RUSSIANS WELL MUNITIONED.

In these battles, the report says, a num-ber of batternes of the enemy were taken intact by Russian Infantry.

This new offensive, pressed with equal vigor in Volhynia, Galicia and Bukowina, evidently is not threatened with the handicap of a death of ammunition and arms which hitherto has nampered Russian of-fensive operations, the communication of the War Office asserting that in this fight-ing "the enemy had actual proof of the increase in our war material." Indications are given in the official statement that the present campaign is the open-ing of a violent general movement to drive enemy troops from Russian soil. The text of the report follows:

The total number of pris-oners and trophies captured in the fighting, which resulted in the enemy being dislodged from his powerfully fortified positions, continues to increase. Since the beginning of the recent actions until noon Tuesday, General actions until noon Tuesday, General Brusiloff's armies have captured 900 officers, more than 40,000 rank and file, 77 guns, 134 machine guns, and 49 trench mortars, and, in addition, searchlights, telephones, field kitchens, a large quantity of arms and war ma-terial and great reserves of ammuni-

The actions have strengthened our con-fidence that as this material develops, the enemy's fortified lines will be more effectively destroyed.

CONGRATULATES ARMY.

The valor and dash of our troops were proved by the result achieved in only three days' fighting. His Majesty's supreme commander at 19 o'clock last night telegraphed from headquarters the following dispatch congratulating the troops of General Brusiloff on the more attained success attained; success attained: Transmit to my well-beloved troops on the front under your command the news that I am following with satisfac-tion their brave deeds, and that I ap-preciate their bravery. Express to them my gratitude. May the good God assist us in driving our enemies from our territories. I am convinced that all will hold firmly together and fight until the glorious end for Bussian arms until the glorious end for Russian arm NICHOLAS.

Coroner Knight said that if the defendant were a man there would be no doubt as to what action would be required and that he believed the boy had "reached years of discretion." Young Spites was sent to the House of Detention and will there await grand jury action.

According to the evidence produced at the inquest, the argument between the boy-uncle and nephew started over the former's suggestion that they go swimming. The nephew refused. Words concerning the refusal led to the uncle pulling out a knffe, as witnesses said, and making an effort to out a bag which the younger boy was enrrying. In the tussle the knife was dropped. The uncle picked it up, and raised it aloft, when the younger boy seized his uncle's hand.

Both the accused boy and his brothe William testified this morning that while the hand was held aloft, the knife fell, and plunged into the uncle's body. During the inquest Nicholas cried in the arms of his
