NANCY WYNNE CHATS ABOUT THE NUMEROUS WEDDINGS IN JUNE

Miss Ann Dobson Will Start the Ball Rolling as the First Bride of Many More Fashionable Nuptials Which Will Be Held This Week

feshionable weddings in one month for many a day as there will be in this lovely month of June. Starting with today, just think how many of our young people will be among the chaperons instead of the chaperoned when the winter season opens! Today Ann Dobson will become Mrs. William Douglas Kilduff in St. James' Church, at 22d and Walnut streets, where her cousins, the three Jeffries girls, were all married. Ann is a cousin of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson Jeffries, with whom she has lived since the death of her father.

Tomorrow Gladys Williams and George Gordon Meade will plight their troth in the Lady Chapel of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, in Germantown.

The next fashionable wedding will be Sarah Mercur's and John Albert's. This will take place on June 12 out in the rose garden of the Mercur place, in Media. Adeline Pepper and Theodore Paul will go to the altar on June 15, one week before the wedding of Adeline's brother George, and on the 16th Frances Stoughton and Frederick Ballard will be married in Germantown.

There will be two important weddings on June 17: Hansell Earle and Bud Patterson will be married out at the Earle place in Bryn Mawr and Alberta Brinton and Cesare Sturani will be wedded at the Brinton home in Overbrook.

Marion Myers and George Wharton Pepper, Jr., will be married on June 22 in St. Martin's Church, at St. Davids. Altogether, you will admit it is "some marrying month, to say the least.

A number of us are interested in the garden party which Mrs. Henry Brinton Coxe will give this afternoon at her beautiful country home in Penllyn to the Philadelphia Chapter of the Pennsylvania Woman's Division for National Prepar-Philadelphia Chapter, you know. Among the women who will receive with Mrs. Coxe will be Mrs. Tom Robins, Mrs. Henry Boyer, Mrs. James Large, Mrs. Richard Harte, Mrs. Ben Rush, Mrs. Edward Siter, Mrs. Cyrus Curtis, Mrs. Thomas Elwyn, Mrs. Jab Brinton, Mrs. Langdon Mitchell, Mrs. Horace Brock, Miss Eleanor Hopkins, Mrs. Milton Work and Mrs. Albert Smith.

WAGNER OPERA TO BE SUNG

IN GREAT YALE BOWL TONIGHT Gadski, Schumann-Heink and Sembach

Will Be Among Singers NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 5.—More than 20,000 persons have already purchased seats for the immense production of Wagner's "Die Walkeure," which will be produced in lavish manner in the Yale Bowl this evening.

A remarkable feature will be a curtain of steam, which will rise from pipes along the footlights and hide the stage when it is desired. To "raise" the curtain the steam is simply turned off.

The singers include Johanna Gadski. Mme. Schumann-Heink, Melaine Kurt. Johannes Sembach, Clarence Whitehill and Mme. Schumann-Heink, Melaine

Carl Braun.
