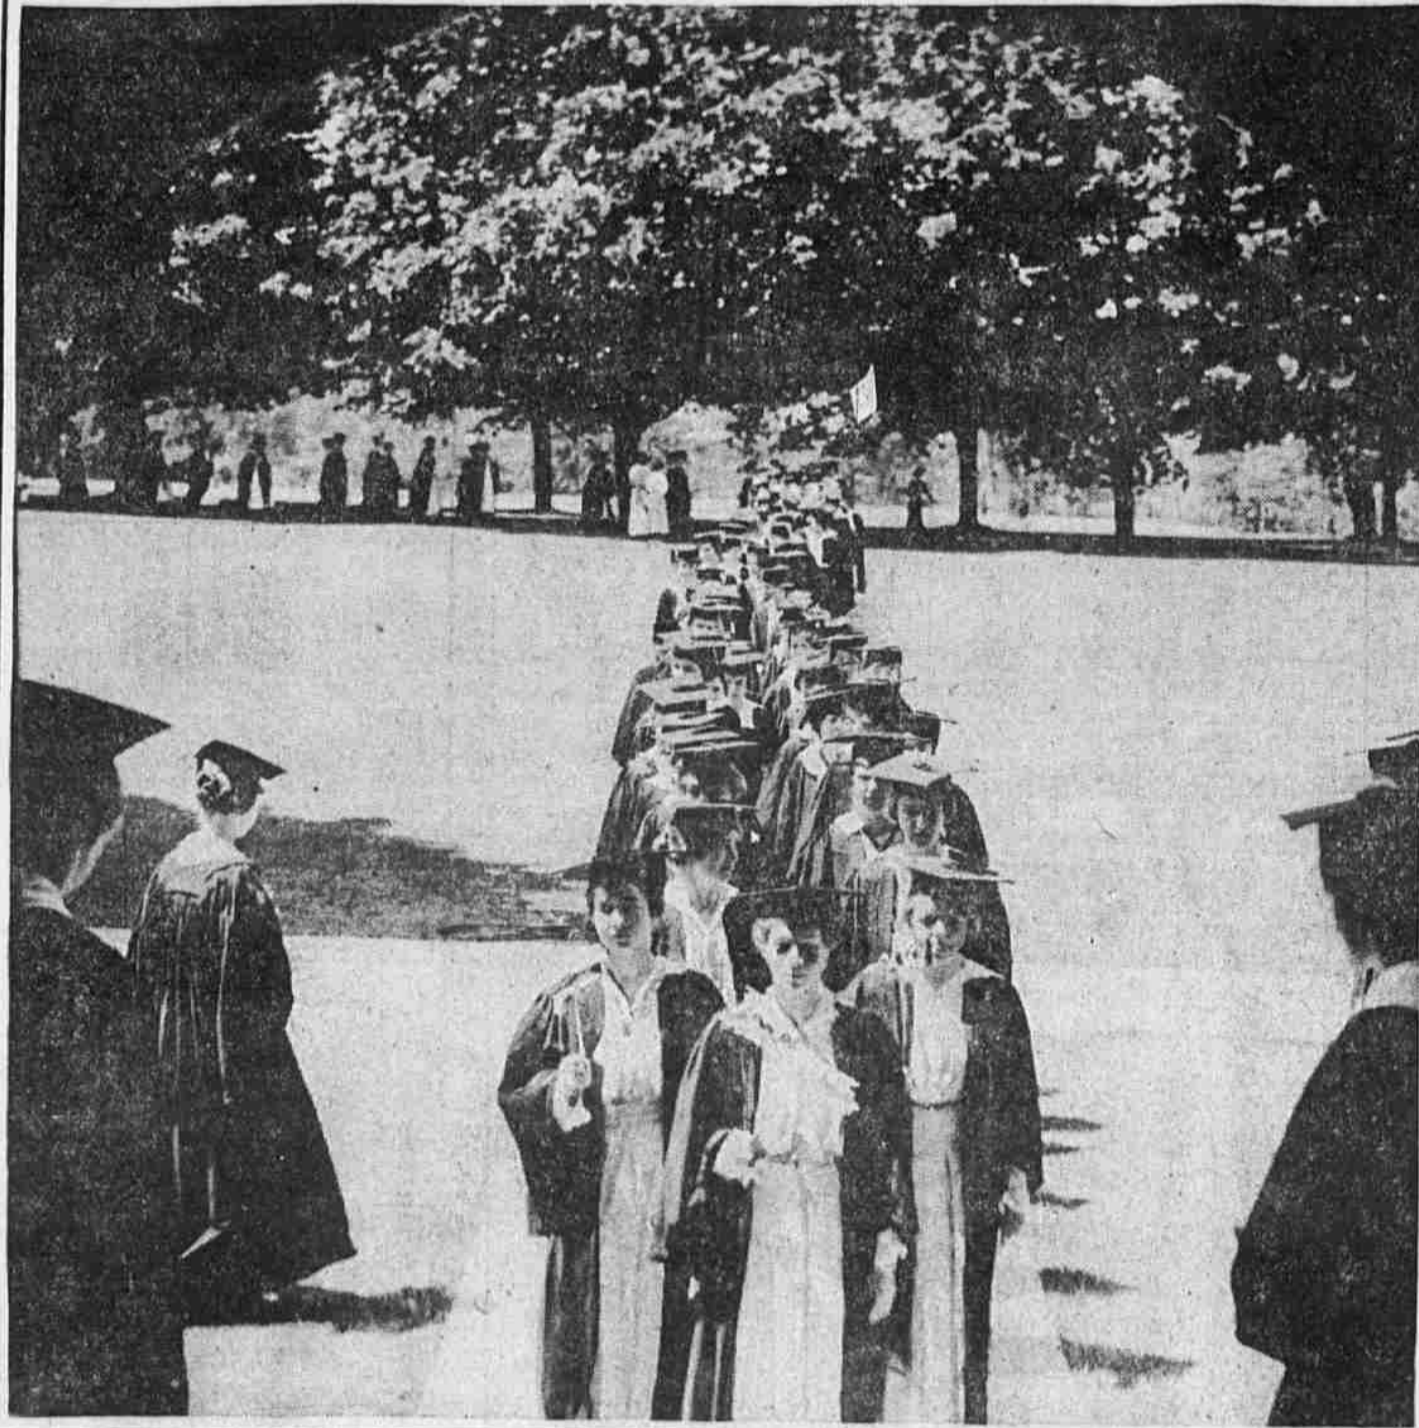

Photo by International Film Service.
A TRIO WHO WILL BE HEARD FROM AT THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION
 Left to right are Colonel William F. Stone, who will have his hands full as sergeant-at-arms; Colonel Harry S. New, of Indianapolis, who aspires to be a United States Senator, and Elmer E. Dover, of Tacoma. He is a national committeeman from Washington.

MAKE YOUR OWN AUTOMOBILE, SAYS NORRISTOWN MAN
 Here is S. S. Richards and the car which he constructed with his own hands at comparatively small expense, following certain principles which he worked out for himself. It does all the work of a standard car of its power and has attracted much attention in Norristown.

Photo by International Film Service.
SHE WILL BE AT CHICAGO, TOO
 Mrs. Cornelius Coles, of California, is an alliterative lady who is an accredited delegate to the convention. She is all for Hughes.

SHE'S BRYN MAWR'S "SUNNY JIM"
 Miss Louise Dillingham was voted the student who most kept alive "the qualities of joyousness, fortitude, courage and faithfulness."

BRYN MAWR SENIORS MARCH INTO GYMNASIUM FOR GRADUATING EXERCISES
 There were 81 of them and they formed a procession which moved between a line of undergraduates on either side, forming a guard of honor.

FADS AND FANCIES IN FASHIONS AS EXEMPLIFIED BY FEMINE FIGURES CAUGHT BY THE CAMERA AT THE DEVON HORSE SHOW
 As the left is Miss Elizabeth Cummings in an attractive silk frock of striped taffeta with cascade pommiers. The skirt is "piped" with a narrow band of contrasting color. In the center are Mrs. W. D. Holloway and Miss Gladys Bush, the former wearing a silk and edged with maroon, the latter in a snappy sports frock of glove silk, silk sweater, summer fur and a transparent hat trimmed with a snappy coat edged with fur.