

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

SATURDAY
June 3, 1916

GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERA

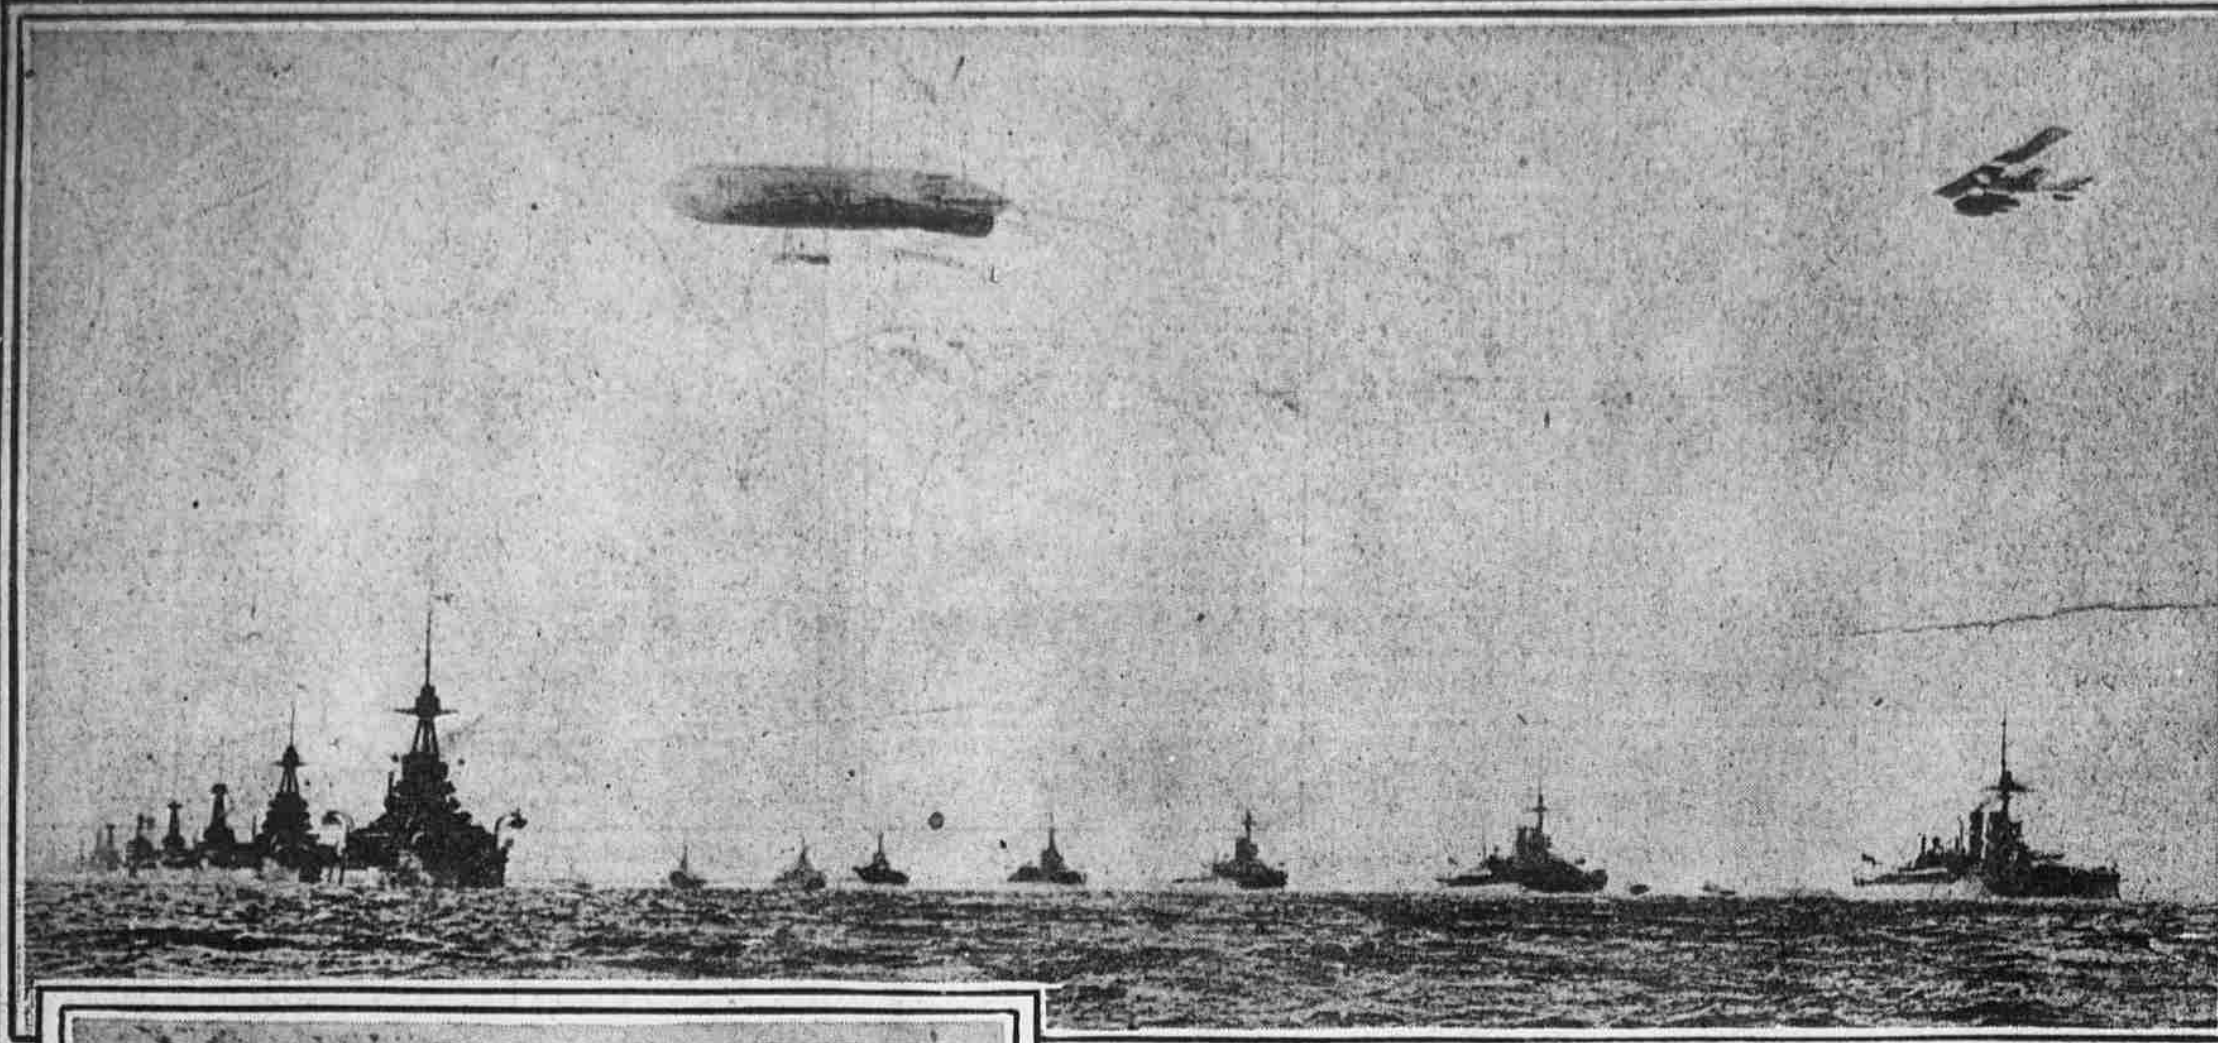

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
THE FLEET WHICH HAS SUFFERED THE WORST BLOW INFLICTED ON BRITAIN'S NAVY IN MANY A YEAR
This is the British main fleet as it appeared issuing in battle line from its war base on the Scottish coast on a recent cruise. Overhead is a naval dirigible and an airplane.

Photo by International Film Service.
NEW CHIEF OF AMERICA'S CLUB WOMEN
Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, of Los Angeles, was elected president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs by the convention which has just closed in New York. Her majority was heavy, with 1273 votes, against 423 for her opponent, Mrs. Samuel Sneath, of Tiffin, Ohio.

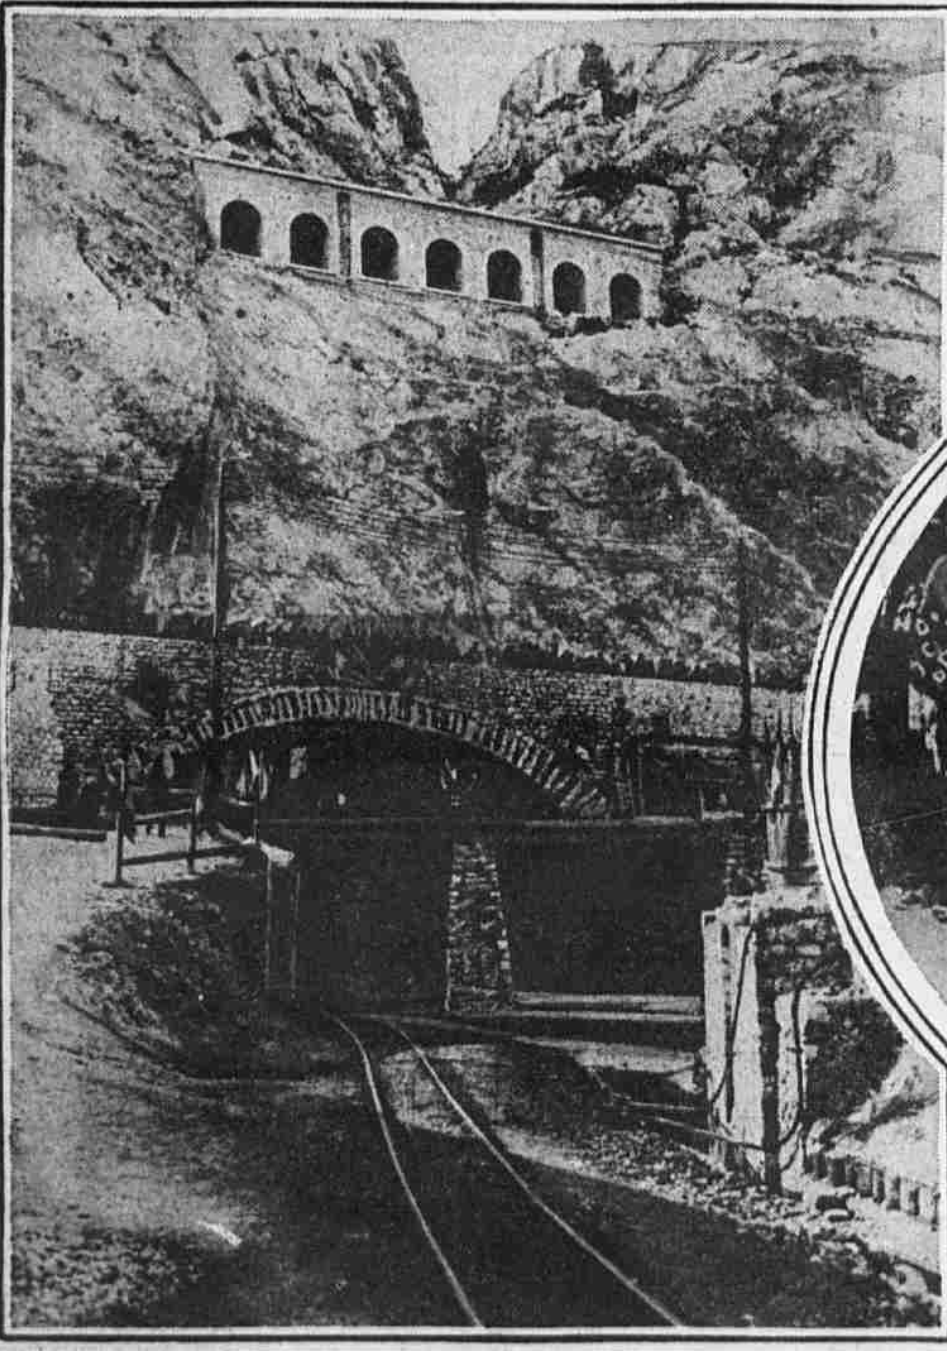

Photo by Meßem.
FRANCE'S NEW CANAL TUNNEL OPENS WIDE COMMERCIAL VISTA
Despite the enormous expenses of the war, the Republic has completed at huge cost a tunnel through the mountains north of Marseilles which will connect that port by water with the River Rhone, affording an all-water route between the ports of the north and the south. This is the entrance to the tunnel from the town of Maignane.

Photo by International Film Service.
THE CHERRY BLOSSOM SEASON OPENS IN JAPAN
Thousands of Americans who are cut off from their annual jaunt to Europe will go to the isle of Nippon this season to witness these colorful ceremonies. These quaint figures are geisha girls in the costumes of old time pilgrims.

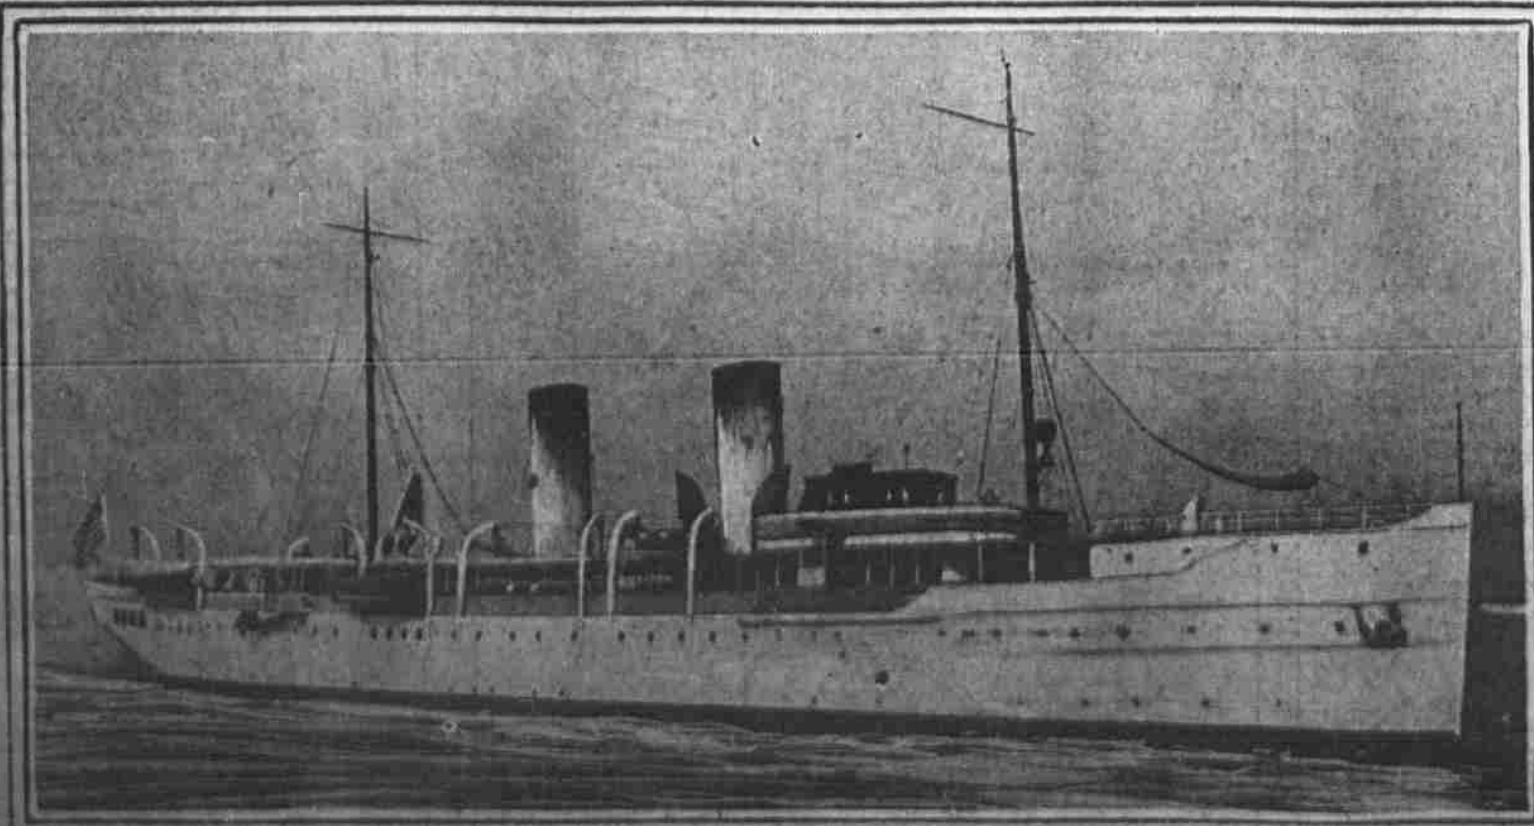

Photo by International Film Service.
WONDER YACHT WHICH HAS COMPLETED MAIDEN VOYAGE TO ATLANTIC COAST
The Cyprus, which cost $1,500,000, has cast anchor at New York after a trip round the Horn of 17,300 miles in 83 days. She carries everything from cannon to a movie theatre and is as big as a cruiser of 10 years ago. She is owned by D. C. Jackling, a Western mining magnate.

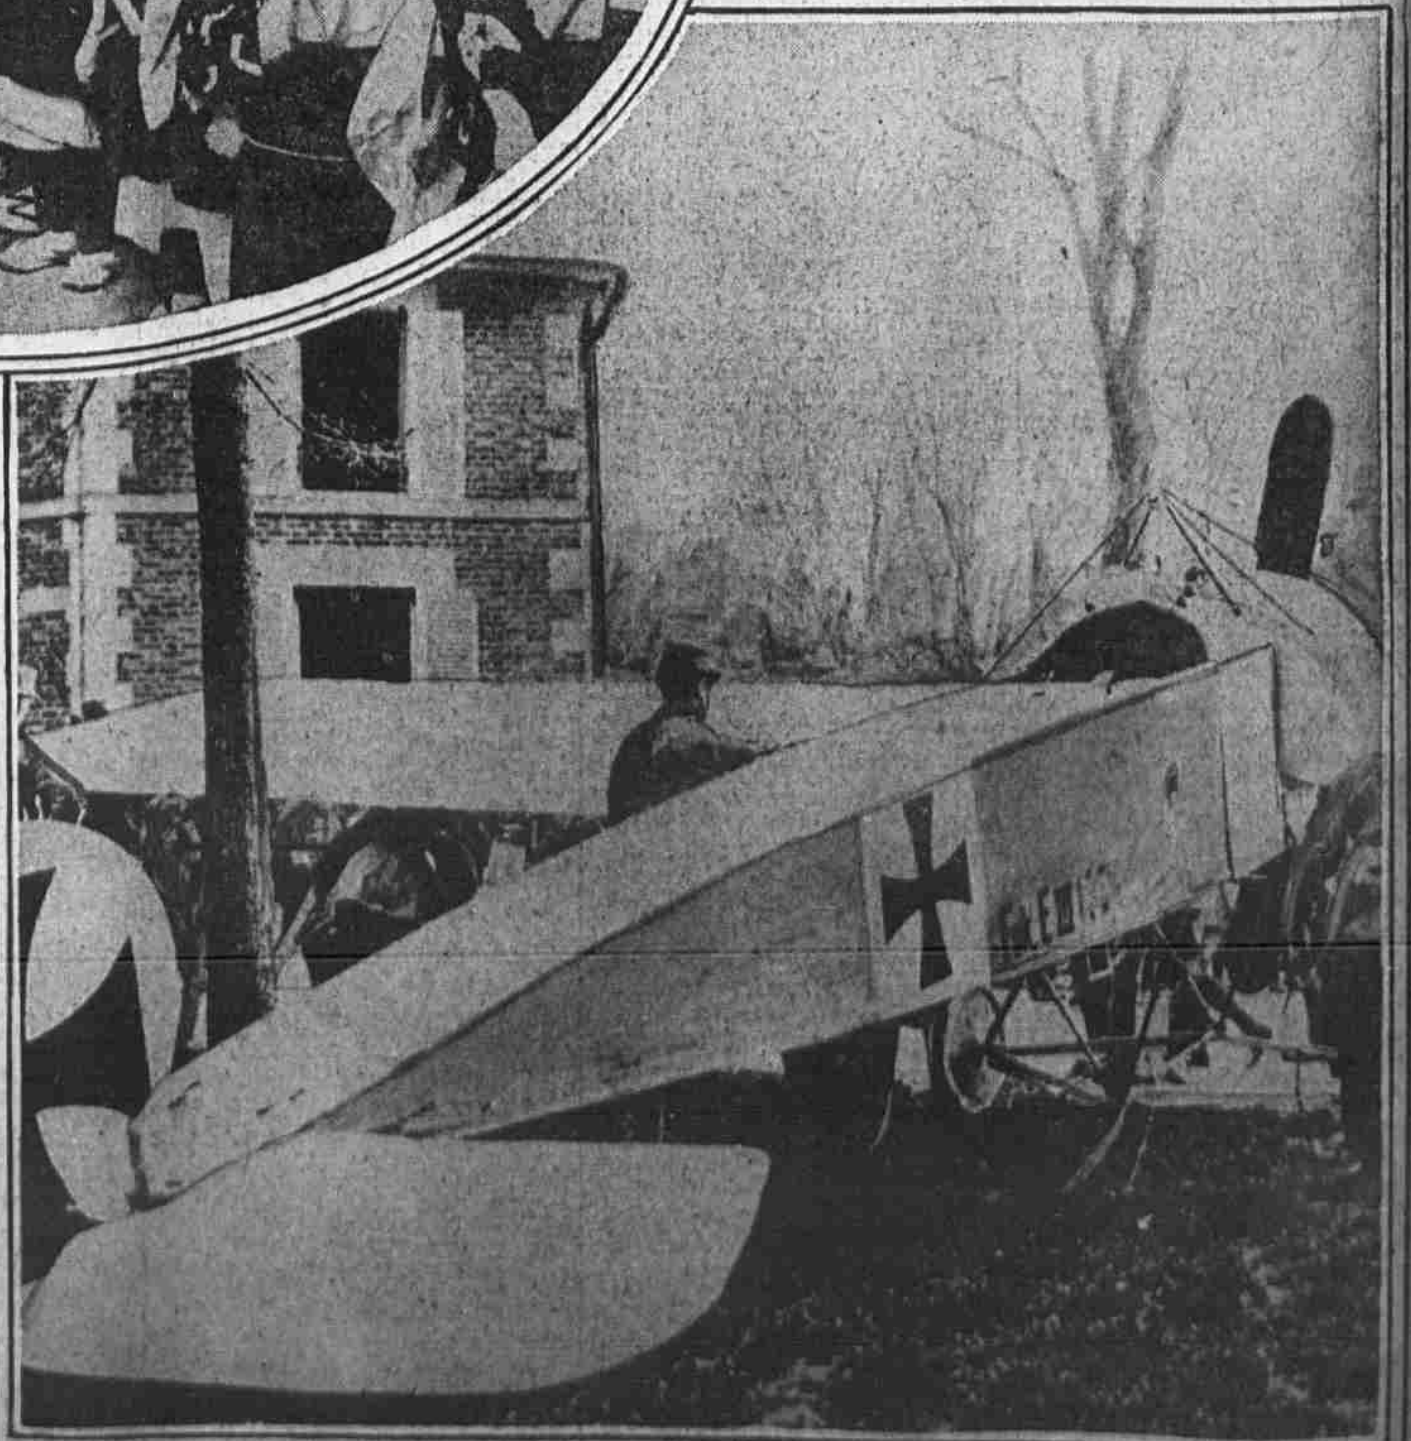

Photo by International Film Service.
THE FAMOUS "FOKKER," WHOSE AIR SUPREMACY IS THREATENED
France and England are exerting themselves to produce a machine which can cope with this dangerous flyer, and apparently are meeting with some success. The destruction of two was reported yesterday. This is a close view of a Fokker brought down south of Verdun.