

ILLUSTRATED

Evening Ledger

WEDNESDAY
June 7, 1916

VIEWS OF THE CHICAGO BATTLEFIELD AND SOME OF THE WARRIORS ON THE GROUND

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
THE LADY IS MRS. CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW
To name the figure on the left would be superfluous. His familiar countenance is decorating the sidelines at the convention.

Photo by Int. Film Service.
SLEUTHS DOG HER FOOT-STEP
Mrs. William A. Davis, of Kentucky, who started the stampede for Roosevelt from the gallery of the 1912 convention, is again in Chicago and the Old Guard is said to be watching lest she repeat.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
THERE ARE TWO FLINNS FROM PITTSBURGH AT THE CONVENTION
This is William, former Senator, who is a delegate to the Moose convention, while, curious to relate, his son, George, is a delegate to the Republican convention. Both are for T. R.

LONG AND LEAN AND PENCIL SLENDER
Edward Murchie is there, working for Roosevelt and abstaining from any coffee that might have been prepared by an Old Guard.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
THE COLISEUM
Where the proceedings started today. The fact that there is a church adjacent has no significance.

MASSACHUSETTS' FAVORITE "FAVORITE SON"
Senator John W. Weeks is on the field with a force which believes it can put him over, and maybe it can.

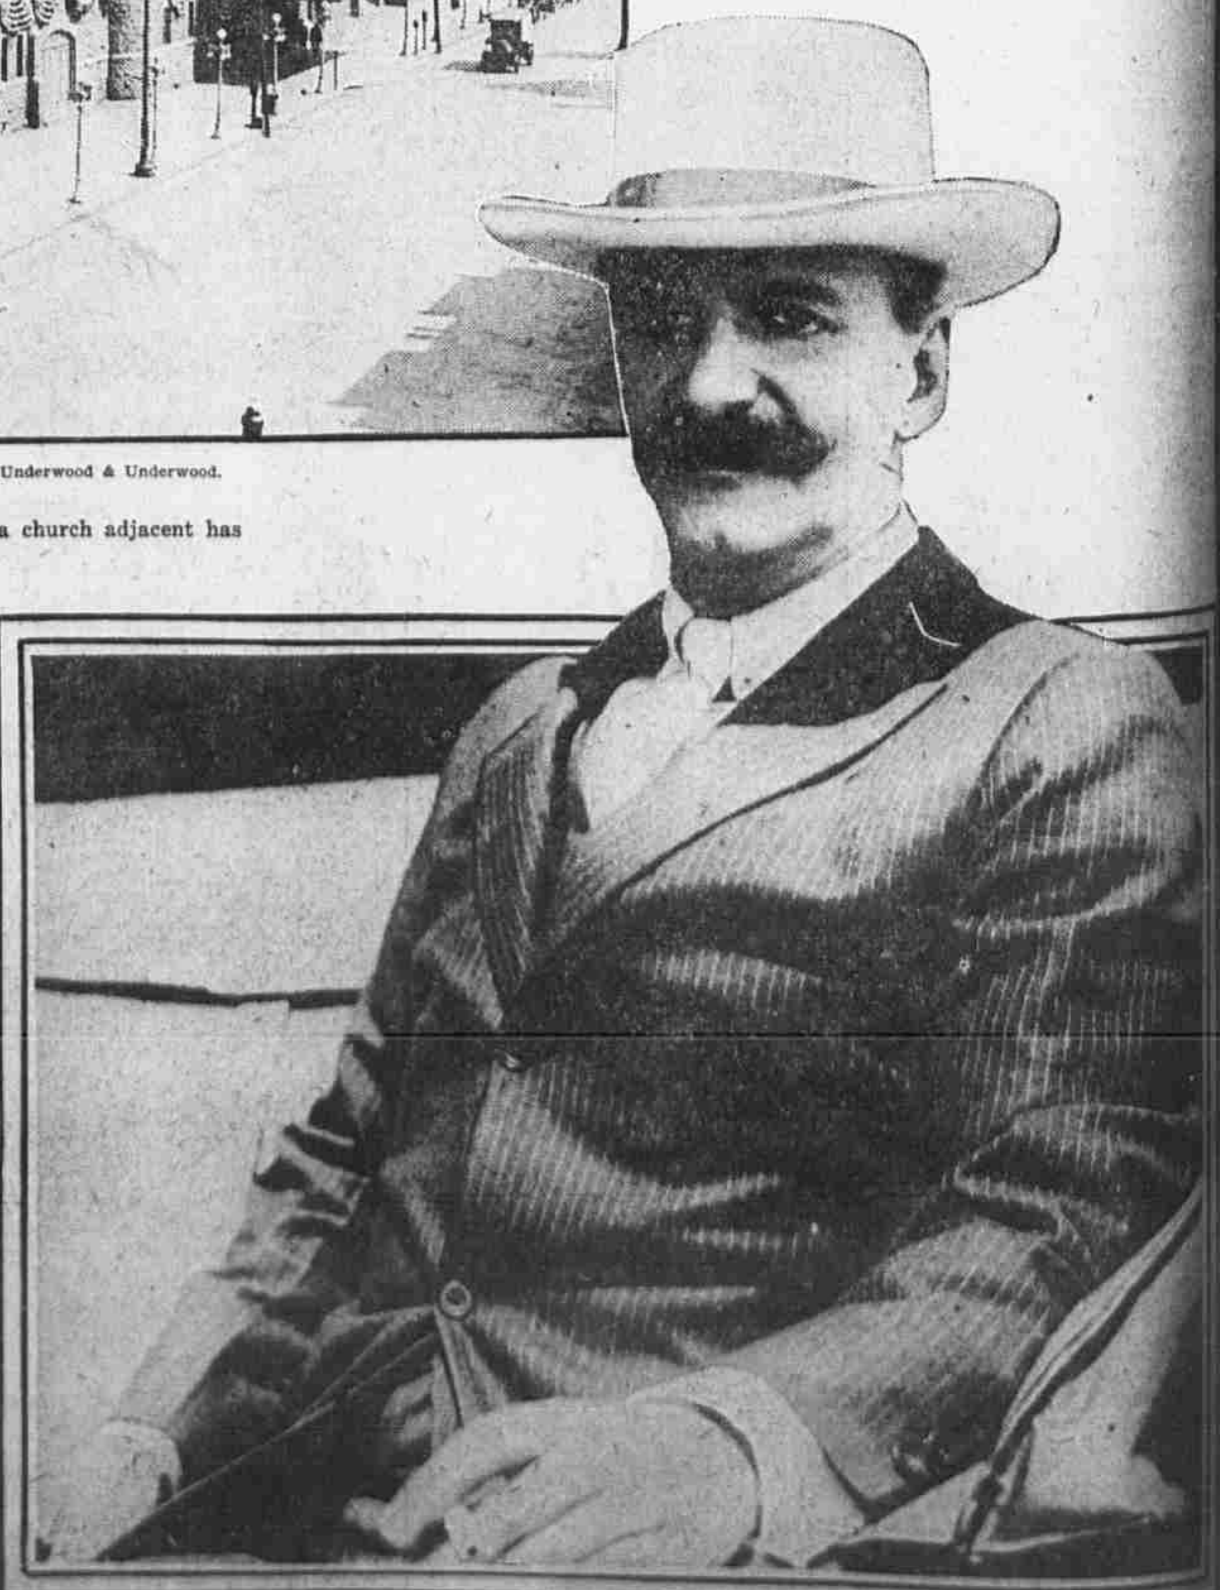

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
THERE WITH A BUNCH FROM DELAWARE
General T. Coleman du Pont is present not only as a candidate but a national committeeman, so he is bound to have a lot of fun out of it anyhow.