ONE RAINSTORM AFTER ANOTHER GREETS MACKS

A's Plan to Trade Togs for Bathing Suits and Take Up

Water Polo

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL

CHICAGO, June 7 .- Life to the Athletics these days is just one rainstorm after another. The moisture has been dripping around our athletes for the last three days, and unless it lets up in the near future the boys plan to trade their baseball suits for bathing costumes and take up water polo. Still, the lay-off today had its good re-sults. The Republican and Progressive con-ventions were held despite the cloudbursts, ventions were held for a body to take them in. Their intentions were good, but them in. Their intentions were good, but the conventions refused to take them in without the precious lickets, and they drilled back to the hotel through the mud after admiring the outside of the buildings.

mud after admiring the outside of the buildings. Connie Mack almost has given up hope of playing even one game in this town and is making his plans to take a fail out of Cleveland on Saturday. The clouds here are not be busted beyond repair and there is no chance to fix them up for a week or so, before this trip is finished Countle intends to make some corrections in his pliching and and bolster up the weak spots. The goods, but the others have got to show something. It is believed that Wyckoff and Crowell will be given one more chance to show what they can do and if they fail to make an impressive showing, they are likely to have some hard luck.
